Unit description Literature has always been at the forefront of responding to and influencing social change, providing profound insights into what it means to live in challenging times. In this unit students choose one of several different streams of study to explore how particular literary epochs, movements and/or genres challenge political hierarchies, narrate social justice, create empathy for humans and the natural world, and engage with conceptual or technological innovations. Learn how major literary figures grappled with the global issues of their own interconnected worlds through dedication to their craft and the enduring search for freedom and meaning.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: Analyse and synthesise literary texts and scholarship across a range of genres.
- ULO2: Articulate links between literary texts and their cultural contexts.
- ULO3: Analyse and explain how literature makes relevant contributions to contemporary debates.
- ULO4: Display creative thinking and construct cohesive arguments.
- ULO5: Engage in informed critical discussion on unit content with peers and teachers, consider and assess others' points of view, and to argue a critical position.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted.

Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Delivery and Resources

Delivery:

Live lectures (which are recorded) and classes start in Week 2. There is a pre-recorded Week 1 lecture, providing information to help students choose 1 of 5 Streams on different literary traditions which they study from Weeks 2 to 13.

Selections must be made in Week 1 through the iLearn site.

One enrolled in a Stream of study (topics below), students are expected to attend or to listen to all recorded lectures before attending their classes each week.

On campus students: Please check the university timetable for lecture and class venues. Please note that all Streams run simultaneously at the same scheduled two-hour block for lecture and tutorial.

Readings:

This will vary, depending on choice of Stream. For more details, see Unit Schedule below or email the Unit Convenor.

Unit Schedule

The five available Streams are:

Stream A Medieval Texts and their Modern Afterlives (Prof Louise D'Arcens)

Stream B Literature and Crisis in Restoration England and Augustan Britain: Reinventing Self, Nation, Literature (Dr Geoffrey Payne)

Stream C Victorian Poetry: Realism, Activism, Escapism (Dr Veronica Alfano)

Stream D From Picturebook to Pixel: Children's and YA Stories in Books, Comics, TV and Film

(Dr Ryan Twomey)

Stream E The History and Future of Australian Literature (Dr Toby Davidson)

Full details on each Stream are available when the iLearn site opens in Week 0.
