Unit description

This unit provides students with foundational theoretical and embodied knowledge of some of the major contemporary performing arts practices in the 21st Century. Students will learn practice-based skills in a range of performing arts and related disciplines, and their interaction with various live and online media such as film, sound, and writing for performance. No prior experience of the performing arts and entertainment industries is required.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: evaluate developments in contemporary performance practices in relation to their wider social, cultural, and artistic contexts.

ULO2: apply theoretical modes of understanding and critical evaluation skills to practical performance making.

ULO3: collaborate and produce practical performance projects while developing discipline-specific creative and communication skills.

General Assessment Information

Assessment

- Rubrics are used for all assessments and will be available on iLearn.
- Assessment standards in this unit align with the University's grade descriptors.
- A computer and Internet access are required. Music playback facility is also required.

Written and Performed Submissions

No creative works (songs, music, performances) that have been performed or analysed for assessments in other units may be used for assessment tasks in this unit.

Written assessment tasks must be submitted through Turnitin by the due date/time shown.

Assessment tasks

- The final assessment will be in Week 11.
- Due to copyright, no practical assessments may be recorded or posted to social media or any online platform.
- Performances are to be from memory. That is, no reading of scripts, lyrics or music.
- Any vocals used on backing tracks must be performed by members of the group, and must not substitute for live vocals where live performance is possible.
- Performing in a language other than English is permitted. Please email a translation of the lyrics to the unit convenor prior to the assessment date.

Referencing Style

For all written work, students are required to use the APA 7th referencing style for all in-text referencing and reference lists. This also includes references for recorded material where appropriate.

Please use the Library databases for your own research purposes and do not use Wikipedia as a reference.

iLearn Forums

Students are required to participate in iLearn Forums for all group discussions. Please do not use social media, e.g., do not use Facebook. Due to copyright issues, the posting of lyrics, sheet music and/or videos on iLearn is not permitted. If appropriate, please post only links to resources such as websites/YouTube. Please ensure that these are legitimate sites (e.g., artist's websites).

Return of marked work

Work will be marked and returned with feedback in order for students to incorporate feedback in subsequent assessments.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.
