Unit description

The objective of this unit is to develop practical media communications skills, including: strategy writing, budgeting and professional presentation. The unit offers real-life case studies as well as a possibility of pitching ideas to client organisations.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: analyse key theories and concepts in the field of media and communication.

ULO2: evaluate effectiveness of various media and communication strategies and campaigns.

ULO3: communicate the problems of planning campaigns which are ethical, sustainable, and cross cultural.

ULO4: apply advanced communication and analytical skills, including the ability to critique, write and present clear and persuasive arguments individually and as a group.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

*Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to written reports and recordings only. Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs will be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application.

Due: Week 10 (or Week 11 if needed) during your tutorial

Weighting: 30%

Groupwork/Individual: Individual

Short extension ³: No

AI Approach: Observed

Your consultancy will present a PR strategy to your client. Your goal is to convince your client that the strategy you have put together will solve the communication challenges they are currently facing and your team will provide the best possible results for them. All team members are expected to have a speaking role and members should work together to ensure smooth and logical links between each speaker. Each student will receive an individual mark for their presentation. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- analyse key theories and concepts in the field of media and communication.
- evaluate effectiveness of various media and communication strategies and campaigns.
- communicate the problems of planning campaigns which are ethical, sustainable, and cross cultural.
- apply advanced communication and analytical skills, including the ability to critique, write and present clear and persuasive arguments individually and as a group.

Due: 06/11/2026

Weighting: 30%

Groupwork/Individual: Individual

Short extension ³: No

AI Approach: Open

The assessment requires you to work in a small group as a communications consultancy to develop a comprehensive communications plan (PR strategy) for your client. Each student will be responsible for a component of the report. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- analyse key theories and concepts in the field of media and communication.
- evaluate effectiveness of various media and communication strategies and campaigns.
- communicate the problems of planning campaigns which are ethical, sustainable, and cross cultural.
- apply advanced communication and analytical skills, including the ability to critique, write and present clear and persuasive arguments individually and as a group.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- Academic Success for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation.

³ An automatic short extension is available for some assessments. Apply through the Service Connect Portal.

Delivery and Resources

Seminars

2-hour seminars will run from Weeks 2-12.

Consultations

Online Zoom consultations with the convenor will be available every week up to Week 13 when the final reports are due.

Please feel free to share your ideas and work-in-progress to check that you are on the right track.

Please email the convenor to arrange a consultation time.

Readings

Readings will be available via ilearn. Please note that some textbooks may be unavailable during high use times e.g. just before assessments are due, so you are encouraged to consult the readings well ahead of time.

Out-of-class commitment

This unit is a 10-credit point unit. This means that you should allocate approximately 10 hours of study per week for this unit (including in non-teaching weeks).

Roughly speaking each week this time should be spent on:

- actively participating in the seminars (2 hrs)
- engaging with readings (2 hrs)
- preparing for assessment tasks (6 hrs)

Assessment preparation includes such activities as:

- conducting research e.g. into the case study, your organisation, competitors, target public, tools and tactics
- writing drafts, proofreading, editing, preparing mock-ups for the presentation and/or report
- meeting with team members to discuss your project

Teamwork

Teamwork is an essential component of this unit, particularly for the pitch and report. Expect to work with fellow students while developing the strategy campaign both during tutorials and outside of class time and bring a positive and professional attitude towards collaboration with peers.

While you will ultimately be marked on your own parts of the presentation and report, you will need to work effectively in a team to ensure the various parts are cohesive and fit well together.

Feedback in this Unit

Feedback in this unit to individuals, groups, and the class/cohort may be made available in multiple forms, including:

- Q&A sessions in lectures and tutorials - please don't hesitate to raise your hand, speak up, or ask questions in the chat function for online classes.
- Via email - please don't hesitate to ask any questions via email as they arise. For general assessment questions, please email the convenor and CC in your tutor, noting which class (day and time) you are in.
- Individual or group Zoom or face-to-face consultations with the convenor - to arrange a private consultation please email your convenor to make an appointment to meet with the convenor.
- Peer-to-peer feedback during tutorials and group sessions.
- Announcements on iLearn - please check ilearn announcements regularly for extra supporting information and updates.

- Within Turnitin assignments - see textbox, comments on the actual submission, and mark-up on rubric for feedback on submitted assessments.

Samples of assessments, as well as detailed marking rubrics for all assessment tasks, will be made available on iLearn.

Please don't hesitate to request feedback as you need it.

Emails

Generally, student emails will be replied to within 48 business hours. Students should not expect emails to be returned on weekends and after hours.

Students should ensure that they can receive emails sent to their MQ email addresses.

Technology Required

This unit will make extensive use of iLearn <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>. Required readings, comprehensive information on assessment tasks and important announcements will be posted to iLearn. Make sure you check iLearn and your Macquarie University email account regularly during this unit.
