Unit description
This unit introduces students to health law and ethics in Australia. Duties, obligations and responsibilities that arise in the context of the health practitioner-patient relationship will be examined, as well as areas of health law that pose ethical and/or regulatory challenges. These include:legal concepts and areas of law integral to health care treatment (capacity and consent; negligence and criminal law; management of health care information); applied health law and ethics (mental illness and disability; preconception, conception and birth; end of life; human tissues); and broader systemic regulation of health care (regulation of health care practitioners; public health; research involving humans). Contemporary issues will be explored to examine interrelationships between health law, policy, ethics, regulation, human rights and social justice.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Critically analyse the fundamental doctrines, concepts, principles, values and sources of regulation, relevant to health law.

ULO2: Analyse how health law and ethics may impact upon practice and/or research.

ULO3: Integrate and synthesise knowledge from a range of multi- disciplinary sources to generate appropriate responses to health related problems that raise ethical, social, legal and/or human rights issues.

ULO4: Communicate effectively with legal and non-legal audiences in relation to health related matters that raise ethical, social, legal and/or human rights issues.

General Assessment Information

The deadline for submiting the Expert Submission written task is 23:55pm on 10/01/2027 (or, factoring in a 3-day short extension per https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/assessments/short-extensions, 23:55pm on 13/01/2027). The Expert Submission must include an AI-use declaration as set out in the task instructions. Students will be provided with a sign-up facility to choose their preferred time slot for their Expert Appearance from a list of times (including day and evening) between the dates indicated above, with some time slots on weekends. Consistent with the Faculty of Arts Late Assessment Submission Penalty Policy (see below), no late submissions or rescheduling Expert Appearances will be permitted once the sign-up facility closes in the absence of a successful application for special consideration.

Students who fail to submit a written Expert Submission will be precluded from making an Expert Appearance, resulting in a grade of zero for both assessments.

Word limits will be strictly applied and work above the word limit will not be graded. Footnotes and bibliographies are not included in word counts; however, footnotes are primarily to be used for referencing. Assessments must be submitted in the format prescribed in detailed instructions provided on the unit iLean page. All assessments in the unit are to be submitted electronically via Turnitin. Plagiarism detection software is used in this unit.

All assessments must be appropriately referenced, applying the Australian Guide to Legal Citation (4th ed).

Further instructions and marking rubrics for each of the assessments in the Unit will be provided on the unit's iLearn page.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (Faculty of Arts)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted*, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.*

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/ exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Delivery and Resources

This unit will be delivered in an intensive format during Semester 3 at the Wallumattagal Campus (main campus in North Ryde). In person attendance is mandatory for intensive full-day, afternoon and evening block sessions that will be scheduled in week 1 (Dec 14-20, 2026) and week 2 (Jan 4-10, 2027) of session 3. Students may only attend the tutorials in which they have enrolled.

A limited number of online spaces will be available for remote study during Weeks 1 and 2, intended primarily for students who are interstate or who have an Individual Education Adjustment Plan. Students are responsible for ensuring that they have stable internet access.

Computer and stable Internet access are required in order to successfully complete this unit. Basic computer skills (e.g., internet browsing) and skills in word processing are also a requirement.

All lectures will be pre-recorded and accessed via the unit iLearn page, which will be available to students after they have enrolled in this unit of study (in advance of the start of the study session). Reading lists and discussion questions to prepare for tutorials will also be available, in advance, via the unit iLearn page.

All students registered for the internal mode must be available to attend tutorials in person on the Wallumattagal Campus (main campus in North Ryde) for .

Students should consult the official Timetable for class times, dates and locations (if face-to-face) and mode of delivery at a specified time. Instructions for online tutorials via Zoom will be provided on the unit's iLearn page.

Online content for this unit can be accessed at http://ilearn.mq.edu.au

Prescribed weekly readings will be made available via the unit iLearn page and/or Leganto. The following textbooks are recommeded as general resources for the unit: Ben White et al. Health Law in Australia (Thomson, 4th ed, 2024).
