Unit description
We all know what we like, and what we don't like, but writing insightfully about the creative arts requires high levels of expressive skills and knowledge. In this unit students produce album, concert and event reviews and reports, and other forms of writing about the arts. Lectures examine a range of long and short form review and arts writing and criticism, across both print and broadcast media.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Identify and critique key issues raised in the production of music and arts journalism
- Develop creative arts journalism through in-depth relevant research using a variety of methodologies
- Apply unique methods of presenting research in writing for a general readership
- Construct and write stories yourself that fall into the broad category of music and arts journalism

Pop quizzes

Due: In class
Weighting: 30%

In-class quizzes:

During the course of the semester you will be required to write three (3) in-lecture quiz papers. Each paper is worth 10% of your overall mark. A quiz requires you to respond to a question set during a lecture. They are designed to assist you in demonstrating your knowledge of the unit content as a whole. You will be given 15 minutes in which to write your response. The questions for the quizzes are on the topic covered that week. Questions will require you to draw on content from lectures and set readings. Therefore, you are strongly advised to complete all set readings and attend all lectures. The weeks chosen for in-lecture quizzes will not be announced in advance but at least one quiz will be held before week 5. Unless medical certification (or similar) is provided, your quiz response must be handed in immediately upon finish in order for marks to be counted.

Failure to sit an in-lecture quiz will result in a mark of zero (0) for that quiz. If you miss a quiz due to a medical issue then you will be given the opportunity to sit the test at a later date. In such cases you must supply a medical certificate. Please note that medical certificates issued a significant period after the date of illness may not be accepted as these may be contrary to AMA guidelines for issuing medical certificates (http://ama.com.au/system/files/node/6505/Guidelines+for+Medical+Practitioners+on+Certificates+Certifying+Illness+2011.pdf). Non-medical reasons for missing tutorial quizzes will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis but reasons such as tardiness due to travel arrangements will not be accepted.

Marking Criteria:

- Demonstrated understanding of the question
- Demonstrated knowledge of lecture and reading materials
- Application of materials to set question

Submission:

https://unitguides.mq.edu.au/unit_offerings/31740/unit_guide/print
In-lecture quiz responses will be handwritten and submitted to the lecturer during the lecture.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Identify and critique key issues raised in the production of music and arts journalism

Writing tasks

Due: Weekly
Weighting: 10%

Writing Writing Exercises

The weekly writing workshops are the practical core of this course, so it is essential that the writing exercises be done and brought along in suitable form each week. Each week’s exercise must be typed (double-spaced), and you must bring 8 copies to your tutorial for workshopping. A schedule of weekly exercises will be handed out in Week 1. Write approximately 200 words for each exercise.

Marking Criteria:

• Demonstrated ability to write grammatically correct sentences, following accepted English syntax and punctuation.
• Demonstrated ability to write vividly without using cliches, ‘showing’ not ‘telling’, and an awareness of nuances of meaning
• Evidence of having understood the set task

Submission:

To be handed to your tutor each week during your tutorial. Failure to submit by the end of each tutorial will result in a loss of marks.

Extensions:

Extensions can only be granted by the tutor in line with university policy.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Apply unique methods of presenting research in writing for a general readership

Research portfolio & report

Due: Tuesday 1 October 2013
Weighting: 25%
Task: Submit a research portfolio plus 600-word research report. Details of this assessment will be made available in Week 1.

Marking criteria:
- Demonstrated ability to conduct in-depth, relevant research using a variety of methodologies
- Demonstrated ability to synthesise this research by focusing on one or two key themes to have emerged from it
- Demonstrated ability to reflect on the relevance of such research to your proposed creative arts article

Submission:
This assignment must be submitted to the Student Centre (W6A) by 11.59pm on Tuesday 1 October.

Late Submission:
A late penalty of 10% per day will be applied.

Extensions:
Extensions will only be granted by the unit convenor in line with university policy.

Turn It In:
This unit does NOT use Turn It In.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Identify and critique key issues raised in the production of music and arts journalism
- Develop creative arts journalism through in-depth relevant research using a variety of methodologies
- Apply unique methods of presenting research in writing for a general readership

Essay
Due: Wednesday 6 November 2013
Weighting: 35%

Essay
Your task is to write a 2000-word article suitable for publication in a newspaper, magazine, street press, zine, blog, website etc, or suitable to be read on a radio or television arts and culture-type program. This is not a university essay and does not require footnotes and bibliography. Further details of the essay assignment will be distributed in Week 1.

Marking Criteria:

• Demonstrated ability to write vividly without using cliches, ‘showing’ not ‘telling’, and an awareness of nuances of meaning
• Evidence of intellectual investigation
• Demonstrated ability to synthesise in-depth research into a compelling, well-structured story
• Evidence that the writer has taken creative risks, both in choice of research/writing topic, and in the writing itself
• Demonstrated ability to write grammatically correct sentences, following accepted English syntax and punctuation.
• Evidence of a ‘voice’ in the piece – a consistent, warm, trust-worthy sense of authority

Submission:

This assignment must be submitted to the Student Centre (W6A) by 11.59pm on Wednesday 6 November.

Late Submission:

A late penalty of 10% per day will be applied.

Extensions:

Extensions will only be granted by the unit convenor in line with university policy.

Turn It In:

This unit does NOT use Turn It In.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Apply unique methods of presenting research in writing for a general readership
• Construct and write stories yourself that fall into the broad category of music and arts
Delivery and Resources

Lectures take place on Thursdays at 10am in W5C T1.

Lectures and tutorials for this unit begin in Week 1.

Technology used: iLearn

Required unit materials: A MAS211 unit reader can be purchased from the Co-op bookshop on campus.

Changes to previous offerings of the unit: In 2013, Dr. Kate Rossmanith is replacing Dr. Peter Doyle as unit convenor. A new assessment task (research portfolio & report) is replacing the previous assessment task (proposal/pitch/outline).

To complete the unit satisfactorily, students must attend at least 80% of classes. They must also submit all assessment tasks, and achieve at least a pass grade for their overall grade for the unit.

Essential Readings:

- Lucas Ihlein ‘At the Cemetery’ (here’s the link: http://www.bonscottblog.com/2008/02/20/at-the-cemetery/)
- Laban, Rudolph, ‘Notes on movement analysis and psychology of movement,’ unpublished, pp. 11-12
- Timothy White ‘A man out of time beat the clock’, an interview with Elvis Costello, Timothy White Musician, 60, 1983
- Lucas Abela ‘Cyclic sheets’, from Cyclic Defrost Issue 25, 2010
- Lasica, Shelley, ’Writing the Past Dance Ideologies’, Writings On Dance 2: Critical
Unit Schedule
A unit schedule can be accessed in the unit’s iLearn site.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.
