Unit description
This unit enables students to explore creativity and its role in art making for both adults and children. Students engage in an exploration of theory and research which relate to definitions of creativity and imagination. Cognitive, affective and imaginative aspects of creativity are explored through forms of art relevant to early childhood. Seminars include practical, creative experiences in each of the art form areas: music and movement/dance, visual arts and drama.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Develop an understanding of contemporary theories of creativity.
- Develop understanding of ways in which the creative arts are used in education, to explore, create and communicate about the world.
- Engage in discourse about creativity in contemporary contexts.
- Explore the creative process by engaging in art-making and art appreciation experiences.
- Apply knowledge of the skills, techniques and conventions of the arts by creating an original art work which can relate to teaching in primary school and/or ECEC settings.

Online Discussions

Due: August
Weighting: 15%

Starting in week 1 of the semester you are expected to submit 4 postings related to specified unit readings. These are located in the relevant weekly sections of the iLearn site, under the heading Assessment. Postings relate to weeks 1, 2, 4, and 9. The due dates are shown on iLearn. Each posting is due by Monday evening of the week AFTER the readings are done, so that you have the weekend available to finalise the week’s task.

There will be questions or focus topics set out each week, based on the week’s readings and on individual investigations and experiences.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Develop an understanding of contemporary theories of creativity.
- Develop understanding of ways in which the creative arts are used in education, to explore, create and communicate about the world.
- Engage in discourse about creativity in contemporary contexts.

Creativity Essay

Due: October
Weighting: 25%

Essay Question: In what way/s might the artist (choose from list provided) provide a lived example of the theories of creativity you have researched in ECH454?

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Develop an understanding of contemporary theories of creativity.
- Develop understanding of ways in which the creative arts are used in education, to explore, create and communicate about the world.
Creative journal

Due: November
Weighting: 20%

For this subject, you will need to keep a Creative Journal (or Process Diary). You might like to purchase a sketchbook specifically for this purpose (depending on your personal preferences, this might be A3, A4 or A5 sized), or, if you prefer, you might like to have a folder or a digital document that you add to over the semester.

In your creative journal, as well as describing and analysing the creative processes of your chosen major creative work (and related explorations of techniques, subject matter, influences of other artists etc), you should also include photographs, jottings, sketches and notes that make visible your creative processes.

For the written components of your creative journal, you are required to write at least 4 entries, at least 200 words each, documenting the progress of your major work. There must be at least 4 weeks between the first and the last entry.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Develop an understanding of contemporary theories of creativity.
- Develop understanding of ways in which the creative arts are used in education, to explore, create and communicate about the world.
- Engage in discourse about creativity in contemporary contexts.
- Explore the creative process by engaging in art-making and art appreciation experiences.
- Apply knowledge of the skills, techniques and conventions of the arts by creating an original art work which can relate to teaching in primary school and/or ECEC settings.

Major Creative Work

Due: November
Weighting: 40%

You are required create an original artwork suitable for sharing with young children and with potential to enhance their creative engagement with the arts. Your creative product is not to be specifically designed as a teaching aid. However it could of course be used in a classroom as part of a curriculum, just as books, music or visual art works are used.

You must specify a target age group between birth and 12 years and justify your choice (in your journal).

Projects may include:
- an artwork e.g. painting, drawing, collage, sculpture, fabric art
On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop an understanding of contemporary theories of creativity.
- Develop understanding of ways in which the creative arts are used in education, to explore, create and communicate about the world.
- Engage in discourse about creativity in contemporary contexts.
- Explore the creative process by engaging in art-making and art appreciation experiences.
- Apply knowledge of the skills, techniques and conventions of the arts by creating an original art work which can relate to teaching in primary school and/or ECEC settings.

Delivery and Resources

This unit is offered in internal and external mode

Internal students will attend a 1-hour lecture and 2-hour tutorial classes every week on the university campus. Timetable / location details for these tutorials can be found on the University website at: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/

External students enrolled in this unit will attend an on campus session, scheduled for 25th September. If you foresee problems in attending the session, please let the Unit Coordinator know as soon as possible. Non-attendance can lead to exclusion from the Unit, so it is essential that you discuss difficulties or concerns with the Unit Coordinator. All lectures are digitally recorded live and available through the ECHO360 facility for you to listen to weekly. Lecture slides will also be posted on the unit website.

All students are expected to participate in web discussions.

All readings are available on eReserve.

Graduate Capabilities
Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative
We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes
• Develop an understanding of contemporary theories of creativity.
• Develop understanding of ways in which the creative arts are used in education, to explore, create and communicate about the world.
• Engage in discourse about creativity in contemporary contexts.
• Explore the creative process by engaging in art-making and art appreciation experiences.

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop an understanding of contemporary theories of creativity.
- Engage in discourse about creativity in contemporary contexts.
