Unit description
Drawing on both theoretical texts and works of fiction, this unit examines the critical application of key aspects of narrative theories to children's fiction. Topics include: types of narration, point of view and focalisation in narrative; beginnings and endings; narrative time; characterisation; theory of genres and modes; metafiction and experimental fiction.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes

1. Develop an understanding of and an ability to apply concepts employed in narrative theory in order to extend understanding of children's fiction beyond the conventional elements of plot, character and theme.

2. Attain a conceptual language with which to discuss narrative forms.

3. Gain an understanding of the implications different narrative forms and processes have for readers.

4. Attain skills in applying (some of) the analytical resources available from narrative theory.

Delivery and Resources

DELIVERY

One two-hour seminar per week.

RESOURCES

There is one unit reader containing primary resources available for purchase from the bookshop. Secondary readings will be available through E-Reserve.

UNIT WEBPAGE AND TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED:

Online units can be accessed at: http://ilearn.mq.edu.au PC and Internet access are required. Basic computer skills (e.g., internet browsing) and skills in word processing are also a requirement.

Please consult teaching staff for any further, more specific requirements.

UNIT REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS:

To complete ENGL 722 students must:

- Attend and participate in seminars (if internal).
- Make at least 8 online posts on the iLearn Discussions Forum (if external)
- Complete all prescribed assessment tasks.
- Reach a satisfactory level of achievement in the prescribed assessment tasks.

*Absence from more than two seminars without written explanation (medical or counselling certificate) will disqualify a student from passing the unit. University regulations also stipulate that a student must attempt every part of assessment in order to be eligible to pass a unit of study.

Notes on Participation for External Students:

External students must participate in online discussions via the ENGL 722 iLearn site. External students should read the weekly texts and prepare the seminar discussion topics in advance, then post responses to the seminar questions and respond to the posts of other students, to facilitate an active discussion such as would occur in a face-to-face seminar. Students are also encouraged to raise other relevant points of interest in their online discussions. Be prepared to question the opinions of others, to have your opinions challenged and to participate actively in discussion. Students are expected to make at least 8 posts* over the semester. Please make sure that your postings do not exceed 500 words, as it is harder for others to respond to postings that are excessively long and detailed.

*A “post” is defined as a discursive response relevant to unit interests of at least 50 words: a short paragraph of at least 4 sentences.
Policies and Procedures
Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

Academic Honesty Policy http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html
Disruption to Studies Policy http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html The Disruption to Studies Policy is effective from March 3 2014 and replaces the Special Consideration Policy.

In addition, a number of other policies can be found in the Learning and Teaching Category of Policy Central.

Student Code of Conduct
Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mq.edu.au/support/student_conduct/

Results
Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au.

Assessment
Written work must be submitted through the relevant turnitin link in the ENGL371 Ilearn site. Your work will not be marked unless it has been submitted via Turnitin. Do not send essays via email.

Penalty for Late Submission
Late submission of written work without prior approval and supporting documentation (eg. a medical certificate) will attract a penalty of 2% per day (including weekends). If you have a legitimate reason for being unable to submit your work on time, for which you can provide documentation, please contact the convenor to discuss an extension (before the due date).

Word Limits
Word limits are to be observed. Assessment tasks more that 10% over or under the prescribed word limit will be penalised by 10%.
