Unit description
This unit involves attendance at clinical placements and internships. There are three distinct clinical placement programs: Public Interest Advocacy Centre – students learn the strategies and issues in advocating for the public interest, and explore strategies to achieve legal change. The program involves time at PIAC, and with the pro bono section of a law firm and a law-related agency. Macquarie Legal Centre (MLC) – students participate in community legal centre practice, study and reflect on access to justice issues, the operation of law in society, and the roles lawyers play. MLC Family Law Placement – students participate in community legal centre practice, focusing on family relationships law and practice. Entry to this unit is by application. Applications open in November for the following year. Placement opportunities at other organisations may arise during the year, and are advertised via email by the convenor.

Placement

Due: Completion of placement

Weighting: 0%

This is a pass/fail component. Students must attend and participate in each placement day.

To indicate satisfactory attendance and participation, the placement supervisor will certify to the unit convenor that each student:

- attended each day
- responded to directions and carried out required tasks
- participated constructively in discussions
- acted ethically, i.e. respectfully, with apparent honesty, and was aware of potential conflicts of interest

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
- Identify the personal and professional demands on, and expectations of, a lawyer in practice
• Apply the interpersonal skills necessary in legal practice

Class participation
Due: See iLearn
Weighting: 10%

Students are required to participate in class discussion by responding to set discussion questions. The questions and attendance dates for the various groups are provided on iLearn.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Contrast and analyse the connection and tension between law and procedure on the one hand, and the realities of legal practice on the other
• Identify the personal and professional demands on, and expectations of, a lawyer in practice

Presentation
Due: See iLearn
Weighting: 20%

Students make an 8 minute presentation to members of the placement group, and other placement groups about a particular aspect of their placement and the institutions attended. Guidelines and marking criteria are on iLearn. Dates for presentations will be allocated at the first seminar for each group.

Presentations will be held during Week 8 and 11 (Monday-Thursday) 5-7.30pm. Students are only required to attend on the date of their presentation.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Apply effective communication skills

Research essay
Due: See iLearn
Weighting: 50%

MLC - Students are required to submit a research essay on a social justice or community legal centre policy and practice issue. Topics will be provided, and students may nominate their own topic for approval by the convenor.

PIAC - Students are required to submit a research essay on a public interest issue. Students may nominate their own topic for approval by the convenor.

FRC - Students are required to submit a research essay on issues that arise in provision of family law and community legal services. Topics will be provided, and students may nominate their own topic for approval by the convenor.

RACS - Students are required to submit a research essay on issues that arise during their RACS placement in the provision of assistance to refugees. Students nominate their own topic for approval by the convenor.

Essay questions, marking criteria and due dates are on iLearn

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

The Disruption to Studies Policy is effective from March 3 2014 and replaces the Special Consideration Policy.

In addition, a number of other policies can be found in the Learning and Teaching Category of Policy Central.

Student Code of Conduct

Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mq.edu.au/support/student_conduct/

Results

Results shown in iLearn, or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au.
Macquarie Law School Assessment Policy

Word limits in Macquarie Law School assessments are strictly applied. The word limit does not include footnotes or bibliographies where they are required. Unless explicitly indicated otherwise, referencing must comply with the current version of the Australian Guide to Legal Citation. In the absence of a successful application for special consideration, any assessment task submitted after its published deadline will not be graded and will receive a mark of zero.

All research essays (excluding online quizzes) will require submission through Turnitin 'Special Consideration'

The University Special Consideration Policy has been replaced with the new 'Disruption Policy'. The Policy can be found at http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html
