Unit description
What literary techniques, genres and styles are called forth by the environmental challenges of our times? This applied writing unit looks at how nonfiction, as a human art-form, accesses the non-human world. In addressing contemporary ecological themes, students will have the opportunity to explore traditions in creative nonfiction, nonfiction poetry, lyricism, natural history, science, and public advocacy writing. Skills developed include place-based observation, writing about embodiment and landscape, writing about animals, scientific storytelling and the use of primary resources. At the conclusion of the unit students will submit a writing folio developed throughout the workshop series.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes

1. a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
2. b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
3. c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
4. d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and
5. e) Reflecting on process, provide constructive feedback on students’ writing in a workshop context.

General Assessment Information

Assessment Submission Guidelines

Marking rubrics will be provided for written assessment tasks. A portion of marks for each written assessment piece will be assigned to presentation.

All written assessments are to be submitted through Turnitin (unless otherwise specified) in word document format.

As near as possible, word counts should be adhered to. Students who exceed the total word count for formal assessment pieces by up to 10% will not be penalised. Students who fall short of the total word count for formal assessment pieces by under 10% will not be penalised. Outside of these margins grades will be impacted by at least 10% of the total mark, in accordance with English Department policy.

It is each student’s responsibility to ensure work is submitted by the due date. Extensions need to be negotiated with your instructor prior to an assessment’s due date, and will only be granted in exceptional, unforeseeable circumstances. Extensions will not be granted for final assessments without a preemptive application lodged through Ask.Mq with supporting documentation (a Professional Authority Form).

The Disruption to Studies Procedure and policy is applicable to students who suffer serious and unavoidable disturbance to their academic progress throughout the semester, inclusive of periods of bereavement, sudden injury and illness (psychological and physical), societal obligation (such as jury duty), and family disruption. The University accounts for such events as being beyond a student’s control and being unable to be anticipated (www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html).

Late Penalties will be applied to work submitted after the due date. English Department policy specifies that late essays will attract a penalty of 2% per day (or part thereof), including weekends. Work that is more than 2 weeks overdue without an extension will be marked on the rubric only, and will receive no detailed feedback.

Written feedback from your instructor will be provided through the Turnitin interface, usually in the form of in-text comments. It will be beneficial for students to read all marking rubrics prior to submitting assessment, and to reflect on feedback from their instructor.

University Grading Policy

The grade a student receives will signify their overall performance in meeting the learning outcomes of a unit of study. Grades will not be awarded by reference to the achievement of other students nor allocated to fit a predetermined distribution. In determining a grade, due weight will be given to the learning outcomes and level of a unit (i.e. 100, 200, 300, 800 etc.). Graded units will use the following grades:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>

Plagiarism and Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is an integral part of the core values and principles contained in the Macquarie University Ethics Statement: http://www.mq.edu.au/ethics/ethic-statement-final.html. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- All academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim;
- All academic collaborations are acknowledged;
- Academic work is not falsified in any way;
- Academic work has not been previously or concurrently submitted for assessment elsewhere; and
- When the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

The link below has more details about the policy, procedure and schedule of penalties that will apply to breaches of the Academic Honesty Policy which can be viewed at: http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

Breaches of academic honesty are taken seriously and can attract penalties, failure of the assessment task or the unit, or further disciplinary action depending on the severity of the dishonest conduct.

Participation

Due: Week 01—Week 13
Weighting: 10%

A threshold requirement for participation marks is attendance and involvement in all the seminars. In addition to attendance and involvement, participation entails completing all the readings and listening to all the Echo recordings before class; and reflecting on those materials. Students will need to address the discussion questions posed under each week’s heading on iLearn and arrive at their own answers synthesized from what has been read, listened to and thought about. Students will be called upon to answer these questions in class, and should prepare to speak to the broader issues they raise.

Submitting workshop drafts in a timely fashion and up to standard will contribute to participation, as will feedback to peers during workshop.

Finally, students are required to complete Three Short Writing Exercises during the period from Week 01 to 06, details for which will be posted on iLearn. These exercises vary in word count between 50 and 500 words.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
- d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and
- e) Reflecting on process, provide constructive feedback on students’ writing in a workshop context.

Early Feedback Quiz

Due: 20 March 2015 (Week 04)
Weighting: 5%

In Week 04 students will be required to complete a short iLearn quiz. The quiz is comprised of two components: definitions of some core concepts relevant to the unit, and a review of content found in the unit handbook. The quiz will be multiple choice and short answer.
This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;

Writing Assessment 01
Due: 10 April 2015
Weighting: 20%
Word count: 1,000 words (poetry/hybrid work equivalent: 60 lines).
Writing Assessment 01 (Minor Creative Work) requires the development 1 or 2 of the writing exercises undertaken between Weeks 01 and 06 into short work/s.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
• b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
• c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
• d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and

Plan for Major Creative Work
Due: 11 May 2015 (Week 10)
Weighting: 5%
Word Count: Up to 500 words.
In ENGL332 students have the opportunity to submit and receive early feedback on a plan for their final Major Creative Work. There are two different ways in which this task can be approached: students might write a ‘pitch’, as you would do were you to solicit a commission from a journal editor: or alternatively, they might follow the worksheet uploaded onto iLearn which asks a series of questions about the Major Creative Work and assigns a space for an early draft of the introduction or another section of the work.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
• d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and

Writing Assessment 02
Due: 05 June 2015 (Week 13)
Weighting: 60%
Word Count: 2,500 words (2,000 word creative content + 500 word reflective statement) OR 130
The Major Creative Work for this unit is a 2,000 word nonfiction essay OR a 130 line nonfiction poetical/hybrid written work/s that engages with the themes and techniques explored in the unit. Concept development will be an important factor in this assessment, hence the submission of the plan in Week 10. The Major Creative Work must evidence significant research, and requires students to include a bibliography.

At the end of the Major Creative Work students should include a 500 word reflective statement. What we are principally looking for in a reflective statement is demonstrated consciousness of creative methods, and a mature contemplation of the text’s reception.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
- d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and

Delivery and Resources

The unit is taught in a blended learning format. Students will participate in a 2 hour face to face seminar from Week 01 to Week 12 of the semester (Week 13 is a non-teaching week). Attendance is mandatory in ENGL332—there is no quota of classes that can be missed without impact on the student’s participation grade. Absences will be excused only under exceptional (documented—i.e. with a medical certificate and a Professional Authority Form) circumstances. In addition, students must listen to weekly ‘mini lectures’ online through Echo360 on iLearn. They are also required to complete weekly readings, and writing activities.

Readings will be made available through the Library’s Multisearch interface.

Graduate Capabilities
Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible
We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes
- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and

Assessment tasks
- Participation
- Writing Assessment 01
- Writing Assessment 02
Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- e) Reflecting on process, provide constructive feedback on students’ writing in a workshop context.

- Plan for Major Creative Work

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
- d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and

- Plan for Major Creative Work
- Writing Assessment 02

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;

- e) Reflecting on process, provide constructive feedback on students’ writing in a workshop context.

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Writing Assessment 01
- Writing Assessment 02

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- d) Compose several pieces of conceptually developed writing; and

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
- e) Reflecting on process, provide constructive feedback on students’ writing in a workshop context.

Assessment task

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- a) Adopt appropriate critical strategies for the analysis of craft, technique and effect in nonfiction;
- b) Identify and productively integrate key concepts into written and oral work;
- c) Enhance reading, writing, research and oral presentation skills;
