Unit description
This unit builds upon AHIS279 providing further study of Middle Egyptian grammar and syntax as well as the study and interpretation of Middle Egyptian hieroglyphic texts. The position of Middle Egyptian in the history of the ancient Egyptian language will also be dealt with and students will be introduced to the main features of Old Egyptian and Late Egyptian (the language of the Ramesside Period).

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes
1. Recognize and recall Egyptian script and how it functions at advanced level
2. Recognize and memorize advanced Egyptian vocabulary
3. Assess the grammar required for the translation of Egyptian texts appropriate to level of study
4. Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
5. Employ linguistic metalanguage
6. Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing advanced Egyptian texts
7. Analyse the significance of Egyptian for the study of relevant ancient cultures

General Assessment Information

Your work will be assessed against:

1. Accuracy of transliteration of hieroglyphic texts (Assignments, Exam)
2. Accuracy of translation (Assignments, Exam)
3. Comprehensiveness and accuracy, employing appropriate linguistic metalanguage, of grammatical commentary (Assignments and Exam)
4. Appropriate use of secondary literature, clarity of argument, structure and expression (Assignments, Essay). The marking rubric for the essay is provided on iLearn.

EXTENSIONS and DISRUPTION to STUDIES (Special Consideration)

Extensions for assignments can only be granted for medical reasons or on compassionate grounds. Without documentation (medical or counselling certificate), a penalty of 2% a day (including weekends) will be applied for work submitted after the due date.

Any extension required must be agreed on after discussion with the lecturer, who may ask for documentation. You must apply for an extension before the assignment due date. Extensions asked for after the date will not be granted.

For Disruption to Studies Policy and Procedure consult the following website: http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/category.html#l_t

GRADES

The grade a student receives will signify their overall performance in meeting the learning outcomes of a unit of study. Grades will not be awarded by reference to the achievement of other students nor allocated to fit a predetermined distribution. In determining a grade, due weight will be given to the learning outcomes and level of a unit (ie 100, 200, 300, 800 etc). Graded units will use the following grades:

- HD High Distinction 85-100
- D Distinction 75-84
- Cr Credit 65-74
- P Pass 50-64
- F Fail 0-49

Final Exam

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 30%

The Examination of this unit is conducted in Week 13 in the regular classroom at the regular time.

External students who live in the Sydney metropolitan area have the option of taking the exam at Macquarie University with the on-campus students. You will finalize the arrangements about which session you will attend when prompted on the website.

External students who live outside the Sydney metropolitan area will do the exam online on Wednesday in Week 13, in a defined time window.

The exam is for 2 hours + 10 minutes reading time. You will be permitted to use the Concise Grammar of Middle Egyptian, Faulkner's Concise Dictionary of Middle Egyptian and Gardiner's Middle Egyptian Grammar.

The exam has 2 parts:

Part 1 transliteration and translation of 2 Middle Egyptian hieroglyphic texts (both texts "unseen")

Part 2 analysis of grammatical forms

The only exception to sitting an examination at the designated time is on account of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you should apply for Consideration for Disruption of Studies. For information about unavoidable disruption and the special consideration process see http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/category.html#t

Delivery and Resources

To take this unit, students are required to have completed AHIS378 Egyptian Hieroglyphs B or its equivalent.

To successfully complete the unit, students are required to complete ALL assessment tasks and achieve a minimum of 50% for all components.

The unit is taught on campus Wednesdays 15:00 - 18:00 in C5A226. For the official MQ Timetable consult the website: https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2015. This website will display up-to-date information on your classes and classroom locations.

AHIS377 is taught in internal and external mode.

For the internal students the unit is taught in a block of 3 hours, Lecture and Tutorial combined ("Lectorial").

For the external students all the on-campus classes are recorded on Echo360 and made available on the unit website.

The unit has an iLearn website to which all students – internal and external – have access. All students are expected to read the material on the site, download material for the classes and upload preparation/homework exercises and assignments.

Both on-campus and external students will require reliable internet access.

Required Textbooks

B. Ockinga, A Concise Grammar of Middle Egyptian 3rd ed. (Mainz, 2008)
R.O. Faulkner, A Concise Dictionary of Middle Egyptian (Oxford, 1962 & reprints)

Unit Schedule

The unit schedule will be made available on the unit’s iLearn site.

Graduate Capabilities
Problem Solving and Research Capability
Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- 3. Assess the grammar required for the translation of Egyptian texts appropriate to level of study
- 4. Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- 5. Employ linguistic metalanguage
- 6. Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing advanced Egyptian texts
- 7. Analyse the significance of Egyptian for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Weekly translation assignments
- Essay
- Final Exam

Effective Communication
We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.
This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- 5. Employ linguistic metalanguage
- 7. Analyse the significance of Egyptian for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Essay
- Final Exam

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- 1. Recognize and recall Egyptian script and how it functions at advanced level
- 2. Recognize and memorize advanced Egyptian vocabulary
- 3. Assess the grammar required for the translation of Egyptian texts appropriate to level of study
- 4. Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- 5. Employ linguistic metalanguage
- 6. Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing advanced Egyptian texts
- 7. Analyse the significance of Egyptian for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Weekly translation assignments
- Essay
- Final Exam

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- 1. Recognize and recall Egyptian script and how it functions at advanced level
- 3. Assess the grammar required for the translation of Egyptian texts appropriate to level of study
- 4. Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- 5. Employ linguistic metalanguage
- 6. Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing advanced Egyptian texts
- 7. Analyse the significance of Egyptian for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Weekly translation assignments
- Essay
- Final Exam

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:
