Proposal and Bibliography
Due: Week 4, 24 March
Weighting: 20%

Identify the media area and key questions you will research. Discuss why these are important, how you will investigate them and what knowledge you hope to find or create through your research. For your annotated bibliography, identify five key sources of knowledge, at least three of which must be academic essays or books, and annotate this list with a few sentences on each source: what it is arguing and why it is relevant to your topic.

Assessment Criteria:
- Clear and substantive topic area, question and approach articulated
- Significance and relevance of resources selected for bibliography
- Critical analysis of selected resources
- Accuracy of spelling, grammar and bibliography formatting

Submission: via ilearn by midnight on the due date

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
- Engage in sophisticated critical analysis of creative media works (Graduate Capabilities 2, 3, 6)
- Consolidate theoretical knowledge and understanding specific to the discipline of media arts and media practice (GC 1, 2, 3 & 6)
- Communicate knowledge and critical expertise in written and spoken forms to professional audiences (GC 4, 5 & 6)
• Situate an understanding of creative media practice within a broader theoretical and environmental framework (GC 2, 5 & 6)
• Synthesise theoretical and creative approaches to contemporary issues in media practice (GC 1, 3 & 6)

Case Study Interview/Profile
Due: week 7, 25 April
Weighting: 25%

Identify someone currently working in the creative industry you are researching and interview them about their field and work. An alternative approach to this assignment will be available, however it is warmly suggested that you make a good attempt to find someone currently employed in your industry to interview. This could be a skype interview or email interview if your identified subject is in another country. Summarise the content of the conversation in a 500 word submission.

Assessment Criteria:
Clarity and substance of questions articulated for interview subject
Identification of the subject's strategies for grappling with disruption in their industry
Thoughtful critical analysis of subject's response to questions

Submission: via ilearn by midnight on the due date

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:
• Consolidate theoretical knowledge and understanding specific to the discipline of media arts and media practice (GC 1, 2, 3 & 6)
• Communicate knowledge and critical expertise in written and spoken forms to professional audiences (GC 4, 5 & 6)
• Situate an understanding of creative media practice within a broader theoretical and environmental framework (GC 2, 5 & 6)
• Synthesise theoretical and creative approaches to contemporary issues in media practice (GC 1, 3 & 6)

Research Dossier Presentation
Due: weeks 10-13 and 10 June
Weighting: 40%

In preparation for your presentation build an online research resource on an area of the creative industries of your choice. The research resource you create will reveal your knowledge and ideas about the creative industry of your choice as it was in the past, as it is today and your research based conjecture about how it may be in five years. This online resource should clearly build on your research proposal task. It may include short quotations from your interview, and, when submitted at the end of the semester, should demonstrably respond to any feedback or comments received during the class presentation. Online Research Resources may be built in storify, ilearn blogs, prezi, wordpress or the free, accessible, online platform of your choice. They should include structured arrangement of audio-visual material, links, commentary and exposition of approximately 1500 words, including an introduction and conclusion.

An in-class presentation of your research into disruption to a specific media industry or form of your choice. Include the audio-visual material you are building into your online resource and questions for leading a group discussion of ideas and issues raised. Presentations should be twenty minutes in duration and take place in the seminars of Weeks 10 - 13.

Assessment Criteria:

Sophisticated critical analysis of creative media industries and/or works

Demonstrated of knowledge and critical expertise

Articulated understanding of creative media practice within a broader theoretical and environmental framework

Effectively presented and structured resource

Submission: Presentations will be made in-class in weeks 10 to 13. upload a working link to your online research resources to ilearn by midnight on the 10th of June. It is your responsibility to insure that the link you submit works within an easily accessible browser (Chrome, Safari or Firefox) and to provide any special instructions needed.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Engage in sophisticated critical analysis of creative media works (Graduate Capabilities 2, 3, 6)
- Consolidate theoretical knowledge and understanding specific to the discipline of media arts and media practice (GC 1, 2, 3 & 6)
