Unit description
This unit covers the basic principles of marketing. It explores the role of marketing in business and society and the proposition that marketing is based on an understanding of consumer value. The unit examines the development of marketing as a practice and discipline. The unit covers the overall process of marketing planning, implementation and control and how information on consumer needs is attained. It then looks at the building blocks and tools that the marketer uses to satisfy those needs - the marketing mix. The unit includes the latest developments in marketing theory, illustrated with examples of best practice from Australia and major economies overseas.

Five Online Quizzes

Due: Weeks 3, 6, 7, 9 and 11
Weighting: 20%

Quizzes - Best 4 of 5 in weeks 3, 5, 7, 9, 11 - 20%

Each quiz is worth 5% and consists of 20 multiple choice questions. Quizzes will be conducted on-line during each of the assigned weeks.

Penalties: No extensions will be granted. Students who do not do the quiz on the week the quiz is held will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task. Please note that the total mark out of 20 is strictly based on the best of four of the five quizzes. As students have the option of completing each quiz online in their own time and place and have basically the whole week to complete each quiz (from Sunday midnight to Saturday midnight of Weeks 3, 6, 7, 9 and 11), it is most unlikely that students will have a need to submit a Disruption to Study. Please note that, if it is necessary to submit a Disruption to Studies, ONLY ONE of these will be approved for the quizzes.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Develop an informed understanding of marketing theory and practice.
- Recognise marketing’s role in business and in society

Mini Research Topic

Due: Weeks 3 - 10
Weighting: 10%

You will form into groups in your first tutorial (Week 2). As a group, you must decide which company to base your marketing plan on before your next tutorial (Week 3). The company must be an Australian SME (small medium size enterprise) - it must NOT be listed on ASX (the Australian Stock Exchange).

Please refer to pp. 63-65 of your textbook for an overview of a marketing plan structure. You must include each component in your final marketing plan (note: you do NOT need to include the 3 Ps of services marketing - rather only include the 4 Ps). You should refer to the end of each chapter for a more comprehensive explanation of each of the components of a marketing plan.

From Week 3 to Week 10 inclusive (apart from Week 4), each group must present for no longer than 5 minutes and with no more than 5 PP slides. You must also bring a hard copy of that component of the marketing plan to that week's tutorial. Your tutor will provide feedback for your guidance. Your hard copy MUST include a list of your references, with full detail - author name/s, year, title of article, name of journal, volume no., issue no., page numbers. Your references list must be in the correct format. Refer to the librarian PP slides and/or to the link to academic referencing on the Library webpage. Please note that as Good Friday is on 25 March (Week 4) ALL tutorials will be cancelled for that week. You will need to use your tutorial hour to work on your mini-research topic so that you are ready to submit and present your double mini research topic, in Week 5.

You MUST submit each component of your marketing plan to Turnitin no later than the day BEFORE your tutorial for each week it is due. Failure to do this will result in forfeiture of marks for each time you neglect to submit to Turnitin. You must carefully check that you are submitting to the correct link - the correct tutor and the correct tutorial name, day and time.

The component of the marketing plan that is due for the various weeks and their weighting, is as follows:

Week 3: Introduction (1 mark). This should include research on industry factors and other contextual factors relating to your company.

Week 5: Situation Analysis - macro and micro environmental analysis, internal analysis, SWOT analysis (2 marks). As this will be based on your research over Weeks 4 and 5, each group will have up to a maximum of 10 minutes to present this week only.

Week 6: Objectives and Target Market (1 mark)

Week 7: Product and Price (2 marks)

Week 8: Promotion and Distribution (2 marks)

Week 9: Budget (1 mark)

Week 10: Implementation, Evaluation and Conclusion (1 mark)

Please note that this assessment is based on your research - so each of the above components of your marketing plan listed above, should be presented (and written) with a strong focus on your research.

Penalties:

No extensions will be granted. Students who do not present on the week the mini research presentation is scheduled will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task. Students who are unwell on any of the seven mini-research presentation weeks will be granted consideration for missed presentations for only one approval for Disruption to Studies application. Furthermore, your group will need to provide written confirmation to the tutor that you have made a full contribution to the written component of that mini-research topic in order for you to receive a mark.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Develop an informed understanding of marketing theory and practice.
- Review the external factors influencing an organisation's marketing strategies.
- Explain and analyse key marketing objectives and strategies.
- Identify the role of marketing as an organisation-wide philosophy.

Marketing Plan

Due: Week 11 - Monday 23 May 9am

Weighting: 30%

Due: Written: Week 11; Presentations: Weeks 11 and 12

Weighting: 30% (20% written component; 10% for presentation)

Students will be placed into groups of 5 maximum in the first class (i.e. Week 2 tutorial). Once groups have been formed, each group will start planning the various components of the marketing plan, using the textbook example as a “template”.

You are expected to conduct quite extensive research from various sources for your marketing plan. Accordingly, you must correctly reference all external sources (e.g., secondary data, business press, academic articles, etc.), in the References section of your marketing plan. Please ensure you attend the Research Librarian lecture in Week 3. You must use Ulrich's (available through the MQ library database) to check if the journal is peer-reviewed or not.

Group presentations are worth a maximum of 10%. Written marketing plans are worth a maximum of 20%.

Penalties: No extensions will be granted.

- Please ensure you submit your soft copy of the written component of your marketing plan to the correct Turnitin link before 9 am, Monday 23 May 2016 (Week 11).
- Late submissions or those submitted incorrectly in Turnitin will receive a deduction of 5 marks per working day.
  - For example, if you submit after 9 am but before 5 pm (say no later than 4.59 pm) on 23 May, you will lose 5 marks from your total score; if you submit after 5 pm Monday 23 May but before 9 am the next day (i.e. Tuesday 24 May), you will lose another 5 marks. If you submit between 9 am and 4.59 pm on Tuesday 24 May you will lose another 5 marks, making a total loss of 15 marks.

- Any marketing plans submitted to Turnitin after 5 pm Tuesday 24 will receive zero.
- You should not exceed the 5,000 word limit. (This limit does not include the reference list, title page and in-text references, tables and figures, and all appendices). Exceeding the limit by an appreciable amount (i.e. > 10%) may lead to a significant deduction of marks.

Presentations:
If you are unable to present and do NOT have an approved Disruption to Studies, you will receive zero. If your Disruption to Studies has been approved, then you must forward your Approved Disruption email to your tutor, along with an email from your group members stating that you have made a full contribution to the presentation slides, in order to have the group presentation mark, or part thereof, added to your written component of your marketing plan.
