Research Essay

Due: 10am, 26-May (Thurs)
Weighting: 20%

This is an individual assignment.

This assignment allows students to gain in-depth understanding of contemporary topics in e-business marketing. It provides students the opportunities to develop their research skills, along with critical, analytical and integrative thinking; and to horn their written communication skills. Essay length: Eight printed A4-pages, 12pts Times New Roman, 1.5 line-spaced, 2.54cm margin. This limit includes any tables, diagrams and appendices but excludes cover page, executive summary (one-page) and reference list. Detailed assessment guide and marking rubrics will be available on iLearn.

Please note:

NO extensions will be granted for this assessment. Late submission will be accepted up to 48 hours after the submission deadline. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which a notification of disruption to studies is submitted and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate the relevance of the internet to the modern marketing concept
- Identify the different elements of the macro and micro-environment that impact on an organisation’s internet marketing strategy
• Discuss internet marketing strategy integrated with corporate marketing and business strategy
• Discuss the influence of the internet on the marketing mix

E-Businesses Analysis

Due: As Assigned
Weighting: 25%

This is a group assignment which will be assessed on both individual (5%) and group performance (20%).

This assignment allows students to gain insights into e-business marketing strategies through research, presentation and class discussion. Working in groups, students will conduct desktop research, present and discuss their key findings in class. Detailed assessment guide and marking criteria will be available on iLearn.

Please note:

Students who are absent or do not participate in the group presentation will get 0% automatically for both individual and group marks.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Evaluate the relevance of the internet to the modern marketing concept
• Discuss internet marketing strategy integrated with corporate marketing and business strategy

Assessed Coursework

Due: Four Random Collections
Weighting: 15%

This assessment (also known as "Tutorial Homework") encourages students to be engaged and active learners. There will be FOUR random collections of which the three best ones will be chosen (5% x 3 = 15%). The list of questions / tasks to be completed weekly will be available on iLearn.

Please note:

No e-mail submission will be accepted. No extension will be granted. If you miss a tutorial which homework is collected, you will either lose one of the four opportunities to submit your homework (1st absence) or 5%, each time you are absent (2nd absence onwards). If absence was due to medical reasons, please bring your homework to your tutor along with a PAF latest by the following tutorial. No submission will be accepted thereafter.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Evaluate the relevance of the internet to the modern marketing concept
• Identify the different elements of the macro and micro-environment that impact on an organisation’s internet marketing strategy
• Discuss internet marketing strategy integrated with corporate marketing and business strategy
• Discuss the influence of the internet on the marketing mix

Final Examination
Due: University Examination Period
Weighting: 40%

A final examination is included as an assessment task for this unit to provide assurance that: i) the product belongs to the student and ii) the student has attained the knowledge and skills tested in the exam.

A closed-book 2 hours final examination for this unit will be held during the University Examination period.

You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable. The timetable will be available in Draft form approximately eight weeks before the commencement of the examinations and in Final form approximately four weeks before the commencement of the examinations: http://exams.mq.edu.au

The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider submitting a disruption to studies notification. The University’s policy on disruption to studies process is available at:

www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the disruption to studies, the examination will be scheduled after the conclusion of the official examination period. The Macquarie university examination policy details the principles and conduct of examinations at the University. The policy is available at:

http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/examination/policy.htm

On successful completion you will be able to:
• Evaluate the relevance of the internet to the modern marketing concept
• Identify the different elements of the macro and micro-environment that impact on an organisation’s internet marketing strategy
• Discuss internet marketing strategy integrated with corporate marketing and business strategy
• Discuss the influence of the internet on the marketing mix
Delivery and Resources

TEACHING AND LEARNING STRATEGY

There is no major change since the last offering of this unit. The unit is delivered in a combination of lectures and tutorials. Students are expected to be active and engaged learners, contributing fully to tutorial discussions. Learning activities include individual and group tasks that are to be completed during private study and in the tutorials.

Classes & Requirements

• 11 classes in the semester made up of 3 hours face-to-face teaching per week. This consists of 1 x 2 hour lecture and 1 x 1 hour tutorial (from Week-2).

• The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au

• To complete this unit satisfactorily, students must attend at least 80% of the scheduled tutorials, starting in Week-2. Attendance will be taken in class.

• Students are expected to complete the homework, participate in classes, be prepared to work in small groups and discuss the materials assigned each week.

• Students are expected to arrive on time and not to leave until the class ends.

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

Prescribed Text

In addition to the Textbook, students are strongly encouraged to read widely in the area and to particularly use the internet as a powerful source of research in this subject.
