Unit description
This unit is a broad introduction to the contemporary arts in Australia, covering a wide range of forms and disciplines. The unit looks at contemporary ideas and directions in the arts, the life and practice of the professional artist, the economics of the arts and arts policy and funding. The unit takes its point of view from the conviction that the arts are humankind's greatest cultural repository, and that they contribute to education, spirituality, identity, and cultural continuity. The unit specifically investigates the role of arts in forging an Australian national identity. We pay particular attention to the role of curating artistic creativity, in contemporary arts, music, and arts festivals.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate knowledge of curatorial practices in arts and music
2. Form judgements in critically analysing contemporary arts
3. Identify key themes in contemporary Australian art and culture
4. Demonstrate understanding of theoretical issues informing contemporary arts and performance
5. Analyse the economics of the art and culture industry
6. Demonstrate the social and cultural significance of curating contemporary arts

General Assessment Information

Assessment tasks are aligned to the unit Learning Outcomes. Timely submission of assessment tasks is a unit requirement or penalties apply. 10% per day (including weekends) will be deducted for all late submissions unless Disruptions to Studies (including a request for an extension) is approved.

You are required to attend all tutorials. As participation in the process of learning is linked to and underpins the unit Learning Outcomes, you will need to either apply for Disruptions to Studies to cover any missed tutorial (if the disruption is greater than three consecutive days) or supply appropriate documentation to your unit convenor for any missed tutorial (if less than three consecutive days).

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Form judgements in critically analysing contemporary arts
- Identify key themes in contemporary Australian art and culture
- Demonstrate understanding of theoretical issues informing contemporary arts and performance
- Demonstrate the social and cultural significance of curating contemporary arts

Assessment tasks

- Class Participation
- Review
- Presentation

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate knowledge of curatorial practices in arts and music
- Form judgements in critically analysing contemporary arts
- Identify key themes in contemporary Australian art and culture
- Demonstrate understanding of theoretical issues informing contemporary arts and performance
- Analyse the economics of the art and culture industry
- Demonstrate the social and cultural significance of curating contemporary arts

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Form judgements in critically analysing contemporary arts
- Identify key themes in contemporary Australian art and culture
- Demonstrate understanding of theoretical issues informing contemporary arts and performance
- Analyse the economics of the art and culture industry
- Demonstrate the social and cultural significance of curating contemporary arts

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate knowledge of curatorial practices in arts and music
- Form judgements in critically analysing contemporary arts
- Identify key themes in contemporary Australian art and culture
- Demonstrate understanding of theoretical issues informing contemporary arts and performance
- Analyse the economics of the art and culture industry

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Form judgements in critically analysing contemporary arts
- Demonstrate understanding of theoretical issues informing contemporary arts and performance
- Analyse the economics of the art and culture industry
• Demonstrate the social and cultural significance of curating contemporary arts

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible
We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:
Learning outcomes
• Identify key themes in contemporary Australian art and culture
• Analyse the economics of the art and culture industry

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative
We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:
Learning outcomes
• Demonstrate knowledge of curatorial practices in arts and music
• Form judgements in critically analysing contemporary arts
• Demonstrate understanding of theoretical issues informing contemporary arts and performance
• Analyse the economics of the art and culture industry
