Unit description
This unit introduces students to the academic skills required for university studies. Particular attention is given to effective communication in the academic environment. Students engage in practical tasks designed to progressively develop key skills including: how to approach research; how to find, evaluate and use library and online resources; how to acknowledge sources; how to analyse an assessment brief; how to structure and substantiate an argument; how to write in a range of academic and non-academic genres and contexts. Four areas are the main focus of the unit’s content: critical thinking, effective reading, modes of listening and academic writing. This unit is streamed to cater to all students in the Department of Media, Music, Communication and Cultural Studies, including: Media; Media, Communication and Culture; Music; International Communication; Society and Culture; Interactivity and Games; Dance and Performance; and Arts Industries and Management. The assessment tasks for this unit are based on discipline-specific content related to students’ study programs. Formative assessment throughout the unit will develop students’ academic skills.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Reflection on Learning 1

Due: Week 4, 25/03/16 by 5pm
Weighting: 15%

TOPIC

Why have I chosen to study my discipline at university?

1. Answer this question in 600 words and include three (3) references to support your writing and ideas. All references need to be academic sources. You may include two set readings, however, at least one reference needs to be a source you have researched (found) on one of the library databases (that is, one reference that is not a set reading).

2. Annotate one of the three references (to a maximum of 150 words) that you cite in this assessment. Your annotation should contain a brief summary and a critique/your opinion of the content/usefulness of this reference to your reflection.

Students are to reference in APA style.

Submission of this assessment is via Turnitin on iLearn.

The tasks will be assessed on the following criteria:

1. Clarity of expression and level of reflection
2. Ability to relate ideas to readings and independent research
3. Appropriate academic sources and referencing

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a critical understanding of cultures and methods of communication in higher education
- Analyse academic contexts and discipline-specific content
- Communicate academic practice in referencing sources in a range of literacies in ways that address ethical and practical objections to plagiarism

• Demonstrate a practical understanding of academic cultures and modes of communication including critical thinking and listening, authorial voice, research and writing, and digital literacy
• Reflect on learning in ways that inform the development of academic cultures and communication

Group Presentation - Video
Due: Week 13, 10/06/16 at 5pm
Weighting: 30%
Students are to record a presentation in small discipline/topic specific groups (each student is to take a turn at speaking during the presentation) on their own chosen (and researched) topic. Group topics will be discussed during seminars and should be inspired by previous seminar themes and readings. The video is to be no longer than 5 minutes. It must include an academic argument and appropriate references, and conclude with a breakdown/summary of each student’s respective contribution. A written group outline of the group’s topic and the student names and numbers of those in each group must be uploaded to iLearn by 5pm on 10/06/16.

Each group needs to submit or upload their video presentation to iLearn (less than 20Megs in file size) or follow the submission instructions on iLearn for larger sized files.

The task will be assessed on the following criteria:

1. Clarity of expression
2. Presentation structure
3. Appropriate argument
4. Ability to relate ideas to independent research
5. Appropriate academic sources and referencing

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a critical understanding of cultures and methods of communication in higher education
- Communicate academic practice in referencing sources in a range of literacies in ways that address ethical and practical objections to plagiarism
- Demonstrate a practical understanding of academic cultures and modes of communication including critical thinking and listening, authorial voice, research and writing, and digital literacy

Learning Skills

Learning Skills (mq.edu.au/learningskills) provides academic writing resources and study strategies to improve your marks and take control of your study.
Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a critical understanding of cultures and methods of communication in higher education
- Analyse academic contexts and discipline-specific content
- Communicate academic practice in referencing sources in a range of literacies in ways that address ethical and practical objections to plagiarism
- Demonstrate a practical understanding of academic cultures and modes of communication including critical thinking and listening, authorial voice, research and writing, and digital literacy
Assessment tasks

• Reflection on Learning 1
• Essay
• Reflection on Learning 2
• Group Presentation - Video

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Demonstrate a critical understanding of cultures and methods of communication in higher education
• Analyse academic contexts and discipline-specific content
• Demonstrate a practical understanding of academic cultures and modes of communication including critical thinking and listening, authorial voice, research and writing, and digital literacy
• Reflect on learning in ways that inform the development of academic cultures and communication

Assessment tasks

• Reflection on Learning 1
• Essay
• Reflection on Learning 2
• Group Presentation - Video

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:
Learning outcomes

• Demonstrate a critical understanding of cultures and methods of communication in higher education
• Communicate academic practice in referencing sources in a range of literacies in ways that address ethical and practical objections to plagiarism
• Demonstrate a practical understanding of academic cultures and modes of communication including critical thinking and listening, authorial voice, research and writing, and digital literacy

• Essay
• Reflection on Learning 2
• Group Presentation - Video

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

• Analyse academic contexts and discipline-specific content

Assessment tasks

• Reflection on Learning 2
• Group Presentation - Video

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Demonstrate a critical understanding of cultures and methods of communication in higher education
• Analyse academic contexts and discipline-specific content
• Communicate academic practice in referencing sources in a range of literacies in ways that address ethical and practical objections to plagiarism

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens
As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome
• Demonstrate a practical understanding of academic cultures and modes of communication including critical thinking and listening, authorial voice, research and writing, and digital literacy
