Unit description
This unit examines selected topics in the literature and culture of the German speaking countries. The focus is on the role of Berlin as a cultural and political centre. The unit examines Berlin's place in history, as well as its image in literature and film. Starting with a brief historical overview, selected periods of life in Berlin are explored in more detail. Students are presented with texts in German (short literary texts, texts on historical and political developments, documentary style videos and films in German). Assessment is by coursework.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

General Assessment Information

Preparation, attendance and participation

Students are expected to prepare the course work to be covered in class in advance, as set out in programs or announced in class.

- Day/campus students: Attendance and active participation at these seminars, as well as regular access to and interaction with the iLearn site for GMN361 are compulsory components of the unit.

If a student is unable to attend a seminar or cannot have a regular presence on the iLearn site, appropriate apologies must be received.

Assessment Tasks

Guidelines for researching and composing the assessment tasks as well as assessment criteria (rubics) are available on iLearn. The Essays are to be submitted electronically in the "drop-boxes" set up in the iLearn website.

The Assessment Tasks are compulsory and must be submitted electronically at the time specified. By electronically submitting their assignments, students declare that they have read and understood the Academic Honesty statement in this study guide. They certify that their assignment is entirely their own work and that they have given fully documented references to the work of others, and that their assignments have not previously, in part or in whole, been submitted for assessment in any formal course of study. Late assignment policy: Assessment tasks / assignments are compulsory and must be submitted on time. Late submissions will be penalized by by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assignment task is late. No assignments will be accepted after assignments have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assignment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date.

As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate).

For Disruption of Studies Policy see under Policies and Procedures.
