Unit description
This unit focuses on developing students’ advanced translation and writing skills. The unit gives students opportunities to compose and translate a wide range of texts in and into Japanese, covering different forms, genres and situations. This unit helps students to refine their usage of grammar, vocabulary and idiomatic expressions to suit particular text types and audiences. Both translation and creative writing tasks comprise a significant portion of assessment.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

General Assessment Information

Late Submissions, Extensions and Supplementary Tests

Assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate). Late submissions will be penalised by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assessment task is late. A request for a supplementary test will be considered only in the case of serious illness or disruption. No assessment tasks will be accepted after assessment tasks have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assessment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date. If you anticipate unavoidable difficulty in completing an assessment task (in class and/or online), contact the convener or your tutor as soon as possible.

Disruption to Studies

If a student is prevented by serious and unavoidable disruption from completing unit requirements in accordance with their ability, they may apply for support under the Disruption to Studies Policy. To access this support, students must notify the university via ask.mq.edu.au. Students should refer to the Disruption to Studies Policy for further information (see the link provided in the 'Policies and procedures' section of this unit guide).

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Develop the knowledge of grammar to be able to produce sentences and texts with minimal grammatical errors.
• Develop the knowledge of Japanese idioms and use them in translation.
• Apply the knowledge of grammar, vocabulary and idioms to translate English expository texts into Japanese.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply the knowledge of grammar, vocabulary and idioms to translate English expository texts into Japanese.
- Write texts for communication purposes with readers in mind.

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Write clear, coherent, detailed and well-structured texts in various styles on unfamiliar and complex topics with an appropriate conclusion
• Translate texts of various genre accurately, incorporating culturally appropriate logic progression

Assessment tasks
• Unit Participation
• Weekly Mini-Projects

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes
• Develop skills to compare their view points with opposing views in texts.
• Develop skills to support their views in texts.
• Write clear, coherent, detailed and well-structured texts in various styles on unfamiliar and complex topics with an appropriate conclusion
• Translate texts of various genre accurately, incorporating culturally appropriate logic progression

Assessment tasks
• Unit Participation
• Take Home Examination

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes
• Develop the knowledge of grammar to be able to produce sentences and texts with minimal grammatical errors.

- Develop the knowledge of Japanese idioms and use them in translation.
- Apply the knowledge of grammar, vocabulary and idioms to translate English expository texts into Japanese.
- Write texts for communication purposes with readers in mind.
- Write clear, coherent, detailed and well-structured texts in various styles on unfamiliar and complex topics with an appropriate conclusion.
- Translate texts of various genre accurately, incorporating culturally appropriate logic progression.

Assessment tasks

- Unit Participation
- Take Home Examination

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Acquire the knowledge of logical development of argumentative essay.
- Develop skills to compare their view points with opposing views in texts.
- Develop skills to support their views in texts.
- Write clear, coherent, detailed and well-structured texts in various styles on unfamiliar and complex topics with an appropriate conclusion.

JPS313 can be enrolled externally as of 2016.
Academic policies

Academic honesty policy

Academic honesty is an integral part of the core values and principles contained in the Macquarie University Ethics Statement. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- all academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim
- all academic collaborations are acknowledged
- academic work is not falsified in any way
- when the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

The link below has more detailed information.

http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

University Grading Policy

The grade a student receives will signify their overall performance in meeting the learning outcomes of a unit of study.

Grades will not be awarded by reference to the achievement of other students nor allocated to fit a predetermined distribution.

In determining a grade, due weight will be given to the learning outcomes and level of a unit (ie 100, 200, 300, 800 etc).

Each passing grade subsumes and goes beyond the grades lower than it.

The University will establish procedures for producing grades that will be consistent, fair and equitable.

Department Policy on Late Submission of Assignments
