Unit description
This unit aims to develop the skills of history students in order to support advanced study of the Latin language. It continues the systematic analysis of grammar begun in the units AHIS118 and AHIS219 and explores the concepts of historical development and diversity in the classical and medieval periods. The unit also aims to help students develop their skills in reading original Latin literary and documentary texts, and analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing advanced Latin texts
Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Participation

Due: Weekly
Weighting: 10%

The purpose of this low-risk assessment is to test your engagement with unit content and developing knowledge and skills. You will be required to participate in class discussions conducted via the General Discussion Forum on the unit’s iLearn page. Do note that you must post your contribution before the deadline for each topic (deadlines to be advised via the unit schedule posted on the iLearn site).

The criteria against which this assessment will be assessed are level of engagement and demonstration of developing knowledge and skills. There will be four discussion topics. The minimum length of post on each topic is 30 words, the maximum 300 words.

For each topic one mark is available for engagement and one mark for demonstration of developing knowledge and skills. There are two marks available for effective participation in all four topics.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage

Prose Compositions

Due: See unit schedule
Weighting: 30%

The purpose of this assessment task is to facilitate understanding of Latin grammatical structures. You will be required to translate a series of sentences from English into Latin (five sentences in each of the six prose compositions). The sentences are designed to test your control over concepts discussed in the lectures and (often) illustrated in the unit readings.

The assessment criteria against which this task will be assessed are accuracy, completeness, and technical and stylistic control over the material.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing advanced Latin texts

Document Analysis
Due: See unit schedule
Weighting: 20%

The purpose of this assessment task is to develop analytical skills and independent thinking. You will be required to provide a linguistic analysis of specific grammatical features appearing in a passage drawn from the unit readings. Length limit: 1000 words, including analysis, any footnotes, and bibliography.

The assessment criteria against which this task will be assessed are accuracy, thoroughness, clarity of presentation, and effective use of referencing and bibliography.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing advanced Latin texts
- Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Examination
Due: TBA (June examination period)
Weighting: 40%

The purpose of this assessment task is to test general control over unit content. The examination is arranged as four questions.

- In Question 1 you will be required to translate into English three Latin passages drawn from the unit readings (45% of exam. weighting).
- In Question 2 you will be required to read four short extracts drawn from the unit readings and comment on specific questions concerning morphology and/or function of specific words and expressions (two questions for each passage, so a total of eight questions; 20% of exam. weighting).
- In Question 3 you will be required to reproduce four grammatical paradigms from a designated list provided in the unit materials (10% of exam. weighting).
- In Question 4 you will be required to translate five English sentences into Latin, using constructions studied and vocabulary used in the prose compositions for this unit (25% of exam. weighting).

The criteria against which this task will be assessed are accuracy and completeness of translations in Question 1, comments in Question 2, and paradigms in Question 3, and accuracy, completeness, and technical and stylistic control of translations in Question 4.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing advanced Latin texts

Delivery and Resources

Technology

This unit employs the following technology

- iLearn
- Echo

The unit has an online presence. Login is via: https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/

All required unit materials will be provided via this iLearn site, which will also provide an additional Recommended Reading list.

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

Satisfactory Completion

Completion of all Assessment Tasks is required to complete the unit satisfactorily.

Submission and Extensions

For Participation submissions are your contributions to the electronic General Discussion Forum (and in addition, for internal students, your involvement in classroom discussion). Submission of the Function Test, Prose Compositions, and Document Analysis is electronic via Turnitin. The Examination is closed-book and administered by the central administration.

Extensions are available on medical grounds and may be requested under other special circumstances. Apply direct to the Convener.

Penalties for Late Submission

A penalty of 2% per day (including weekends) will be imposed for late submission of assessment tasks unless medical grounds or other special circumstances apply.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing advanced Latin texts

Assessment tasks

- Prose Compositions
- Document Analysis
- Examination

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally.
and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Document Analysis

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing advanced Latin texts
- Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Prose Compositions
- Document Analysis
- Examination

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systematically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to level of study
- Explore and appraise relevant grammatical and lexical reference tools
- Employ linguistic metalanguage
- Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and writing advanced Latin texts
- Analyse the significance of Latin for the study of relevant ancient cultures

Assessment tasks

- Participation
- Prose Compositions
- Document Analysis
- Examination

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and recall Latin grammatical structures at advanced level
- Recognise and memorise advanced Latin vocabulary
- Assess the grammar required for the translation of Latin texts appropriate to level of study
