Unit description

This unit examines the making, regulating and breaking of deals in the international business community. The unit will canvas the different legal forms of agreements (eg, direct foreign investment, international joint ventures); laws that influence the conduct of business internationally (eg, anti-trust laws, international financial regulation, international bankruptcy, international taxation laws); and the mechanisms available when disputes arise (eg, international arbitration, foreign litigation in domestic courts). Students will develop an understanding of key legal principles underpinning international business transactions from an international law perspective as well as in relation to selected jurisdictions.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Describe and analyse the regulatory framework and standards that govern international business transactions and relationships.

Demonstrate a sophisticated knowledge and understanding of relevant international agreements and principles that influence international business, domestic legal regime and parties involved in cross-border dealings, and develop an analytical ability to critically assess their application.

Evaluate the role of different institutions and organisations in guiding responsible business.

Investigate the relationship between international and domestic regulations and the way in which Australia has endorsed those international standards.

Identify legal issues, problems and risk factors that a business entity may encounter in operating cross-border transactions, and apply appropriate strategies to overcome these.

Recognise the importance of different approaches to and methods of resolving disputes and address the strengths and weaknesses of the different procedures

Analyse hypothetical international legal problems, constructing and defending arguments in a well structured, reasoned, coherent and logical manner.

General Assessment Information

1. Participation in OCS (CP) worth 10% mark

Students are required to attend the OCS in accordance with the schedule of classes/tutorials set out in this Unit Guide and complete the prescribed readings for each week.

Active participation in the class will require students to read and understand various issues scheduled for discussions on a regular basis. Students are also required to participate in discussions that extend beyond these set topics and readings through their own evaluation of the issues raised.

Assessment criteria:

1. Regular and timely presence in OCS;
2. Active and effective class participation;
3. Knowledge and understanding of the subject matter;
4. Ability to develop ideas and think critically;
5. Problem solving skills; and
6. Oral communication skills.

2. Problem Solving worth 30% mark

This assignment will be assessed based on the discipline specific knowledge, understanding and identification of the relevant legal issues, and their application to a given (real or hypothetical) fact situation/problem of contemporary international transactions. Students may be required to take their research beyond the prescribed books and course materials (the supplementary books and journals provide a starting point for further research). Clarity of expression, presentation of argument, responsiveness to question, and correct and consistent reference style will also be taken into account.

Assessment criteria:

1. Originality of the work
2. Accurate identification of and analyse issues by using primary and secondary sources
3. Critical evaluation and efficient use of information
4. Concise and logical approach to address relevant aspects
5. Clear demonstration of knowledge and correct written expression
6. The degree of persuasion/depth of research evidenced from respective arguments
7. Coherent organisation of the paper/ structured presentation of ideas
8. Proper referencing and acknowledgement of sources

3. Research Essay Synopsis worth 10% mark

This task is designed to evaluate students' independent research skills and knowledge based on the research essay (assessment 4) topic and its relevant assessment criteria provided below.

4. Research Essay worth 50% mark

Students will be required to write a research essay on a specific topic of the Unit. This task aims to assess students' skills and critical analytical ability to examine relevant issues raised with adequate support and acknowledgement. Students will be assessed on the basis of their discipline specific knowledge, understanding and evaluation of the issues, quality and depth of research, critical, interdisciplinary, policy-oriented approach, and overall presentation.

Assessment criteria:

1. Identification and analysis of the relevant legal and theoretical issues;
2. Evidence of reflection and critical thinking in relation to the issues;
3. Delivery of a persuasive argument in relation to the issues raised by the topic including quality of evidence, reasoning, illustrations and examples;
4. Quality and thoroughness of research;
5. Logical structure and clear, concise written expression;
7. Accurate use of the Australian Guide to Legal Citation AGLC 3rd edition, including proper acknowledgment of all sources.

Formal requirements for both written (problem question and research) assignments

The following requirements as to presentation of papers must be complied with:

- All written assignments are meant to be the independent works of individual student. Assignments are not group works or exercises.
- All assignments must be typed with 12 point font in the text and 10 point font in foot/end notes. Bibliography/reference must also be 12 point font.

- The word limit must be strictly maintained . The word limit does not include the footnotes and bibliography, although footnotes must not include any substantive content. The actual word length of your assignment must be stated on the cover sheet.
- Footnotes, bibliography and other referencing must be consistent with the Australian Guide to Legal Citations, which can be downloaded at <http://www.law.unimelb.edu.au/mul>

On-Campus Session (OCS) CP

Due: OCS

Weighting: 10%

Face-to- face-seminars and group discussion, which will focus on inter alia problem-solving methods in addressing relevant legal issues, ie, the application of appropriate laws and standards to the scenarios provided each week. Students are required to complete the prescribed readings for each week.

External students must attend the two-day OCS from 9 am to 4 pm as a compulsory and substantive academic requirement on the 23rd and 24th of September 2017 (Room X5B: 138). OCS (CP) marks will be awarded based on the quality of performance and effective engagement in the group discussion. Attendance in itself is not enough to achieve a pass mark.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and analyse the regulatory framework and standards that govern international business transactions and relationships.
- Evaluate the role of different institutions and organisations in guiding responsible business.
- Investigate the relationship between international and domestic regulations and the way in which Australia has endorsed those international standards.

- Identify legal issues, problems and risk factors that a business entity may encounter in operating cross-border transactions, and apply appropriate strategies to overcome these.

- Analyse hypothetical international legal problems, constructing and defending arguments in a well structured, reasoned, coherent and logical manner.

Problem Question

Due: 27 September by 5:00 pm

Weighting: 30%

This written assignment is designed to enhance students' ability to examine a legal problem and provide information, explanation and critical analysis in a clear, concise and logical manner. The problem question will involve assessing a hypothetical scenario and identifying the factual and legal issues raised by the scenario and gives an opportunity to explain what further information is required to fully advise on the legal dimensions of the problem.

Word length 2000 words

The work must be submitted via turnitin.

The assessment guidelines will be released in Week 5.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and analyse the regulatory framework and standards that govern international business transactions and relationships.
- Demonstrate a sophisticated knowledge and understanding of relevant international agreements and principles that influence international business, domestic legal regime and parties involved in cross-border dealings, and develop an analytical ability to critically assess their application.
- Evaluate the role of different institutions and organisations in guiding responsible business.

- Analyse hypothetical international legal problems, constructing and defending arguments in a well structured, reasoned, coherent and logical manner.

Research Essay Synopsis

Due: 9 October by 5.00 pm

Weighting: 10%

This assessment task is based on the research essay topic which will be released in week 7.

Students are required to develop a synopsis of the final research essay (assessment 4) which must include the key argument and its significance, the methodology adopted, potential disagreements, literature review and the outcome.

Word length 500 words

The work must be submitted via turnitin.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and analyse the regulatory framework and standards that govern international business transactions and relationships.
- Demonstrate a sophisticated knowledge and understanding of relevant international agreements and principles that influence international business, domestic legal regime and parties involved in cross-border dealings, and develop an analytical ability to critically assess their application.
- Recognise the importance of different approaches to and methods of resolving disputes and address the strengths and weaknesses of the different procedures

Research Essay

Due: 4 November by 5:00 pm

Weighting: 50%

Students will be required to complete a research essay on a specific topic of the Unit. The paper should reflect independent research, in-depth analysis of relevant materials and application of appropriate laws and standards. The essay topic, the structure of the paper and guidelines will be discussed and released in week 7

The word limit is 2500 words which must be strictly maintained.

The paper should be submitted via turnitin.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and analyse the regulatory framework and standards that govern international business transactions and relationships.
- Demonstrate a sophisticated knowledge and understanding of relevant international agreements and principles that influence international business, domestic legal regime and parties involved in cross-border dealings, and develop an analytical ability to critically assess their application.
