Language study orientation

Due: Week 2

Weighting: 5%

Prepares students for university language study and the online environment. Pass/Fail.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Reading: • Recognise Pinyin with tone marks. • Understand short, simple texts (read or unread) related to familiar topics in Chinese characters, picking up familiar and high frequent phrases and structures, understand cultural differences in written texts.

- Listening: • Distinguish different meanings according to different tones. • Understand speech that is slow and carefully articulated, with pauses for the learner to assimilate meaning, on familiar topics. Understand cultural differences in speech.

- Writing: • Able to hand write characters in the correct order, and type characters in computer as required • Construct simple sentences, short dialogues and passages on familiar topics

- Spoken Interaction: • Able to speak with correct tones. • Interact in a simple way but communication is dependent on repetition at a slower rate of speech, to accomplish specific communication tasks on familiar topics

- Spoken Production: • Able to produce simple sentences, short dialogues and paragraphs about familiar topics

Participation

Due: throughout the semester

Weighting: 5%

- Internal Students: 5%

  This mark is decided by teaching staff based on students’ attendance and active participation in class discussion. Internal students’ attendance of at least 80% of classes is strongly encouraged. Attendance at and participation in tutorials is compulsory for all students. Students are expected to be well prepared in order to participate in class discussion – this will ensure good use of class time as well as improving your learning skills.

- External Students: 5%

  Record an audio or video clip of you reading out aloud the textbook conversation for the lesson learnt in that week then submit it on iLearn at set time frame on weekly basis. You can also choose to read other texts at your interests (e.g., a poem or some song lyrics) of at least 70-100 characters long in replacing textbook conversation, up to 3 times in this semester. Please see iLearn for instruction on submission of the recording.

  An Zoom web conference will be organized every week at a set time from week 3 to provide face-to-face meeting with students after they register their interests in the 1st week. Students should take this opportunity to ask questions to teaching staff and communicate with classmates. Students need to register at least 2 sessions for their web conference. Total or partly Waiver for this activity can be considered if solid documents provided.

  Listening to the practical recording, active participation in forum and talk to teaching staff at consultation hours on weekly basis are very important for all external students.

  On successful completion you will be able to:
• Reading: • Recognise Pinyin with tone marks. • Understand short, simple texts (read or unread) related to familiar topics in Chinese characters, picking up familiar and high frequent phrases and structures, understand cultural differences in written texts.
• Listening: • Distinguish different meanings according to different tones. • Understand speech that is slow and carefully articulated, with pauses for the learner to assimilate meaning, on familiar topics. understand cultural differences in speech.
• Writing: • Able to hand write characters in the correct order, and type characters in computer as required • Construct simple sentences, short dialogues and passages on familiar topics
• Spoken Interaction: • Able to speak with correct tones. • Interact in a simple way but communication is dependent on repetition at a slower rate of speech, to accomplish specific communication tasks on familiar topics
• Spoken Production: • Able to produce simple sentences, short dialogues and paragraphs about familiar topics

Online Vocabulary Quiz
Due: Week 2,3,4,5,7,8,9,10,11,12
Weighting: 10%

Weekly online vocab quizzes on vocabulary, phrases and short sentences, only available to access at set time frame before practicals start, in order to prepare for the lessons to be learnt on Monday practicals.

On successful completion you will be able to:
• Reading: • Recognise Pinyin with tone marks. • Understand short, simple texts (read or unread) related to familiar topics in Chinese characters, picking up familiar and high frequent phrases and structures, understand cultural differences in written texts.
• Listening: • Distinguish different meanings according to different tones. • Understand speech that is slow and carefully articulated, with pauses for the learner to assimilate meaning, on familiar topics. understand cultural differences in speech.
• Writing: • Able to hand write characters in the correct order, and type characters in computer as required • Construct simple sentences, short dialogues and passages on familiar topics

Written Assignments
Due: Week 5,7,9,11 on Sunday
Weighting: 20%
Four written assignments submitted on iLearn via Turnitin. Specific details will be available on iLearn only when weekly grammar quizzes are scored 80% or over.

- All assignments must be completed at the times set. Assignments are compulsory and must be submitted on time. As a general rule, extensions will not be granted without a valid and documented reason (e.g. medical certificate). Late submissions will be penalised by 5% for each day (including weekends) the assignment task is late. No assignments will be accepted after assignments have been corrected and feedback has been provided. Assignment tasks handed in early will not be marked and returned before the due date.
- Please note that 80% correctness of a weekly grammar quiz (non-assessable) will be the pre-condition to access to the assignment information. The weekly grammar quiz is different to Vocabulary Quizzes. It is not only a revision for grammar and vocabulary you learnt in class but also a scaffolding activity leading to completion of your assignment with high quality. Details on iLearn can be found.

All tests and assignments must be completed at the times set. Assignments are compulsory and must be submitted on time. Mid-semester in Class Test
Due: In week 6
Weighting: 20%

The mid-term test covers a combination of listening, reading and writing skills.

Students will only be granted extensions/special consideration with valid reasons (e.g., serious and unavoidable disruption from completing any unit requirements in accordance with their ability.)

Internal students:
You will be sitting in class for this test in week 6 practicals.

External students:

You will need to access to the link on iLearn at a set time frame in week 6 to finish this test.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Reading: • Recognise Pinyin with tone marks. • Understand short, simple texts (read or unread) related to familiar topics in Chinese characters, picking up familiar and high frequent phrases and structures, understand cultural differences in written texts.
- Listening: • Distinguish different meanings according to different tones. • Understand speech that is slow and carefully articulated, with pauses for the learner to assimilate meaning, on familiar topics. understand cultural differences in speech.
- Writing: • Able to hand write characters in the correct order, and type characters in computer as required • Construct simple sentences, short dialogues and passages on familiar topics

Group oral presentation

Due: In week 6

Weighting: 10%

In a group of 2-3, Students need to prepare a dialogue based on the content learnt in the first 5 weeks and deliver it verbally without script. Detailed instructions are available on iLearn in week 3.

Internal students:

The group oral presentation will be held during week 6 in tutorials. Internal students need to form a group of 2-3 by week 4 to prepare and conduct this presentation in week 6 tutorial.

External students:

Students need to form a group of 2-3 by week 4 to record a video clip of a group presentation by Zoom and submit it on iLearn by Thursday in Week 6. Guides on how to set up Zoom web conference and recording is available at http://www.mq.edu.au/iLearn/zoom.htm

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Spoken Interaction: • Able to speak with correct tones. • Interact in a simple way but communication is dependent on repetition at a slower rate of speech, to accomplish specific communication tasks on familiar topics
- Spoken Production: • Able to produce simple sentences, short dialogues and paragraphs about familiar topics
Oral one on one Interview

Due: Week 13 Practical
Weighting: 10%

Internal students:
The one-on-one interview will be held during week 13 in Practicals. Internal students need to answer a few questions from the teacher and ask a few questions based on teachers’ instruction. Details will be given in Week 11.

External students:
Students need to open a Voice Thread item on iLearn during a certain time frame in week 13 and record all his oral response for marking. Details and samples will be given in week 11.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Listening: • Distinguish different meanings according to different tones. • Understand speech that is slow and carefully articulated, with pauses for the learner to assimilate meaning, on familiar topics. understand cultural differences in speech.
- Spoken Interaction: • Able to speak with correct tones. • Interact in a simple way but communication is dependent on repetition at a slower rate of speech, to accomplish specific communication tasks on familiar topics

Final in class Test

Due: Week 13 tutorials
Weighting: 20%

Two-hour in class test for reading, writing and listening.

- Students will only be granted extensions/special consideration with valid reasons (eg., serious and unavoidable disruption from completing any unit requirements in accordance with their ability.) Work that is submitted late will be subjected to an assessment penalty if an extension has not been granted. Even where an extension has been given, a penalty may still be imposed if fairness to other students requires this. The general guideline is that 5% will be deducted for the first day and 2% for each day in subsequent days.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Reading: • Recognise Pinyin with tone marks. • Understand short, simple texts (read or unread) related to familiar topics in Chinese characters, picking up familiar and high frequent phrases and structures, understand cultural differences in written texts.

• Listening: •Distinguish different meanings according to different tones. • Understand speech that is slow and carefully articulated, with pauses for the learner to assimilate meaning, on familiar topics. understand cultural differences in speech.

• Writing: • Able to hand write characters in the correct order, and type characters in computer as required • Construct simple sentences, short dialogues and passages on familiar topics

Delivery and Resources

Delivery:

Day and External

Internal students

Students attend 2 x 2 hour sessions per week: first session Practical, second session Tutorial. There are no lectures. Classes are scheduled on Mon or Wed for Practical and Thur for Tutorial. Please go to eStudent to register in one of the classes on offer. The classes are streamed, which means you must attend the same 2x2 hour classes each week with the same group. If you have a clash and need to change classes, please speak to the teaching staff.

We recommend that you arrive on time so you do not miss out on important information given at the start of a class. We encourage students to come to as many classes as possible to facilitate the best learning experience possible.

External students

You should be committed to study the weekly content by following the instructions on iLearn within the week and finish the assessment online in the same week. This will keep you on track in this very intensive course.

All students

Those unable to attend assessments (tests) due to illness or other valid reasons should notify their teachers. Then, having collected the relevant documentation such as a medical certificate, they should make an application for Disruption of Studies. See below:

To submit a Disruption to Studies notification, you will need to:

1. Log in as a Current Student at ask.mq.edu.au
2. Click 'Disruption to Studies' from the 'Submit' menu on the left
3. Fill in the required fields as prompted.

Once you have completed filling out the information, please click on 'Submit'. If the application is for medical reasons, students must have a 'Professional Authority Form' filled in by a doctor. A copy of this form can be found on iLearn.
Technology required

Standard requirements include a computer and internet access to interact with the teaching materials on iLearn.

External students will need to have access to a webcam, headphones as well as a microphone for use during recording with Zoom which they can download for free from the internet. We recommend you use Firefox which has been reliable with respect to media files used in the course. The correct functioning of internet connection and network is the student's sole responsibility.

Information on Zoom web conferencing tool for external students is available at http://www.mq.edu.au/iLearn/zoom.htm. External students are required to get familiar with this tool and install it to your study device by week 1, e.g. your computer or iPad.

IT and iLearn assistance is available via the iLearn login page or by clicking on the words "Help me" under the iLearn logo at the top right hand side of every iLearn window.

Please note that replies to e-mails will be automatically directed to the account they were sent from. All new threads will be sent to your University account where you are free to supply the e-mail address of your choice. You are encouraged to use the University account rather than a private e-mail account and to check this account regularly for announcements and emails from the teaching staff.

Required and recommended resources

Compulsory: New Practical Chinese Reader (Textbook) Book 1 and Workbook (Book 1). CDs are attached. DVDs can also be accessed on-line, but not downloaded.

Recommended: The Chinese Language: Its History and Current Usage is the recommended reading which is written by Professor Daniel Kane, the former head of Chinese studies at MQ. The Chinese Language is a brief introduction to the main characteristics of Chinese, written to be accessible to beginning students as well as anyone with a general interest in Chinese language and culture. Providing basic information such as where Chinese is spoken, the history and earliest written records, regional variations, and a description of the writing system.
