ACCG727 Current Issues in Accounting and Corporate Governance

Unit description

This is an advanced unit in financial accounting and Corporate Governance which examines accounting theories and their relationship to a broad range of issues of current concern to both the accounting profession and accounting information users. Given the current focus and importance of global harmonisation and the convergence of accounting and corporate governance, students are required to examine current issues and problems in complex contexts using social, ethical, economic, political and global perspectives. Students will also be required to analyse relevant scholarly research papers. The objective of the unit is for students to critically evaluate accounting theories, governance policies and procedures. Students will use critical analysis skills to evaluate, synthesise and judge through research and essay writing. Research findings are used to underpin all theories. Students will be challenged to question the foundations of accounting and Corporate Governance and to think critically about current issues in accounting and accountability.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance
- Evaluate relevant quantitative research methods and principles applicable to accounting
- Conduct independent research to recommend appropriate solutions to complex business problems
- Demonstrate communication skills relevant to an appropriate professional environment
- Demonstrate awareness of the need for corporate social responsibility and ethical behaviour

This assessment task has two parts:

Task Description

Part 1 - Individual Critical Reflections

For 7 of the 13 weeks you will be given two chapters and/or articles to read. You are asked to provide a written individual critical reflection of 250 words about the readings and argue how they apply to the nominated case company. This assessment is designed to introduce you to different contemporary accounting and corporate governance issues and how to apply them to real world cases. These form the basis of the material to be covered in the individual essay and as source material for the exam. The critical reflections allow you to develop writing skills and the ability to express your knowledge about the course content. This part of the assessment is graded individually in class using peer feedback and assessment. This contributes 15% of your grade for ACCG927. The first assessment in Week 3 will not count towards your grade as it is a trial assessment. However, it is still compulsory. Each Critical Reflection is required to be uploaded to Turnitin by the due date and a hard copy brought to your scheduled class for peer marking.

Part 2 - Presentations

For 8 of the 13 weeks you will be given two chapters and/or articles to read, and a case study or quantitative research critique. You will participate in four group case studies and four quantitative research critiques which are designed to help you and your group to develop skills for working together as you might in a work situation. The case studies are formative assessments that engage you directly with the concepts covered in the weekly readings and with a real life accounting and corporate governance situation. It allows you to develop skills to work together to analyse a real life accounting or corporate governance situation and argue for taking a particular course of action. The quantitative research critiques are formative assessments that allows you to appreciate the valuable insights provided by quantitative methods. The group will receive a grade and the group grade contributes 15% towards your grade for ACCG927. The assessments in Weeks 3 and 5 will not count towards your grade as they are trial assessments, however they are still compulsory.

Other Information

The group case study will be assessed by the lecturer using the following criteria:

- How the argument and critique shows a good appreciation of the weekly readings.

- Shows evidence of an overall integrative view how the issues raised in the readings are used and applied to the case study with some reflection on past work.
- Evidence that the group has participated as a whole and no one member dominates.
- Evidence of individual contribution to the group via a peer evaluation.

Assessment Criteria

1. Presentation, communication & style (written)
2. Use of literature/ Knowledge of theory
3. Data/information gathering/processing
4. Conclusions
5. Critical reasoning / critical thinking
6. Time management/self management

Extensions

There are no extensions for this assessment. Students must be present in Class when the critical reflection is peer marked or else they will receive a zero grade. Students must be present in Class when the presentation is prepared and given or else they will receive a zero grade.

Penalties

Students not attending the class to peer mark will be given a 0 grade. Students not attending the class to prepare the presentation will be given a 0 grade. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance
- Evaluate relevant quantitative research methods and principles applicable to accounting
- Demonstrate communication skills relevant to an appropriate professional environment

Class quiz

Due: Week 6 Class session

Weighting: 10%

Task Description

The class quiz is a one hour diagnostic summative assessment designed to let you demonstrate the knowledge and skills you have attained in the first formative assessment; Presentation.

Assessment Criteria

- Use of literature/ Knowledge of theory
- Conclusions
- Conceptualisation

Extensions

There are no extensions for this assessment. Students must be present in Class to sit for the class quiz.

Penalties

Students not attending the class quiz will be given a 0 grade. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance

Essay

Due: 1 October 2018 1 pm

Weighting: 30%

Task Description

The purpose of the individual essay is to allow you to put accounting and corporate governance concepts into practice in a real life setting and allow you to demonstrate your research and writing skills on an individual basis. The assignment and the arguments you develop should help you reflect on your learning and link accounting theory to practice. This is a formative assessment designed to prepare you for the final exam.

Assessment Criteria

- Conforming with instructions (e.g. word length, font, other instructions)
- Clarity of expression (including grammar, spelling, referencing)
- Presentation, communication & structure
- Use of literature/ Knowledge of theory
- Analysis / critical reasoning / evaluation
- Problem solving / synthesis or evaluation / reflection

Extensions

No extensions will be granted. Late tasks will be accepted up to 72 hours after the submission deadline.

Penalties

There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance
- Evaluate relevant quantitative research methods and principles applicable to accounting
- Conduct independent research to recommend appropriate solutions to complex business problems
- Demonstrate communication skills relevant to an appropriate professional environment
- Demonstrate awareness of the need for corporate social responsibility and ethical behaviour

Final exam

Due: During examination period

Weighting: 30%

Task Description

The final exam is summative assessment designed to let you demonstrate the knowledge and skills you have attained in the previous three formative assessments.

Assessment Criteria

- Conforming with instructions (e.g. word length, font, other instructions)
- Presentation, communication & style (written)
- Clarity of expression (incl. accuracy, spelling, grammar, punctuation)
- Use of literature/ Knowledge of theory
- Conclusions
- Conceptualisation

A two hour final examination for this unit will be held during the University Examination period.

You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable. The timetable will be available in Draft form approximately eight weeks before the commencement of the examinations and in Final form approximately four weeks before the commencement of the examinations.

<http://exams.mq.edu.au/> The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration. The University's policy on Special Consideration is available at

<https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/universypolicies-and-procedures/policies/special-consideration>

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Special Consideration the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of the similar format as the final examination.

The Macquarie university examination policy details the principles and conduct of examinations at the University. The policy is available at: <http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/examination/policy.htm> Further details about the final exam for this unit will be available in the final week of classes and also on the unit web page (iLearn).

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance
- Demonstrate awareness of the need for corporate social responsibility and ethical behaviour

Delivery and Resources

Classes

This unit is taught in the form of weekly three-hour class. Students are required to enrol in one class for this unit. You can also access details of scheduled classes through the university's timetable facility (<https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2018/>). Changes to lecture time are managed by the on-line enrolment system. Please note that it is students's responsibility to check your class time and venue and ensure that you attend your registered class each week. The attendance records will be kept by lecturers. On-line registration changes to lectures will be shut down at the end of Week 1 so all changes must be made by then. If you have unavoidable disruption during the session and need to change class, you must contact Unit Convenor to get written approval to attend an alternative class.

ConsultationTimes

The consultation timetable will be posted on the unit iLearn webpage at the beginning of the session. You are encouraged to seek help at a time that is convenient to you from a staff member teaching on this unit during their regular consultation hours. In special circumstances, an appointment may be made outside regular consultation hours. Staff will not conduct consultations by email. You may, however, phone staff during their consultation hours. In order to gain access to staff located at levels 2 and 3 of building E4A during their consultation hours please ring the staff member from the phones available in the lobby (phone numbers of relevant staff members will be provided on iLearn and are available next to the phones).

Students experiencing significant difficulties with any topic in the unit must seek assistance immediately.

Required Texts and/or Materials

The textbook for ACCG927 is Rankin M., Ferlauto K., McGowan S. and Stanton P. (2018) Contemporary Issues In Accounting (Second Edition) John Wiley and Sons, Milton, Qld. ISBN 9780730343530

Textbook can be purchased through:

<https://www.wiley.com/en-au/Contemporary+Issues+in+Accounting%2C+2nd+Edition-p-9780730343530>.

Please note: The 1st edition of the required text, either hard copy or ebook, is no longer appropriate for ACCG927.

It is essential that all students bring their device to access the E-Book on a weekly basis as it will be used as a learning resource each week throughout the semester. Failure to bring your device and or copies of assigned readings to class will demonstrate that you are not prepared to participate in your weekly group work and will cause your group to lose marks. Individual students not coming to class prepared to participate in group work will not be able to share in the group mark for that week.

Unit Web Page

Course material is available on Macquarie University's learning management system (iLearn). The unit website (iLearn) is available via the link below: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>

Technology Used and Required

· iLearn

This unit will use Macquarie University's online technology for students to access course material, announcements as well as any other documents related to this unit. Students are required to regularly check the website for accessing up-to-date information about this unit. The unit website is available via the link below: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>

Students need to have username and password to access to the unit web site. Please contact iLearn directly if you have any difficulties to access to the unit site. iLearn Student Help can be found from the following link: <http://www.mq.edu.au/iLearn/help-pages/students.htm>

Learning and Teaching Activities

Delivery

This unit will be taught in the form of weekly three-hour class. Students are required to enrol in one class for this unit. The weekly three-hour class includes three components: Critical Reflection, Group Case Study/Quantitative Research Critique and a Lecture.

Group Case Study/Quantitative Research Critique.

The Group Case Study/Quantitative research component will take 1 hour. This component provides an opportunity for students to engage in group critical thinking exercises to formulate responses to real life business scenarios utilising required readings.

Critical Reflection Component.

The critical reflection component will be up to 45 minutes. Students will peer review and assess a Critical reflection submission using a predetermined marking rubric. This component provides the opportunity for students to discuss the suggested solutions and evaluate submitted responses against suggested solutions.

Lecture Component

The lecture section will include a 1 hour presentation of the main concepts and content for the following weeks Critical Reflection and Group Case Study/Quantitative Research Critique requirement. E.g Week 2 lecture will cover main concepts and content for Week 3 Critical Reflection and Group Case Study. Students need to download their lecture slides from the unit web page (iLearn) prior to attending the lecture. Students should complete their prescribed reading for the week prior to attending the lecture.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central \(https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policy-central\). ## Graduate Capabilities

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance

Assessment task

- Final exam

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance
- Evaluate relevant quantitative research methods and principles applicable to accounting
- Conduct independent research to recommend appropriate solutions to complex business problems
- Demonstrate awareness of the need for corporate social responsibility and ethical behaviour

Assessment tasks

- Presentations
- Class quiz
- Essay
- Final exam

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate an advanced level of theoretical accounting knowledge, including knowledge in financial and management accounting, and corporate governance
- Evaluate relevant quantitative research methods and principles applicable to accounting
- Conduct independent research to recommend appropriate solutions to complex business problems
- Demonstrate communication skills relevant to an appropriate professional environment
- Demonstrate awareness of the need for corporate social responsibility and ethical behaviour

Assessment tasks

- Presentations
- Class quiz
- Essay

PG - Effective Communication

Our postgraduates will be able to communicate effectively and convey their views to different social, cultural, and professional audiences. They will be able to use a variety of technologically supported media to communicate with empathy using a range of written, spoken or visual formats.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Evaluate relevant quantitative research methods and principles applicable to accounting

- Conduct independent research to recommend appropriate solutions to complex business problems
- Demonstrate communication skills relevant to an appropriate professional environment

Assessment tasks

- Presentations
- Class quiz
- Essay
- Final exam

Changes from Previous Offering

Changes from previous offering, S1 2018 include:

1. New Case Study Material.
2. New Quantitative Research Material.

Changes from previous offering, S2 2017 include:

1. An E-version and updated edition of the assigned text book.
2. The e-textbook will no longer be able to be accessed in the Final Examination.

Research and Practice, Global and Sustainability

This unit addresses global and sustainability issues as direct areas of study and as necessary implications arising from the materials, assessment and academic discussion and debate in classes/seminars. We promote sustainability by developing ability in students to research and locate information within accounting discipline. We aim to provide students with an opportunity to obtain skills which will benefit them throughout their career.

The unit materials have a reference list at the end of each chapter/module/text containing all references cited by the author. These provide some guidance to references that could be used to research particular issues.
