Unit description

This unit examines the principles and rules of evidence in civil and criminal proceedings under the uniform evidence legislation in New South Wales. Major topics include important aspects of proof, privilege and the adducing of testimonial, documentary and real evidence, as well as unreliable evidence. The principal areas of admissibility of evidence are also examined in detail, including relevance, hearsay and admissions, opinion evidence, tendency and coincidence evidence, credibility and character, as well as identification evidence.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- 1 Demonstrate a detailed and thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to the law of evidence.
- 2 Analyse complex factual situations involving the law of evidence and apply relevant legal principles to solving problems.
- 3 Formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on complex problems and principles related to the law of evidence, drawing upon relevant legal authority and policy considerations.

4 Apply advanced research skills.

5 Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit correct assessment tasks online.

General Assessment Information

FIT TO SIT MODEL Macquarie University operates under a 'Fit to Sit' model. This means that in sitting an exam and/or in-class test or otherwise submitting an assessment (including an online quiz), a student declares themselves fit to do so. Therefore, if a student is feeling unfit to sit the exam or test, or otherwise submit the assessment (as the case may be), they should not do so. If a student sits an exam or test, or otherwise submits an assessment, knowing that they are unfit to do so, they will not be granted Special Consideration. It is the responsibility of the student to determine whether they are fit to sit an examination or test or otherwise submit an assessment, or whether a Special Consideration application should be submitted for non-participation.

A student's sitting an examination or test or otherwise submitting an assessment will not preclude the student from being granted Special Consideration if the student can demonstrate that:

- they were unfit to make reasonable judgement on their fitness to undertake the assessment, due to mental illness or other exceptional circumstances;
- they were taken ill during the assessment (in the case of an examination or test); or
- other exceptional circumstances beyond their control vitiated the Fit to Sit declaration.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Assignment 1	25%	No	3 Sep
Assignment 2	25%	No	12 Oct
Final Examination	50%	No	9 Nov

Assignment 1

Due: 3 Sep

Weighting: 25%

Assignment No 1 in this unit is a research paper. The question for Assignment No 1 will be available on iLearn by the end of the first week of semester. Assignment No 1 must be a properly referenced formal response with appropriate analysis and argument supported by relevant legal authorities. It must be typed and kept to a maximum 2,500 words (excluding footnotes and the bibliography). In completing Assignment No 1, students must comply with the Australian Guide to Legal Citation, compiled by the Melbourne University Law Review. The Guide is available for download free at: <http://www.law.unimelb.edu.au/mulr/aglc.htm>. Assignment No 1 must be uploaded to Turnitin through the relevant iLearn link.

Late Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply: two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date, and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments, e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Turnitin will accept only ONE assignment, so it is imperative that the final iteration of the assignment is submitted. It is the student's responsibility to submit the correct assignment in ALL units. If a student submits the wrong assignment, they must advise the unit convenor. The late penalty described above will apply to any assignment lodged in these circumstances. It will not be possible to change the assignment after seven days, and a zero mark will be recorded.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- 1 Demonstrate a detailed and thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to the law of evidence.
- 3 Formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on complex problems and principles related to the law of evidence, drawing upon relevant legal authority and policy considerations.
- 4 Apply advanced research skills.
- 5 Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit correct assessment tasks online.

Assignment 2

Due: 12 Oct

Weighting: 25%

Assignment No 2 in this unit will require students to answer a hypothetical problem question or questions, and will be available on iLearn by the end of Week 4 of the semester. Assignment No 2 must be a properly referenced formal response with appropriate analysis and argument supported by relevant authoritative cases and commentary. Assignment No 2 must be typed and must be kept to a maximum 2,500 words (excluding footnotes and the bibliography). In completing Assignment No 2, students must comply with the Australian Guide to Legal Citation, compiled by the Melbourne University Law Review. The Guide is available for download free at: <http://www.law.unimelb.edu.au/mulr/aglc.htm>. Assignment No 2 must be uploaded to Turnitin through the relevant iLearn link.

Late Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply: two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date, and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments, e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Turnitin will accept only ONE assignment, so it is imperative that the final iteration of the assignment is submitted. It is the student's responsibility to submit the correct assignment in ALL units. If a student submits the wrong assignment, they must advise the unit convenor. The late penalty described above will apply to any assignment lodged in these circumstances. It will not be possible to change the assignment after seven days, and a zero mark will be recorded.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- 1 Demonstrate a detailed and thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to the law of evidence.

- 5 Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit correct assessment tasks online.

Final Examination

Due: 9 Nov

Weighting: 50%

The final examination in this unit will be a take home examination. The final examination will be based on material covered in the unit. Further details about the examinable topics will be provided in advance. The final examination will be in the form of a number of problem style questions. Students will be able to access the final examination paper on iLearn from 12pm on Fri 9 Nov and must submit their answers to the final examination paper by 4pm on the same day. Detailed information about the date, submission details and format of the exam will be provided to students well before the due date.

A student's answers to the final examination questions must not exceed a total of 3,000 words (exclusive of footnotes). This is an upper word limit and a student need not write 3,000 words if he or she can answer the questions adequately in fewer words. A bibliography is not required. If, for justifiable reasons, a student is unable to attempt the take home examination at the above time, the student should not make any attempt whatsoever. If the student submits a written response, he or she will be marked on that response. The student should instead submit nothing at the required time, but instead contact the unit convenor by email and also apply for special consideration in accordance with the University's Special Consideration Policy, which, if granted, will enable the student to complete an alternative comparable assessment at a time determined by the unit convenor. If the student is unable to comply, a further special consideration application must be made. If approved, the student will be allowed to sit the final exam on the next occasion the exam will be run (November 2019).

On successful completion you will be able to:

- 1 Demonstrate a detailed and thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to the law of evidence.
- 2 Analyse complex factual situations involving the law of evidence and apply relevant legal principles to solving problems.
- 3 Formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on complex problems and principles related to the law of evidence, drawing upon relevant legal authority and policy considerations.
- 5 Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit correct assessment tasks online.

Delivery and Resources

DELIVERY AND RESOURCES Delivery: Day, External

This unit will use: iLearn webpage and Echo recorded lectures

Weekly Lectures (Internal and Distance Students): Weekly lectures in this unit will be pre-recorded and available to students on iLearn. Weekly lectures will commence in Week 1 and go through to Week 12.

Weekly Tutorials (Internal Students): For internal students, weekly tutorials of 1.5 hours duration will commence in Week 2 and go through to week 13. Tutorials will consist of questions for discussion. The questions to be discussed each week are available in the Unit Outline. Tutorials will take place on Thursdays from 9am to 10.30am in 10 Macquarie Walk 269.

On Campus Sessions (Distance Students): For distance students, there are three consecutive days of on campus sessions. Distance students must attend the first two days of on campus sessions (Mon-Tue 17-18 Sep in 4 Western Rd 335). Attendance at the third day of on campus sessions (Wed 19 Sep in 9 Wally's Walk 108) is not compulsory, but is strongly recommended. On campus sessions will run from 9-am to 12 noon and 1 pm to 4 pm on each of the three days. Further information about the on campus sessions will be made available in due course.
