Unit description

This unit examines best practice in the audit and assurance of an organisation's financial information. Focusing on the legal and regulatory environment, including money laundering, professional and ethical considerations, a Code of Ethics and professional liability will be discussed. Practice management, including quality control, the acceptance and retention of professional engagements, the audit of financial statements, including planning, evidence and review are integral parts of the audit and assurance task and will be examined in this unit. The unit also considers other audit and assurance tasks, including the quality of projected financial information and the reporting of that information. Most importantly, students will consider current issues and developments relating to the provision of audit related and assurance services.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Recognise the legal and regulatory environment and its impact on audit and assurance practice and understand the current issues and developments relating to the provision of audit related and assurance services

Demonstrate the ability to work effectively on an assurance or other service engagement within a professional and ethical framework

Assess and recommend appropriate quality control policies and procedures in practice management and recognise the auditor's position in relation to the acceptance and retention of professional appointments

Identify and formulate the work required to meet the objectives of audit assignments and non audit assignments and apply the International Standards on Auditing

Evaluate findings and the results of work performed and draft suitable reports on assignments

Assessed coursework

Due: Throughout

Weighting: 10%

Homework exercises form a critical part in the study process, as they serve to reinforce concepts that are covered in lectures or online. Students have often failed a unit as they do not follow a disciplined approach over the session. To this end, students will be required to attend seminars with their homework. The lecturer will check that these are satisfactorily attempted.

The lecturer will collect homework or seminar exercises on five (5) random occasions, without prior notice.

Collected exercises will be worth 10%, with each submission counting for 2%.

Submission of written homework is to be made at the beginning of class. Submission of seminar exercises will be at the end of the class.

Criteria and standards

Marks will be given on the basis of original effort and are awarded for evidence that corrections are made.

Extensions and penalties

No extensions will be granted. Students who do not make a homework submission will receive a zero mark except for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Penalties apply to submission of non original work or work that bears close resemblance to response guides from the textbook publisher.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the legal and regulatory environment and its impact on audit and assurance practice and understand the current issues and developments relating to the provision of audit related and assurance services
- Demonstrate the ability to work effectively on an assurance or other service engagement within a professional and ethical framework
- Assess and recommend appropriate quality control policies and procedures in practice management and recognise the auditor's position in relation to the acceptance and retention of professional appointments

- Identify and formulate the work required to meet the objectives of audit assignments and non audit assignments and apply the International Standards on Auditing
- Evaluate findings and the results of work performed and draft suitable reports on assignments

Class test 1

Due: 12 September 2018

Weighting: 15%

This 60 minute invigilated, closed-book class test is a summative assessment task, designed to let you demonstrate the knowledge and skills you have attained in the prior 6 classes and to obtain feedback on your progress. Further information will be provided on iLearn and in class, prior to the test.

Submission of class test 1 is made to the lecturer at the end of the test.

Criteria and standards

Marks will be given on the appropriate application of knowledge and skills to short answer and case based questions.

Extensions and penalties

No extensions will be granted. Students who do not sit the class test will be awarded a mark of zero for the task except for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. A supplementary test will be held at a later date. Students are advised that once a determination is made on their application for Special Consideration, they may not withdraw their application and must submit themselves to partake in the supplementary test.

As per the Special Consideration Procedure, students are also advised that the time and date deadline or format of the supplementary test as a result of a Special Consideration application is not negotiable and students must make themselves available to take the supplementary test. Failure to meet this requirement will result in a zero mark being awarded. No further supplementary test will be provided.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the legal and regulatory environment and its impact on audit and assurance practice and understand the current issues and developments relating to the provision of audit related and assurance services
- Demonstrate the ability to work effectively on an assurance or other service engagement within a professional and ethical framework
- Assess and recommend appropriate quality control policies and procedures in practice

management and recognise the auditor's position in relation to the acceptance and retention of professional appointments

- Identify and formulate the work required to meet the objectives of audit assignments and non audit assignments and apply the International Standards on Auditing
- Evaluate findings and the results of work performed and draft suitable reports on assignments

Class test 2

Due: 17 October 2018

Weighting: 20%

This 90 minute invigilated, closed-book class test is a summative task, designed to let you demonstrate the knowledge and skills you have attained during the prior 8 classes and to obtain feedback on your progress. Further information will be provided on iLearn and in class, prior to the date of the test.

Submission of the written test is to be made to the lecturer at the end of the test.

Criteria and standards

Marks will be given on the appropriate application of knowledge and skills to short answer and case based questions.

Extensions and penalties

No extensions will be granted. Students who do not sit the class test will be awarded a mark of zero for the task except for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. A supplementary test will be held at a later date. Students are advised that once a determination is made on their application for Special Consideration, they may not withdraw their application and must submit themselves to partake in the supplementary test.

As per the Special Consideration Procedure, students are also advised that the time and date deadline or format of the supplementary test as a result of a Special Consideration application is not negotiable and students must make themselves available to take the supplementary test. Failure to meet this requirement will result in a zero mark being awarded. No further supplementary test will be provided.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the legal and regulatory environment and its impact on audit and assurance practice and understand the current issues and developments relating to the provision of audit related and assurance services
- Demonstrate the ability to work effectively on an assurance or other service engagement within a professional and ethical framework
- Assess and recommend appropriate quality control policies and procedures in practice

management and recognise the auditor's position in relation to the acceptance and retention of professional appointments

- Identify and formulate the work required to meet the objectives of audit assignments and non audit assignments and apply the International Standards on Auditing
- Evaluate findings and the results of work performed and draft suitable reports on assignments

Final Exam

Due: To be advised

Weighting: 55%

The invigilated, closed-book exam is a final assessment task designed to let you demonstrate the knowledge and skills you have attained through this unit.

A three hour examination for this unit will be held at a time and place to be advised on iLearn. Further details about the final exam for this unit will be available in the final week of classes and also on iLearn.

The only exception to sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for Special Consideration. The University's Special Consideration Policy is available at

<https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise the legal and regulatory environment and its impact on audit and assurance practice and understand the current issues and developments relating to the provision of audit related and assurance services
- Demonstrate the ability to work effectively on an assurance or other service engagement within a professional and ethical framework
- Assess and recommend appropriate quality control policies and procedures in practice management and recognise the auditor's position in relation to the acceptance and retention of professional appointments
