Unit description

The phenomenon of 'the song' in contemporary music is undisputed. This unit will explore 'the song' in various cultural and historical contexts. Students will deconstruct some of the most popular and critically regarded contemporary compositions in order to better understand and facilitate their own creative techniques. Song structure will be a unit focus and topics will include lyrical, melodic, rhythmic, chordal and musical components, and will build on and provide links between existing Music units in music production, voice, guitar, music business, and popular music. Recording as a compositional tool, loop stations and aspects of music production will enable students to work with various music technological in their creative practice. In the context of music business, the authorship and ownership of original material through song publishing, performance and recording will be discussed.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics
- Analyse critically the components of song structure in a variety of contexts
- Analyse forms of authorship
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies
- Communicate effectively through an original song

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Song analysis	20%	No	Week 5, 29/03/18
Creative Process Journal	30%	No	Week 10; 17/05/18
Original song	50%	No	Week 12; 31/05/18

Song analysis

Due: Week 5, 29/03/18

Weighting: 20%

You are required to comprehensively analyse a song. The song may be from popular music traditions and styles or from world musics. For this assessment, a song is considered to include lyrics, melody and musical accompaniment. Only commercially released audio tracks may be used for this assessment. You are required to analyse an original song of any artist or band (that is, no cover versions are to be analysed). Please note that the maximum word count of 1200 words includes the reference list. It is recommended that you refer to the assessment criteria below for analytical content. The use of sub-headings is permitted.

You will be assessed on:

- Identification of the song's authorship, including date/timeframe
- Identification of the song's context (historical, social and/or cultural) and style
- Analysis of song components
- Analysis of any publishing, performance and/or recording contexts
- Academic writing and referencing

The essay is to be submitted through Turnitin by 11pm on the due date.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics

- Analyse critically the components of song structure in a variety of contexts
- Analyse forms of authorship
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies

Creative Process Journal

Due: Week 10; 17/05/18

Weighting: 30%

You are required to write a process journal consisting of weekly entries (up to 500 words per entry) that documents your musical authorship. It is expected that your journal entries will correlate to weekly course content (lectures, readings, your own research and tutorials) and any subsequent influences on your creative processes. In addition, the journal should answer the weekly question that relates to each week's lecture content.

You will be assessed on:

- Effective communication of original ideas
- Creative components
- Documentation of the creative processes and song context
- Identification of musical authorship
- Integration of unit content
- Academic writing and referencing

The journal is to be submitted through Turnitin by 11pm on the due date.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse forms of authorship
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies

Original song

Due: Week 12; 31/05/18

Weighting: 50%

PART 1 (40%) - Your Song

You are required to write an original song during the course of this unit. This is a song to be written by you and not by a band that you may be part of. You will be required to discuss/play your song progressively through the Session in tutorials.

For this assessment, a song must include melody, lyrical content and musical accompaniment. You will record the song for assessment submission. The level of production is an individual choice; for students who do not play an instrument, you may want to consider using a loop station to assist in the creation/recording of your song.

Your final song will be submitted digitally as an audio or visual recording. The uploaded file should be of sufficient sound quality to do justice to your song. This will be uploaded to iLearn.

Song Submission: iLearn

PART 2 (10%) - Relevant Documentation

You are required to submit a credit list stating all those who assisted in bringing your project to fruition - e.g., musician/s, vocalist/s, recording engineer/s. Please include the dates, places and method/s relevant to your recording.

Submission for Part 2: Turnitin

You will be assessed on:

- Effective communication of original ideas
- Creative components
- Documentation of the creative process and song context
- Identification of musical authorship
- Academic writing and referencing

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics
- Analyse critically the components of song structure in a variety of contexts
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies
- Communicate effectively through an original song

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Create an original song
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies
- Communicate effectively through an original song

Assessment tasks

- Song analysis
- Creative Process Journal
- Original song

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song

Assessment tasks

- Song analysis
- Creative Process Journal
- Original song

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics
- Analyse critically the components of song structure in a variety of contexts
- Analyse forms of authorship
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies
- Communicate effectively through an original song

Assessment tasks

- Song analysis
- Creative Process Journal
- Original song

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics
- Analyse critically the components of song structure in a variety of contexts
- Analyse forms of authorship
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies
- Communicate effectively through an original song

Assessment tasks

- Song analysis
- Creative Process Journal
- Original song

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics
- Analyse critically the components of song structure in a variety of contexts
- Analyse forms of authorship
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies
- Communicate effectively through an original song

Assessment tasks

- Song analysis
- Creative Process Journal
- Original song

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyse critically the components of song structure in a variety of contexts
- Analyse forms of authorship
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song
- Demonstrate musical and lyrical components of the song
- Demonstrate the use of various technologies
- Communicate effectively through an original song

Assessment tasks

- Song analysis
- Creative Process Journal

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate the context of the song in popular and/or world musics
- Analyse the song in publishing, performance and recording contexts
- Create an original song

Assessment tasks

- Song analysis
- Original song

Changes from Previous Offering

The assessment tasks have been amended in line with the assessment policy introduced in S2 2016.
