Unit description

This unit provides an understanding of the principles and practice of intellectual property law, encompassing the law of copyright, designs, trade marks, patents and confidential information. The unit begins by considering the theoretical underpinnings of intellectual property law, and progresses to a detailed examination of the existing regulatory frameworks and an analysis of the present law reform discourse. The unit will provide students with a doctrinal understanding of the relevant legal principles, and equip students with the capacity to apply legal principles to complex factual circumstances

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Display an understanding of the fundamental principles of intellectual property law

Display a sophisticated knowledge of the specific rules in intellectual property law through the close examination of legislation and case law;

Demonstrate sophisticated skills of legal analysis through the application of the law to hypothetical fact situations

Demonstrate advanced skills relating to the provision of legal advice through the proper identification of legal issue(s), the application of the relevant law to the identified issues, and the provision of an accurate assessment of the likely outcome.

Demonstrate highly developed skills in the design of new laws and the reform of existing laws through an examination of the policy debates and law reform discourse in key areas.

Participate constructively in discussion and other classroom activities in order to understand, analyse and critique the fundamental principles of intellectual property law.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participation	20%	No	Weeks 1-12 of semester
RESEARCH ASSIGNMENT	40%	No	14 September 2018
FINAL ASSESSMENT	40%	No	9 November 2018, 5pm

Participation

Due: Weeks 1-12 of semester

Weighting: 20%

Students are expected to complete the required reading and actively discuss the questions outlined in the Tutorial Questions in the weekly tutorial (see iLearn under each week). All students are encouraged to actively participate in each week's discussion. Participation will be assessed at all tutorials. Students are required to demonstrate competence in participating in oral discussion in an academic environment. This involves thoughtfully responding to the issues raised and where appropriate, asking relevant questions. A participation mark out of 5 will be provided to students in week 4 of semester. This mark will form an assessment of tutorial participation in the first three tutorials. A final mark out of 20 will be provided to students after the completion of the last tutorial. The mark out of 20 will incorporate the initial mark out of 5 covering the first three tutorials and encompass a further mark out of 15 for tutorials 4-12.

Marking Rubric for Participation: Please see LAWS 824 ilearn page.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Display an understanding of the fundamental principles of intellectual property law
- Display a sophisticated knowledge of the specific rules in intellectual property law through the close examination of legislation and case law;
- Demonstrate advanced skills relating to the provision of legal advice through the proper identification of legal issue(s), the application of the relevant law to the identified issues, and the provision of an accurate assessment of the likely outcome.
- Participate constructively in discussion and other classroom activities in order to understand, analyse and critique the fundamental principles of intellectual property law.

RESEARCH ASSIGNMENT

Due: 14 September 2018

Weighting: 40%

In its 2014 Copyright and the Digital Economy Final Report \(ALRC Report 122\), the Australian Law Reform Commission recommended that Australia should adopt a fair use exception with a non-exhaustive list of four fairness factors to be considered in assessing whether use of another's copyright material is fair and a non-exhaustive list of eleven illustrative purposes. Do you agree with the Commission's recommendation? Discuss with close reference to relevant primary and secondary sources.

Please note that responding to this assignment question will require independent legal research that goes beyond materials provided in lectures and prescribed readings.

Marking Rubric: Please see LAWS 824 ilearn page.

Word limit = 2,500 words, not including footnotes and bibliography. Footnotes need to be confined to citations. All citations need to comply with the Australian Guide to Legal Citations.

Submission method: Via Turnitin on the LAWS 824 ilearn page.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Display an understanding of the fundamental principles of intellectual property law
- Display a sophisticated knowledge of the specific rules in intellectual property law through the close examination of legislation and case law;
- Demonstrate highly developed skills in the design of new laws and the reform of existing laws through an examination of the policy debates and law reform discourse in key areas.

FINAL ASSESSMENT

Due: 9 November 2018, 5pm

Weighting: 40%

FINAL ASSESSMENT

Consider the case of RPL Central v The Commissioner of Patents, Full Federal Court, 11 December 2015. What are the implications of this case for patents law? How satisfactory is the law in this area? Discuss with close reference to relevant legislation, case law and secondary sources.

Please note that responding to this assignment question will require independent legal research that goes beyond materials provided in lectures and prescribed readings.
