Unit description
Building on vocal abilities and understanding acquired in MUS205, this unit aims to provide students with technical and stylistic fluency at an intermediate level of vocal study. Creative approaches to repertoire and songwriting are introduced. In addition, the unit fosters the development of interpretive and performance skills appropriate to a variety of contemporary music genres. Students research contemporary popular music styles and are encouraged to pursue specific interests such as Musical Theatre, Blues, Jazz, Country, Pop, Rock and the singer-songwriter. This unit combines lectures/workshops and practical tutorials.
Communicate in performance contexts
Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

General Assessment Information

Students are expected to attend all lectorials and tutorials as content directly relates to assessments. Informal and formal feedback in this unit is provided in several ways. Interactive lectorials and exercises provide opportunities to test critical thinking and listening skill development; tutor and peer comments are other ways of receiving informal feedback throughout the session.

Students are required to participate in iLearn Forums for all group discussion. Please do not use social media, e.g., do not use Facebook.

Due to copyright issues, the posting of lyrics, sheet music and videos on iLearn is not permitted. Please post only links to resources such as websites/YouTube.

Please acknowledge your sources in verbal and written assessment tasks. For all written work, students are required to use APA referencing system for all in-text referencing and reference lists. When reference is made to recorded material then a discography must also be included. Please note, word counts include the reference list. Marks may be deducted for going over the word limit.

All performance assessments must be from memory – no reading of lyrics or music is permitted. If singing in a language other than English (an option for one style and song only), a translation of all lyrics is required.

Students will need to supply their own backing tracks or musical accompaniment, including rehearsal tracks. It is the responsibility of students to ensure that backing tracks do not breach copyright legislation (obtained legally; not pirated copies or illegal downloads) nor have the melody or vocal line heard on the track. Please ensure that all backing tracks are supplied on a USB memory stick for performance assessments.

GRADING

All assessments will be graded in accordance with the University’s Assessment Policy: https://staff.mq.edu.au/work4/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/assessment

For full assessment rubrics, please refer to iLearn.

LATE PENALTIES

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

REQUIRED READINGS
The set readings are listed in the "Delivery and Resources" section and are required (with the exception of Week 1) to be read prior to each week's lectorial.

Set exercises are available on iLearn.

RECOMMENDED READING

Recommended readings will be progressively listed on iLearn as appropriate.

ASSESSMENT SUBMISSION

All written assessment submissions must be through Turnitin by the due date/time.

Formal and informal feedback will be issued throughout the session.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

Examples of relevant and related assessment tasks will be discussed in lectorials and/or provided on iLearn.

Vocal exercises and program

Due: 28/08/18; Week 5

Weighting: 15%

Vocal Exercises: In addition to your own researched and selected exercises, students will be required to sing exercises from the set MUS206 exercises. Assessments of exercises will occur where possible within scheduled tutorial times. However, students may also be required to book an individual time for assessments outside those times.

Vocal Program: The vocal program should detail the individual practice routine devised by the student and include warm-ups, exercises for vocal development and cool-downs. The vocal program should include in-text references (e.g., for the exercises including both those researched and selected by the student and MUS206 set exercises) and demonstrate the development of a vocal practice program, exercises and components. The vocal program must contain a reference list in APA style. Maximum of 300 words (including references).

Programs are to be submitted via Turnitin by 5:00PM on the due date.

Assessment criteria
Implementation (practical) and understanding (written) of vocal technique and stylistic integrity including:

- vocal production and technique (effective preparation)
- vocal stylistic nuances and musicality (effective communication in performance)
- vocal program and evidence of reflexivity (effective practice methods)
- academic writing and referencing
- evidence of the learning process

For a full assessment rubric, please refer to iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
- Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
- Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
- Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
- Create and perform lyric and melodic components
- Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
- Communicate in performance contexts
- Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Vocal Journal

Due: 14/09/18; Week 7
Weighting: 20%

This assessment begins in Week 1 and concludes in Week 7. It requires weekly reflection on individual progress in relation to the vocal program and unit content. This involves critical reflection (on individual progress) and on content (lectorials, readings, weekly questions and tutorials), individual research and associated critical listening exercises.

Students are required to write progressive entries (total maximum of 400 words each week). This word count should be divided as:

1. 100 words for weekly reflection on individual progress (practices and in relation to your Vocal Program).
2. 300 words for reflecting on weekly content (lectorials, readings, weekly questions and tutorials) and individual research and associated critical listening exercises; a maximum of 100 words (of the 300 total) should be allocated to answering the weekly question/s. The journal is to also include completed critical listening analyses from the weekly lectorials. However, the weekly lectorial critical listening analyses are not included in the word count.

Please head weekly entries as Week 1, Week 2 etc. Diligent sequential entries are required. The format of journals is left to each student, however please follow academic writing principles.
The journal entries should include in-text references, discography and contain a reference list in APA style.

Journals are required to be submitted via Turnitin by 5:00PM on the due date.

Assessment criteria: Evidence of:

- effective practice
- critical reflective thinking and reflexive implementation of strategies in relation to individual development and unit content
- vocal health and vocal care strategies
- critical listening (e.g., to own voice and examples of style)
- appropriate journal format, including academic writing and referencing
- a process of learning with a focus on unit content

For a full assessment rubric, please refer to iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
- Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
- Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
- Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
- Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
- Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Blues ensemble

Due: 11/9Rec; 16/10Per; 19/10Ref
Weighting: 30%

This assessment entails a recording during tutorials (11/9), a performance during the lectorial (16/10) and a written reflection (19/10) of a 12 bar blues ensemble. This ensemble, in addition to group sections, allows each student to sing a solo line or a 12 bar sequence, and to submit a critical reflection statement (maximum of 750 words) on the ensemble process and learning.

Students are therefore required to prepare for and to actively participate weekly in tutorials (including the use of looping in ensemble development where appropriate), iLearn forums and additional ensemble rehearsals.

Students are required to individually write lyrics to a group theme consistent with the blues style, and to collectively structure a melodic component and musical arrangement in tutorials. Ensemble segments will be recorded in Week 7 tutorials. Students will be marked individually on their respective contributions including creating, recording, performing (20% weighting) and critically reflecting (10% weighting).

1. Ensemble development and performance
An iLearn forum will be set up for each group for ALL ensemble communication so as to effectively track the group process.

Each group is to keep a record of attendance of all practices held outside tutorial times. This is to be handed in with a stage plot at the time of the performance assessment.

A selection of instrumental backings is provided, however groups may also choose to provide their own simple musical accompaniment in a 12 bar blues format. The use of live looping is also allowed.

Ensemble assessments will occur where possible within the scheduled lectorial time.

2. Individual Reflection

The reflection statement should include in-text references and demonstrate understanding of the blues style, blues vocal nuances, individual and group development. It should also contain the lyrics that you developed for the ensemble that, along with blues discussion, may also be referred to in the reflection. The reflection statement must include a reference list in APA style. A maximum of 750 words applies including the reference list.

Reflection statements are required to be submitted via Turnitin by 5:00PM on 19/10/18.

Assessment criteria

Evidence of:

- stylistic, musical and technical integrity
- creative component and contribution to process, recording and performance
- implementation and understanding of blues vocal nuances
- implementation of vocal practice
- critical listening
- critical evaluation and reflection
- academic writing and referencing
- a process of learning with a focus on unit content

For a full assessment rubric, please refer to iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
- Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
- Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
- Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
- Create and perform lyric and melodic components
- Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
- Communicate in performance contexts
Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Individual Performance

Due: 06/11/18-08/11/18; Week 13

Weighting: 35%

This assessment requires a solo performance of 2 contrasting songs, spoken introductions to each songs and associated stagecraft. The songs are to be performed in front of an audience from memory. CD backing tracks or musical accompaniment are to be provided by students. No melody, either sung or played, is to be heard in backing tracks and backing tracks must not breach copyright.

Students will be marked on their performance of two songs representative of two contemporary musical styles/genres.

Students are required to discuss the style of their songs as introductions to each song (from memory), detailing the style and the vocal nuances they will perform that represent their chosen styles. Students must acknowledge their sources in their introductions.

Students have up to 10 minutes performance time (including song introductions and set-up time).

Assessment criteria

Evidence of:

- informative and effectively communicated spoken introductions to the chosen styles and repertoire
- stylistic integrity and nuances relevant to style
- vocal nuances and implemented vocal technique
- musical integrity in melodic components
- stagecraft including performance skills and confidence
- a process of learning with a focus on unit content

For a full assessment rubric, please refer to iLearn.

Students will either be assigned assessment times during the scheduled lecture and tutorial times, or will be assigned additional assessment times during Week 13.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
- Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
- Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
- Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
- Create and perform lyric and melodic components
- Communicate in performance contexts
• Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Learning and Teaching Activities

Engagement in the learning process

Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.

Analyses and critical listening

Analyses using the critical listening template will be utilised during lectorials. These analyses are to be compiled and integrated in the journal assessment.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central (https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policy-central). Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

- Academic Appeals Policy
- Academic Integrity Policy
- Academic Progression Policy
- Assessment Policy
• Fitness to Practice Procedure
• Grade Appeal Policy
• Complaint Management Procedure for Students and Members of the Public
• Special Consideration Policy (Note: The Special Consideration Policy is effective from 4 December 2017 and replaces the Disruption to Studies Policy.)

Undergraduate students seeking more policy resources can visit the Student Policy Gateway (https://students.mq.edu.au/support/study/student-policy-gateway). It is your one-stop-shop for the key policies you need to know about throughout your undergraduate student journey.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
- Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
- Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
- Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
- Create and perform lyric and melodic components
- Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
- Communicate in performance contexts
- Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Assessment tasks

- Vocal exercises and program
- Vocal Journal
- Blues ensemble

For all student enquiries, visit Student Connect at ask.mq.edu.au

Students with a disability are encouraged to contact the Disability Service who can provide appropriate help with any issues that arise during their studies.

For help with University computer systems and technology, visit http://www.mq.edu.au/about_us/offices_and_units/information_technology/help/.

When using the University's IT, you must adhere to the Acceptable Use of IT Resources Policy. The policy applies to all who connect to the MQ network including students.
Learning and teaching activities

- Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.
- Analyses using the critical listening template will be utilised during lectorials. These analyses are to be compiled and integrated in the journal assessment.

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
- Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
- Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
- Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
- Create and perform lyric and melodic components
- Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
- Communicate in performance contexts
- Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

- Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.
- Analyses using the critical listening template will be utilised during lectorials. These analyses are to be compiled and integrated in the journal assessment.
Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
- Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
- Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
- Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
- Create and perform lyric and melodic components
- Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
- Communicate in performance contexts

- Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.
- Analyses using the critical listening template will be utilised during lectorials. These analyses are to be compiled and integrated in the journal assessment.

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Develop and maintain vocal practice
• Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
• Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
• Create and perform lyric and melodic components
• Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
• Communicate in performance contexts
• Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Assessment tasks

• Vocal exercises and program
• Blues ensemble
• Individual Performance

Learning and teaching activities

• Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
• Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
• Create and perform lyric and melodic components
• Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
• Communicate in performance contexts
• Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Assessment tasks

• Vocal exercises and program
• Vocal Journal
• Blues ensemble
• Individual Performance
Learning and teaching activities

• Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation’s historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
• Communicate in performance contexts
• Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Assessment tasks

• Blues ensemble
• Individual Performance

Learning and teaching activities

• Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Create and perform lyric and melodic components
• Communicate in performance contexts
• Engage in the process of academic learning and discourse

Assessment tasks

• Blues ensemble
Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

• Develop and maintain vocal practice
• Apply reflexive strategies in practices, journal entries and performance preparation
• Analyse repertoire through critical listening of stylistic nuances
• Implement stylistic nuances using appropriate vocal technique
• Create and perform lyric and melodic components
• Communicate and reference in academic written contexts
• Communicate in performance contexts

Assessment tasks

• Vocal exercises and program
• Vocal Journal
• Blues ensemble
• Individual Performance

Learning and teaching activities

• Students may be asked to demonstrate and/or articulate engagement in the learning process. Students may be requested to explain answers in practical assessment tasks.

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:
