Unit description

To succeed in a globalised business environment, it is imperative for managers to understand contemporary approaches to leading and managing in culturally diverse environments and explore strategies and tactics for managing international assignments and teams. Core objectives of this unit are to enhance multicultural competence and skills and impart an understanding of how cultural diversity affects managerial behaviour and processes which is highly valued by future employers. The unit utilises a range of assessments such as simulations, experiential exercises, forums, reflective tasks, case studies, presentations and group activities in order to synthesise students' understanding of cross-cultural theories and their ability to apply their learning.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Interpret and analyse the diversity of cultures and its implication as they relate to business management and demonstrate a consciousness of the intricacy of operating in the global market

Appraise the multicultural 'big picture' in which global trade and government forces operate, and analyze the major culture-based challenges (political, social, legal, economic and technological) faced by international managers through teamwork. Identify major cultural characteristics, including communication styles that characterise regions, nations, communities, organisations, groups and individuals

Investigate major cultural differences in views on strategy for international alliances, including controls, labour relations and management a range of culture-based tactics for international negotiation

Classify, characterize and critique arguments for adopting particular leadership styles globally in given situations, and for varying motivational techniques depending on circumstances

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
CLASS PARTICIPATION(ONLINE)	40%	No	Ongoing
CASE STUDY	20%	No	WEEK 3- 11
REPORT	40%	No	5.11.2018 @5pm (evening)

CLASS PARTICIPATION(ONLINE)

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 40%

Online forums will be conducted during the Semester.

These are analogous to tutorials in a traditional course.

You are required to participate actively in these, and your contributions will be assessed.

A. CASE STUDY FORUM:

Students must read every case study and make a post expressing your opinion, connecting current discussions by other students, relating to concepts learned in the video lectures, readings, your work experience or material from the case study. There is no word limit for the post. For each case study, the forum will only be open for 2 weeks, which means that the forum for the first case study will close end of week 3.

B. EXPERIENTIAL EXERCISE FORUM:

These are comprised of application tasks and reflective activities. Reflective tasks are exercises designed to encourage reflection on Unit topics and associated readings. Each lecture will have one experiential exercise, and one video reflective task. Students must read these and post their perspectives in these forums. A rubric for online presentation is used to mark online participation which can be seen on iLearn. Each of these forums will close after 3 weeks .

LATE SUBMISSIONS

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved. No submission will be accepted after solutions have been posted.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Interpret and analyse the diversity of cultures and its implication as they relate to business management and demonstrate a consciousness of the intricacy of operating in the global market
- Identify major cultural characteristics, including communication styles that characterise regions, nations, communities, organisations, groups and individuals
- Classify, characterize and critique arguments for adopting particular leadership styles globally in given situations, and for varying motivational techniques depending on circumstances

CASE STUDY

Due: WEEK 3- 11

Weighting: 20%

Weekly (Case Analysis- Group work) 20% (10% individual performance and 10% group performance)

Every week nominated student groups will submit the case analysis through Turnitin.

The case analysis should address the following:

A. Introduction

A brief of the case environment, company, industry, country, culture and case problem

B. Body

Should include the following sections: Identification of major stakeholders and their problems, objectives and concern, recommended solutions, managerial implications.

C. Conclusion

Briefly summarize the essential complexities posed in this case and the practical implications and lessons learned.

D. Case question

Every case will have questions at the end which will serve as a direction to analyse the case. You do not have to answer these questions.

Detailed marking rubrics can be seen on iLearn and a document titled "How to analyse a case study" will provide further guidance.

This is a group activity and one student from the group will upload their case analysis through Turnitin as stated below.

SUBMISSION PROCEDURE (Group)

Students are required to submit an electronic copy of their assessment to Turnitin via the Internet as part of the submission process for assignments. Your assignment will then be automatically compared to work of your classmates, previous students from Macquarie and other universities, with material available on the Internet, both freely available and subscription-based electronic journals. Before submission, name your electronic file in a Word document with your surname and student number, e.g., Smith20101309. Please make sure that only one member of your group submits the report to Turnitin for plagiarism check. The word doc will then have his/her surname and student number.

REPORT

Due: 5.11.2018 @5pm (evening)

Weighting: 40%

The individual assignment is a very significant part of this unit. A research-based report in the broad discipline of International Management and requires the student to become more knowledgeable about using varied research sources and understand research methodology. The assignment will develop critical thinking and analytical skills and enable students to synthesize information and develop informed views on Global Issues in Business.

This assignment requires students to explore and apply an advanced body of knowledge to a range of current contexts in the Cross-Cultural Management/International Business or Cross-Cultural Leadership/International Business discipline.

Students will identify a current topic in the professional practice or discipline of Cross-Cultural Management/Business or Cross-Cultural Leadership/International Business. Some generic examples are given on ilearn but please brainstorm with the lecturer with your specific interests before you commence on the research. Detailed comprehensive information on writing, referencing and submitting this assignment can be found on ilearn.

SUBMISSION PROCEDURE

Students are required to submit an electronic copy of this individual assessment to Turnitin via the Internet as part of the submission process for assignments. Your assignment will then be automatically compared to work of your classmates, previous students from Macquarie and other universities, with material available on the Internet, both freely available and subscription-based electronic journals. Before submission, name your electronic file in a Word document with your surname and student number, e.g., Smith20101309.

KickStart

This unit includes a KickStart package, designed to help you get a head start with your studies. Being well prepared can be the key to success, so be sure to take advantage of KickStart and make it work for you.

What is it?

KickStart is a package of resources and activities in iLearn that is specific to studying this unit. Your package may include welcome videos from the Unit Convenor, quizzes (not counting toward your final grade), insights from industry experts and tips from previous students on how to succeed in the unit.

When is it available?

Two weeks before the start of the session, log into iLearn and access the KickStart package.

Please note that the activities in the KickStart package do not count towards the final grade of the unit.

Technology Used and Required

Access to a personal computer is required in order to complete tasks on iLearn. Students are required to use information technology in this unit. Students will need to use: Library databases to source materials for the research reports, which are accessed electronically for conducting, research for assignments;

Electronic (internet) access to ilearn to download unit learning resources and upload assignments or other materials required for class activities and assignments; Microsoft Word and Powerpoint (where applicable) for the research reports and presentations). You can check that your computer's software and hardware are compatibilities with Macquarie University standard requirements at:

<https://learn.mq.edu.au/webct/RelativeResourceManager/25994001/Public%20Files/uw/softw>

Unit Web Page

Course material is available on the learning management system (ilearn) The web page for this unit can be found at <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>

Timetable portal: <http://timetables.mq.edu.au>

Recommended readings are available through eReserve.

No extensions will be granted. Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved. Students need to submit all assignments to complete this unit satisfactorily. Successful completion of this unit requires the student to achieve at least 50% in total in the assessment tasks offered.

Learning and Teaching Activities

Learning and Teaching Activities

This unit will be taught via the participant-centered and experiential learning method of teaching. “Experiential learning takes place when a person is involved in an activity, then looks back and evaluates it, determines what was useful or important to remember and uses this information to perform another activity” (John Dewey, 1938). Online teaching would comprise of lecture videos and forum participation of three hours' duration. Students will partake in discussions on forums for cases, video cases and experiential exercises online. Case studies will be the extensively used. Case analyses are intended to be analytical critiques on some central issues of the case being discussed. As this is a discussion-oriented class, students will read all of the case studies indicated on the course schedule and discuss and defend themselves online. Every student is expected to participate. In your case analyses, please refrain from writing a summary of the case or repackaging the information already provided in the case. Based on the information provided in the case, be analytically judgmental, propose alternative managerial views and action plans, and discuss the relevance and appropriateness of the frameworks proposed in the readings and lectures to the case. In short, write what you think of the situation in the case and not merely repeat what the author says. The course teaches several models for cultural analysis of case studies. Some examples are: Hofstede, Trompenaars, and Edward Hall. These models are to be used for group case study assignments and the research paper. This unit is presented through the following learning media: Thirteen weekly video lectures combined with online discussions, case studies, experiential exercise and videos. Lectures are supported online on ilearn: <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au> Lecture notes, assignment details, assessment methods, case studies, reading and reference materials are posted on ilearn.
