Unit description

This unit addresses areas of interest for those wishing to understand management and the nature of organisations, their structure and operation. Topics include the development of organisations and management; the context or environment of an organisation; what constitutes performance for an organisation, and sustainability.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Describe and apply fundamental management theories and concepts to business operation.

Critically examine organisational and management practices.

Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.

Evaluate the purpose and value of teamwork and working collaboratively.

General Assessment Information

Important:

- It is the responsibility of students to view their marks for each within session assessment on iLearn within 20 working days of posting. If there are any discrepancies, students must contact the unit convenor immediately. Failure to do so will mean that queries received after the release of final results regarding assessment marks (not including the final exam mark) will not be addressed.
- Please note there will be no transfer of marks from other assessments (e.g. essay) to the final examination.
- Students do not have to pass the final exam to pass the unit. Students who achieve a total unit mark of 50% or higher will pass this unit.
- This unit is subject to Moderation.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Essay	25%	No	3pm Fri 6 April (Sydney time)
Report	35%	No	3pm Fri 11 May (Sydney time)
Final Exam	40%	No	Formal examination period

Essay

Due: 3pm Fri 6 April (Sydney time)

Weighting: 25%

Length: 1,100 words (excluding reference list)

Aims and objectives:

This assessment targets development of students' critical thinking skills and encourages students to:

- Understand the complex nature of contemporary organisations
- Provide a critical perspective of the academic literature on a topic
- Construct a sustained argument in response to the question
- Utilise and conform to the principles of academic rigour in the production of an acceptable, formal response to the question.

Guidelines for the essay:

- All essays must cite at least five (5) academic sources, including the two compulsory sources provided.
- You must cite the two compulsory sources provided in the Assessment Guide.
- You must distinguish clearly between your own words and analysis and those of your sources. You must do this by providing appropriate citations using the Harvard method.
- Failure to provide appropriate citations is plagiarism. Your list of references should include only material cited in the essay.
- This is an individual assessment task – if a submitted essay is assessed as not being the work of a single author then the university's policies regarding academic honesty apply.
- Use 1.5 line spacing and Arial or Times New Roman font size 12.
- Please refer to the Essay Marking Guide on iLearn. The marking guide sets out the criteria and standards against which your essay will be marked.

Submission Details:

All students must submit their essays electronically through Turnitin using the link on iLearn 3.00pm (Sydney time) on the due date.

Late submissions: Late essays must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 20% of the total available marks (i.e. 5 marks) made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 40% or 10 marks penalty). Late submissions will be accepted up to 72 hours after the due date and time. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and apply fundamental management theories and concepts to business operation.
- Critically examine organisational and management practices.
- Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.

Report

Due: 3pm Fri 11 May (Sydney time)

Weighting: 35%

Length: Report (1,000 words) + reflection on teamwork (500 words) (exclude reference list but including in-text references)

Aims and objectives:

This assessment targets the development of students' analytical, problem-solving, research and reflective skills. This assessment expects students to:

- Answer the brief (the question posed in the case study).
- Demonstrate an understanding of teamwork and the challenges and opportunities it presents for managers and team members.
- Demonstrate ability to find solutions to an identified problem.
- Reflect on their own experiences of teamwork.

Report should include:

- Introduction.
- Body (headings which reflect contents of each section).
- Conclusion.
- A reference list.
- Reflective statement.

A marking guide for this assignment will be posted on iLearn.

Submission Details: All students must submit their reports electronically through Turnitin using the link on iLearn by the due time and date.

Late submissions: Late reports must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 20% of the total available marks (i.e. 7 marks) made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 40% or 14 marks penalty). Submission will be accepted up to 72 hours after the deadline. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration) is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and apply fundamental management theories and concepts to business operation.
- Critically examine organisational and management practices.
- Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.
- Evaluate the purpose and value of teamwork and working collaboratively.

Final Exam

Due: Formal examination period

Weighting: 40%

Duration: 2 hours + 10 minutes reading time

A final examination is included as an assessment task for this unit to provide assurance that:

- i) the product belongs to the student and
- ii) the student has attained the knowledge and skills tested in the exam.

The final examination will be of two hour duration and will be held during the University Examination period. Details of the final exam's format will be given in the Week 13 lecture.

You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable. The timetable will be available in Draft form approximately eight weeks before the commencement of the examinations and in Final form approximately four weeks before the commencement of the examinations. <http://exams.mq.edu.au/>

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and apply fundamental management theories and concepts to business operation.
- Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.
- Evaluate the purpose and value of teamwork and working collaboratively.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Describe and apply fundamental management theories and concepts to business operation.
- Critically examine organisational and management practices.
- Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.
- Evaluate the purpose and value of teamwork and working collaboratively.

Assessment tasks

- Essay
- Report
- Final Exam

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically examine organisational and management practices.
- Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.
- Evaluate the purpose and value of teamwork and working collaboratively.

Assessment tasks

- Essay
- Report

- Final Exam

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically examine organisational and management practices.
- Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.
- Evaluate the purpose and value of teamwork and working collaboratively.

Assessment task

- Report

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Describe and apply fundamental management theories and concepts to business operation.
- Critically examine organisational and management practices.
- Analyse management challenges, problems and issues and construct practical solutions.
- Evaluate the purpose and value of teamwork and working collaboratively.
