Unit description

This unit provides an introduction to human resource management (HRM) in Australia, key policies and practices and contemporary environmental influences on HR strategy formation. Major topic areas include: human resource planning and staffing; employee training and development; performance appraisal; managing a workforce; and workplace health and safety. On completion of this unit students will be able to demonstrate the links between the different areas of HRM and the contribution of HRM in businesses. Students will develop graduate capabilities in a range of areas including critical thinking, creativity and innovation and communication skills.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.

Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

General Assessment Information

Important:

It is the responsibility of students to view their marks for each within session assessment on iLearn within 10 days of posting. If there are any discrepancies, students must contact the Unit Convenor immediately. Failure to do so will mean that queries received after the release of final results regarding assessment marks (not including the final exam mark) will not be addressed.

Please note there will be no transfer of marks from other assessments (e.g. group debate) to the final examination.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Individual Report	35%	No	Monday 8th October, 2018
In-tutorial Debate	15%	No	Weeks 4,5,7,8 & 11.
Final Examination	50%	No	Formal Examination Period

Individual Report

Due: Monday 8th October, 2018

Weighting: 35%

Examining the role of HRM in organisations, with emphasis on sustainable thinking, research and report writing skills. See Assessment Guide on iLearn for details.

Submission details: Students upload the assignment to the turnitin drop box by the due date.

Late submissions: No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 20% of the total marks available for the assignment for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 40% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

In-tutorial Debate

Due: Weeks 4,5,7,8 & 11.

Weighting: 15%

Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills. This task emphasises critical thinking, arguing and substantiating a point of view. Students debate as a team, but are assessed individually. See Assessment Guide on iLearn for more details.

Late submissions: Students who are absent from class on the day they are allocated to debate will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Policy allows for the provision of one additional assessment task. This task need not be the same as the missed assessment. It could be a homework, essay or oral task. In submitting an application for Special Consideration, the student is agreeing to make themselves available so that they can complete any extra work as required. The time and date, deadline or format of any required extra assessable work is not negotiable.

Special Consideration applications are only required if an assessment item (debate or report) will be impacted.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Final Examination

Due: Formal Examination Period

Weighting: 50%

A final examination is included as an assessment task for this unit to provide assurance that:

1. The product belongs to the student and
2. The student has attained the knowledge and skills tested in the exam.

The exam is 2 hours in duration and is 'closed book'. The exam will be held during the University's examination period. Some further clarification of structure and content will be given in the final lecture.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Delivery and Resources

Classes

One 2-hour lecture each week plus one 1-hour tutorial each week. The tutorials commence in Week 1.

The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

- Once the debate groups are formed (week 2), students cannot change their classes.
- Attendance will be taken in all tutorials.

Technology Used and Required

Students are required to learn how to use word processing, iLearn and the library journals catalogue

Unit web page

Course material is available on the learning management system (ilearn).

The web page for this unit can be found at: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/>

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Report
- In-tutorial Debate
- Final Examination

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Report
- In-tutorial Debate
- Final Examination

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment tasks

- Individual Report
- In-tutorial Debate
- Final Examination

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.

- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Assessment task

- Final Examination

Changes from Previous Offering

The major report was previously a Group Report (75% of the grade was based on individual contribution 25% was based on group contributions). In S2 2018, this has been changed to an Individual Report with a value of 35% of the overall grade. The weighting of the debate has increased to 15%.

Research and Practice

This unit gives you practice in applying research findings in your assignments

This unit gives you opportunities to conduct your own research

The Compulsory Text for the unit is:

Nankervis, A., Baird, M., Coffey, J., & Shields, J. (2017). Human resource management: Strategy and practice (9th ed.). Melbourne: Cengage. This text can now be purchased from the Macquarie University Co-op Bookshop.

Other useful texts which comprehensively cover the core material include:

- Bratton, J., & Gold, J. (2012). Human resource management: Theory and practice (5th ed.). Basingstoke: Palgrave Macmillan.
- De Cieri, H., Kramar, R., Noe, R. A., Hollenbeck, J. R., Gerhart, B., & Wright, P. M. (2008). Human resource management in Australia: Strategy, people and performance

(3rd ed.). North Ryde, NSW: McGraw-Hill.

- Stone, R. J. (2013). Human resource management (8th ed.). Milton, QLD: John Wiley & Sons

The publications listed below are highly recommended for further reading on the topics covered in the unit. Students should also consult them for the research and preparation of assignments.
