If this occurs after the submission date, the late penalty (see below) will be applied.

Extensions

Extensions may only be granted by the unit convenor in line with university policy. These must be applied for before the assignment is due.

Academic Honesty

All assignments must comply with Macquarie University's Academic Honesty policy:

http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html. Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of other people's work. Plagiarism can occur in a number of different ways. For example: Directly copying someone else's work in whole or in part, in large or in small chunks is plagiarism unless you enclose their words in quotation marks AND provide a reference. Changing words but keeping the sentence structure of someone else's work is plagiarism because you are using someone else's ideas and passing them off as your own work by not acknowledging where they originated. Copying so many words or ideas from someone else that it makes up a significant portion of your submission is plagiarism because you are using someone else's ideas and passing them off as your own work by not acknowledging where they originated. Copying from your own previous essays is plagiarism because the University's submission policy clearly states that you may not submit the same work in part or in whole for more than one assessment in any unit of study (at Macquarie or elsewhere). Most instances of plagiarism can be avoided by citing your sources. Remember, it's good to cite your sources because it demonstrates that you have carried out, understood and applied your research to the assessment at hand.

Turn It In

This unit will use Turn It In. Your essay must be submitted to Turn It In in order to be assessed. Originality reports generated by Turn It In are not available to students. Once submitted, an essay cannot be resubmitted. If you submit the wrong version of your essay you should contact the unit convenor and request it be deleted so you can resubmit. If you request this after the due date, late penalties will be incurred. It is your responsibility to ensure you are submitting the correct version.
