Unit description

This unit explores contemporary Australian novels, fiction, graphic works and online narratives through the prism of digital communications and culture. How have established, world-renowned novelists such as Peter Carey positioned 'digital natives' as characters? How are major 21st century issues such as asylum seekers, climate change, terrorism, cyberbullying, Indigenous affairs, multiculturalism, LGBTIQ rights reflected in longer and shorter fictional formats? How has the digital arena changed the language, practice and forms of writing now being offered to the reading public? How has the late 20th century been newly constructed as 'historical' while the late 21st century is reimagined as the immediate future? These are some of the key questions of the unit, enhanced by student input, online research and a visit to or engagement with an Australian Writers' Festival.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.open.edu.au/student-admin-and-support/key-dates/>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Demonstration of independent critical research analysis leading to the communication of an essay based argument
- Ability to work contextually between genres, eras and print, film and online media
- Ability to apply literary insights into broader social and environmental contexts
- Professionalism in terms of punctuality, prompt explanation of absences, fulfilment of set unit tasks, task management, team-based communication and presentation of work
- Ability to employ the skills and insights of this unit in further learning and to encourage

the learning of others

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Tutorial/online Participation	20%	No	Ongoing
iLearn Early Feedback Quiz	10%	No	Friday of Week 3
Author Analysis (1500 words)	30%	No	Friday of Week 7
Research Essay (2000 words)	40%	No	Friday of Week 13

Tutorial/online Participation

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 20%

Participation for Weeks 1-13, comprising of punctuality and demonstrated preparation (reading the set texts, available at the Macquarie Co-op bookshop, prior to class discussions) and quality of overall contributions to the online discussions, including one short Sydney Writers' Festival session report. If you cannot attend the Festival in person, session podcasts and extended clips are available. to review The ultimate determinant of your participation mark is the degree to which your fellow students benefit from your online contribution.

ABSENCES: All internal students must explain absences from online discussions by an email with doctor's certificate or other evidence before the day where possible. More than two (2) unexplained absences is a direct breach of Learning Outcome 4 (Professionalism) and may result in failure of the Participation grade, and, by extension, the unit as a whole.

Discussion Forums begin in Week 1 on the ENGX308 iLearn site.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Ability to work contextually between genres, eras and print, film and online media
- Ability to apply literary insights into broader social and environmental contexts
- Professionalism in terms of punctuality, prompt explanation of absences, fulfilment of set unit tasks, task management, team-based communication and presentation of work
- Ability to employ the skills and insights of this unit in further learning and to encourage

the learning of others

iLearn Early Feedback Quiz

Due: Friday of Week 3

Weighting: 10%

In Week 3 there will be an Early Feedback Quiz on the topics of Weeks 1, 2, 3, the Unit Guide, assessments and a little on Weeks 4 and 5 (yes, you need to read ahead!).

This will be under 'Assessments' on the iLearn site at <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>. Check this site regularly for updates, links, discussions, recorded i-lectures and slides, etc.

The Early Feedback Quiz will open 9am on the Monday of Week 3 and closes the following Friday at 11.59pm.

There are twenty (20) questions. Every student is allowed two turns of the quiz as a whole. Most students choose to use their first turn as a 'test run' to see the questions and their second as their final set of answers.

If you cannot complete this task, it is your responsibility to communicate this to your tutor.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Ability to work contextually between genres, eras and print, film and online media
- Professionalism in terms of punctuality, prompt explanation of absences, fulfilment of set unit tasks, task management, team-based communication and presentation of work

Author Analysis (1500 words)

Due: Friday of Week 7

Weighting: 30%

The purpose of this analysis is to gain a more comprehensive understanding of the ways in which two living authors reflect upon their fictional responses to the issues and challenges of the digital era.

This 1500-word task requires each student to compare and contrast the opinions of two of our first four authors (Breeze, Carey, Tan or Wright) on how they operate as a digital-era author in terms of their key themes, characters, issues, chosen form/genre and narrative/stylistic choices. Don't forget that the digital era (2000-present), while marked by revolutions in technology and communications, is not defined by these issues alone and authors may just as easily choose to respond to national politics, world events, personal experiences etc. Authors can be discussing the unit texts or any other piece of 21st century writing.

This analysis requires primary sources only, especially the use of interviews (not limited to those on the unit texts), essays, speeches or statements by the authors themselves. Brief examples from both authors' cited works (post-1999) should be given to demonstrate fictionally what is being stated in the interviews, essays, speeches or statements. All print and online sources cited should be referenced in MLA style.

Penalties:

LATENESS: The standard 2% penalty per day late applies. Extension and Disruption to Study requests should be made through ask.mq.edu.au.

LENGTH: A minimum 10% penalty applies for any analysis with a word count which is 10% under or over the set word limit of 1500 words. Word count begins from the first word of the essay and finishes with the last, unless there are also endnotes. Works Cited/Bibliography is not included in the word count.

PLAGIARISM: If you repeat any combination of words from another source, you must acknowledge the authorship of this source and distinguish it from your own authorship. Failure to do this is a breach of Academic Honesty which can lead to serious penalties, so please err on the side of caution and ask if you are unsure.

Submission and return of assessments is via upload to the Turnitin link under 'Assessments' on the ENGX308 iLearn site. There is no physical submission of assessments.

If you cannot complete this task, it is your responsibility to communicate this to your tutor.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstration of independent critical research analysis leading to the communication of an essay based argument
- Ability to work contextually between genres, eras and print, film and online media
- Ability to apply literary insights into broader social and environmental contexts
- Professionalism in terms of punctuality, prompt explanation of absences, fulfilment of set unit tasks, task management, team-based communication and presentation of work
- Ability to employ the skills and insights of this unit in further learning and to encourage the learning of others

Research Essay (2000 words)

Due: Friday of Week 13

Weighting: 40%

XThis final essay is in lieu of examination. It will ask students to discuss at least 1 set unit text and one post-1999 fictional text from outside the unit. This essay has a strong research component. Students are expected to conduct independent scholarly research in relation to the essay questions, which will be uploaded to the ENGL308 iLearn site in Week 8.

All print and online sources cited should be referenced in MLA style.

Penalties:

LATENESS: The standard 2% penalty per day late applies. Extension and Disruption to Study requests should be made through ask.mq.edu.au.

LENGTH: A minimum 10% penalty applies for any analysis with a word count which is 10% under or over the set word limit of 1500 words. Extension Request

Special Consideration Policy and Procedure (<https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/special-consideration>)

The University recognises that students may experience events or conditions that adversely affect their academic performance. If you experience serious and unavoidable difficulties at exam time or when assessment tasks are due, you can consider applying for Special Consideration.

You need to show that the circumstances:

1. were serious, unexpected and unavoidable
2. were beyond your control
3. caused substantial disruption to your academic work
4. substantially interfered with your otherwise satisfactory fulfilment of the unit requirements
5. lasted at least three consecutive days or a total of 5 days within the teaching period and prevented completion of an assessment task scheduled for a specific date.

If you feel that your studies have been impacted submit an application as follows:

1. Visit Ask MQ and use your OneID to log in
2. Fill in your relevant details
3. Attach supporting documents by clicking 'Add a reply', click 'Browse' and navigating to the files you want to attach, then click 'Submit Form' to send your notification and supporting documents

4. Please keep copies of your original documents, as they may be requested in the future as part of the assessment process

Outcome

Once your submission is assessed, an appropriate outcome will be organised.
