Prerequisites

(ENG110 or ENGX120) and two ENGX units at 200 level

Corequisites

Co-badged status

Unit description

Throughout the early modern, modern and post-modern periods, the literary essay has developed alongside and in dialogue with other major genres of writing - most notably the novel, drama, poetry, literary and cultural criticism. Students will read, critically analyse and write a range of essays across various subject areas - such as literature, art, music, film and politics. However, the critical focus of the unit is on the essay as textual practice: its generic affiliations, stylistic and discursive characteristics, ideological assumptions and agendas and its role and impact within culture in general. All enrolment queries should be directed to Open Universities Australia (OUA): see www.open.edu.au

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.open.edu.au/student-admin-and-support/key-dates/>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Gain an understanding of the range of textual forms constituted by 'the essay'

Understand the broader intellectual and cultural contexts of textual production

Be able to critically analyse the textual and discursive strategies utilized in the essay form in its various modes of address which speak to particular audiences: as provisional and exploratory prose, as reflective and contemplative writing, as persuasive and often polemical argument, or as detailed and precise description.

Be able to locate, evaluate and engage with published criticism and scholarship.

Demonstrate more highly developed textual analysis skills shown through written analyses of and responses to set texts.

Demonstrate a highly developed capacity for rigorous and independent thinking and advanced research and communication skills shown through reasoned, well-informed argument in written work and class discussion and participation.

Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Online Discussion	10%	No	Weekly, ongoing
Seminar Paper	40%	No	Week 6
Research Project	50%	No	Week 13

Online Discussion

Due: Weekly, ongoing

Weighting: 10%

Students are required to actively participate in weekly discussion forums, engaging with set topics, producing questions, and responding to questions and ideas posted by other students and teaching staff. For details see section 6.2 of the ENGX389 unit handbook available via the unit's iLearn site.

On successful completion you will be able to:

Delivery and Resources

Unit Requirements and Expectations:

It is expected that students will listen to weekly audio lectures, read set primary texts, participate thoroughly in online discussion and submit all items of assessment. It is imperative that students participate in the weekly discussion forums.

Unit Webpage and Technology Used and Required:

Online units can be accessed at <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>. PC and internet access are required. basic computer skills (e.g., internet browsing) and skills in word processing are also a requirement. Please contact teaching staff for any further, more specific requirements. Consult the OUA website for more detailed information on technology requires: <https://www.open.edu.au/getting-started/studying-through-oua/computer-requirements>.

Required Reading:

All primary readings for this unit are available in digitized format online through the e-Reserve collection at Macquarie University's library.

Policies and Procedures

Late Submission - applies unless otherwise stated elsewhere in the unit guide

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Extension Request

Special Consideration Policy and Procedure \(https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/special-consideration\)

The University recognises that students may experience events or conditions that adversely affect their academic performance. If you experience serious and unavoidable difficulties at exam time or when assessment tasks are due, you can consider applying for Special Consideration.

You need to show that the circumstances:

1. were serious, unexpected and unavoidable
2. were beyond your control

3. caused substantial disruption to your academic work
4. substantially interfered with your otherwise satisfactory fulfilment of the unit requirements
5. lasted at least three consecutive days or a total of 5 days within the teaching period and prevented completion of an assessment task scheduled for a specific date.

If you feel that your studies have been impacted submit an application as follows:

1. Visit Ask MQ and use your OneID to log in
2. Fill in your relevant details
3. Attach supporting documents by clicking 'Add a reply', click 'Browse' and navigating to the files you want to attach, then click 'Submit Form' to send your notification and supporting documents
4. Please keep copies of your original documents, as they may be requested in the future as part of the assessment process

Outcome

Once your submission is assessed, an appropriate outcome will be organised.

OUA Specific Policies and Procedures

Withdrawal from a unit after the census date

You can withdraw from your subjects prior to the census date (last day to withdraw). If you successfully withdraw before the census date, you won't need to apply for Special Circumstances. If you find yourself unable to withdraw from your subjects before the census date - you might be able to apply for Special Circumstances. If you're eligible, we can refund your fees and overturn your fail grade.

If you're studying Single Subjects using FEE-HELP or paying up front, you can apply online.

If you're studying a degree using HECS-HELP, you'll need to apply directly to Macquarie University.

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central \(https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policy-central\). ## Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate more highly developed textual analysis skills shown through written analyses of and responses to set texts.
- Demonstrate a highly developed capacity for rigorous and independent thinking and advanced research and communication skills shown through reasoned, well-informed argument in written work and class discussion and participation.
- Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.

Assessment tasks

- Online Discussion
- Seminar Paper
- Research Project

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Be able to locate, evaluate and engage with published criticism and scholarship.
- Demonstrate a highly developed capacity for rigorous and independent thinking and advanced research and communication skills shown through reasoned, well-informed argument in written work and class discussion and participation.
- Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.

Assessment tasks

- Online Discussion
- Seminar Paper
- Research Project

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Be able to locate, evaluate and engage with published criticism and scholarship.
- Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.

Assessment tasks

- Online Discussion
- Seminar Paper
- Research Project

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Gain an understanding of the range of textual forms constituted by 'the essay'
- Understand the broader intellectual and cultural contexts of textual production
- Be able to critically analyse the textual and discursive strategies utilized in the essay form in its various modes of address which speak to particular audiences: as provisional and exploratory prose, as reflective and contemplative writing, as persuasive and often polemical argument, or as detailed and precise description.

Assessment tasks

- Online Discussion

- Research Project

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Gain an understanding of the range of textual forms constituted by 'the essay'
- Understand the broader intellectual and cultural contexts of textual production
- Be able to critically analyse the textual and discursive strategies utilized in the essay form in its various modes of address which speak to particular audiences: as provisional and exploratory prose, as reflective and contemplative writing, as persuasive and often polemical argument, or as detailed and precise description.

- Demonstrate a highly developed capacity for rigorous and independent thinking and advanced research and communication skills shown through reasoned, well-informed argument in written work and class discussion and participation.
- Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.

Assessment tasks

- Online Discussion
- Seminar Paper
- Research Project

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Be able to locate, evaluate and engage with published criticism and scholarship.
- Demonstrate more highly developed textual analysis skills shown through written analyses of and responses to set texts.
- Demonstrate a highly developed capacity for rigorous and independent thinking and advanced research and communication skills shown through reasoned, well-informed argument in written work and class discussion and participation.
- Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Be able to critically analyse the textual and discursive strategies utilized in the essay form in its various modes of address which speak to particular audiences: as provisional and exploratory prose, as reflective and contemplative writing, as persuasive and often polemical argument, or as detailed and precise description.

- Demonstrate more highly developed textual analysis skills shown through written analyses of and responses to set texts.
- Demonstrate a highly developed capacity for rigorous and independent thinking and advanced research and communication skills shown through reasoned, well-informed argument in written work and class discussion and participation.
- Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand the broader intellectual and cultural contexts of textual production
- Be able to locate, evaluate and engage with published criticism and scholarship.
- Have developed their learning through a negotiated curriculum which enables reflection on learning within the English Major and application to their graduate destinations.
