Unit description Computer systems and networks, and the applications that they support, are essential to information flows, economic transactions and critical infrastructure in the twenty-first century. While early computer hackers were more interested in exploration, modern cybercrime is increasingly driven by activist or malicious sentiment (hacktivism), espionage and/or the desire for profit. This unit will present an overview of cyber security in practice with reference to both public and private sector organisations. The unit will look at the motives and perpetrators of cybercrime. It will explore how individuals and organisations face specific threats from their use of technology and identifies challenges in maintaining cyber and information security. It further examines the protective security measures required to protect physical and digital access to information through people, infrastructure and computer systems.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Describe and discuss criminological theories and how they relate to cybercrime.

Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.

Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.

Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Quiz 1	10%	No	Week 5
Powerpoint Presentation	20%	No	Week 8
Quiz 2	10%	No	Week 11
Major Essay	50%	No	Week 12
Tutorial Participation	10%	No	Ongoing

Quiz 1

Due: Week 5

Weighting: 10%

The questions draw on the readings and lectures for weeks 1 - 4 inclusive.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Powerpoint Presentation

Due: Week 8

Weighting: 20%

See iLearn for additional information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and discuss criminological theories and how they relate to cybercrime.
- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Quiz 2

Due: Week 11

Weighting: 10%

The questions draw on the readings and lectures for weeks 5 - 10 inclusive.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Major Essay

Due: Week 12

Weighting: 50%

See iLearn for additional details.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and discuss criminological theories and how they relate to cybercrime.
- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.

Delivery and Resources

UNIT REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS

- You should spend an average of 12 hours per week on this unit. This includes listening to lectures prior to seminar or tutorial, reading weekly required materials as detailed in iLearn, participating in iLearn discussion forums and preparing assessments.
- Internal students are expected to attend all seminar or tutorial sessions, and external students are expected to make significant contributions to on-line activities.
- In most cases students are required to attempt and submit all major assessment tasks in order to pass the unit.

REQUIRED READINGS

- The citations for all the required readings for this unit are available to enrolled students through the unit iLearn site, and at Macquarie University's library site. Electronic copies of required readings may be accessed through the library or will be made available by other means.

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

- Computer and internet access are essential for this unit. Basic computer skills and skills in word processing are also a requirement.
- This unit has an online presence. Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>
- Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.
- Information about IT used at Macquarie University is available at http://students.mq.edu.au/it_services/

SUBMITTING ASSESSMENT TASKS

- All text-based assessment tasks are to be submitted, marked and returned electronically. This will only happen through the unit iLearn site.
- Assessment tasks must be submitted as a MS word document by the due date.
- Most assessment tasks will be subject to a 'Turnitin' review as an automatic part of the submission process.
- The granting of extensions is subject to the university's Special Consideration Policy.

Extensions will not be granted by unit conveners or tutors, but must be lodged through Special Consideration: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>

LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENT TASKS

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

WORD LIMITS FOR ASSESSMENT TASKS

- Stated word limits include footnotes and footnoted references, but not bibliography, or title page.
- Word limits can generally deviate by 10% either over or under the stated figure.
- If the number of words exceeds the limit by more than 10%, then penalties will apply. These penalties are 5% of the awarded mark for every 100 words over the word limit. If a paper is 300 words over, for instance, it will lose $3 \times 5\% = 15\%$ of the total mark awarded for the assignment. This percentage is taken off the total mark, i.e. if a paper was graded at a credit (65%) and was 300 words over, it would be reduced by 15 marks to a pass (50%).
- The application of this penalty is at the discretion of the course convener.

REASSESSMENT OF ASSIGNMENTS DURING THE SEMESTER

- Macquarie University operates a Grade Appeal Policy in cases where students feel their work was graded inappropriately: <http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/gradeappeal/policy.html>
- In accordance with the Grade Appeal Policy, individual works are not subject to regrading.

STAFF AVAILABILITY

- Department staff will endeavour to answer student enquiries in a timely manner. However, emails or iLearn messages will not usually be answered over the weekend or public holiday period.
- Students are encouraged to read the Unit Guide and look at instructions posted on the iLearn site before sending email requests to staff.

Unit Schedule

Module 1: Introduction Module 2: Cyber Piracy Module 3: Online Fraud & Identity Theft Module 4: Political Hacking Module 5: Illegal, Harmful, Offensive Content Online Module 6: The cost of cybercrime Module 7: Online Drug Trade & The Dark Net Module 8: Law Enforcement in the Cyber World Module 9: Mass Surveillance & Censorship Module 10: Prosecuting cybercrime Module 11: Effects of cyber on crime Module 12: Application of theories of crime to cybercrime Module 13: Future of Cybercrime & Wrap up

Policies and Procedures

Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Assessment tasks

- Quiz 1
- Powerpoint Presentation
- Quiz 2
- Major Essay
- Tutorial Participation

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Describe and discuss criminological theories and how they relate to cybercrime.
- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Assessment tasks

- Quiz 1
- Powerpoint Presentation
- Quiz 2
- Major Essay
- Tutorial Participation

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Describe and discuss criminological theories and how they relate to cybercrime.
- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Assessment tasks

- Quiz 1
- Powerpoint Presentation
- Quiz 2
- Major Essay

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Assessment tasks

- Quiz 1

- Powerpoint Presentation
- Quiz 2
- Major Essay
- Tutorial Participation

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
- Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Assessment tasks

- Quiz 1
- Powerpoint Presentation
- Quiz 2
- Major Essay

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Describe and discuss criminological theories and how they relate to cybercrime.
- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.

- Explain the importance of cyberspace in changing the nature of offending, policing and victimisation.
- Identify, research, evaluate and synthesise relevant policy issues.

Assessment tasks

- Quiz 1
- Powerpoint Presentation
- Quiz 2
- Major Essay

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Engage in informed, scholarly debate about cybercrime and their potential impact on globalised society with fellow students and staff.
