- Be able to assess differences in stylistics, logic formation and vocabulary according across various genre
- Plan and evaluate effective communication strategies.

General Assessment Information

Attendance

Regular attendance is a crucial part of this unit. If the student needs to be absent on the day a lecture, a test or a presentation is conducted, s/he will need to contact the unit convenor in advance. Failure to notify the unit convenor of absence will result in reduction in the unit participation mark.

Late Submissions, Extensions and Supplementary Tests

Assessment tasks are compulsory and must be submitted on time. If you anticipate unavoidable difficulty in completing an assessment task (in class and/or online), contact the convener or your tutor as soon as possible.

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Special Consideration

If a student is prevented by serious and unavoidable disruption from completing unit requirements in accordance with their ability, they may apply for support under the Special Consideration Policy. To access this support, students must notify the university via ask.mq.edu.au. Students should refer to the Policy for further information (see the link provided in the 'Policies and procedures' section of this unit guide).
