Unit description

This unit is intended for students wishing to acquire only a reading knowledge of the language, whether for general interest or for research purposes. No previous knowledge of German is required. The language is presented specifically from a reader's point of view. Assessment is by online tests and assignments. The unit is taught in blended mode with a strong online component.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

By the end of this unit you should be able to ... Identify basic and more complex structures of German as they appear in academic writing.

Analyze the structures of written German to a degree sufficient to allow for translation into English with the help of specialist and non-specialist dictionaries.

Use print and online resources in aid of comprehension and translation of German academic texts.

Have a reading strategy to de-code and assess the core statements made in German academic writing.

General Assessment Information

Criteria and standards of grading are explained with each of the assessment tasks. Assessment tasks must be submitted by the specified due date and will be returned online. For details, see the iLearn site. Extensions can only be granted in exceptional cases and require consultation with the unit convenor before the assignment is due. - The student is required to complete all the assignments and the tests by the due date (for details see section on "Assessment Tasks"). To complete the unit successfully, the student will need to submit all pieces of written work and to achieve an overall mark of 50% or above.

Late Submission of Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Assessment Tasks

| Name | Weighting | Hurdle | Due |
|------------------------|-----------|--------|-------------------|
| Assignments (4) | 40% | No | Weeks 3, 5, 9, 11 |
| Online Test 1 | 30% | No | Week 6 |
| Online Test 2 | 30% | No | Week 13 |

Assignments (4)

Due: Weeks 3, 5, 9, 11

Weighting: 40%

In each of the four (4) Assignments (each weighted 10% of the final mark), the structures and vocabulary acquired are applied to a new text. The aim is to gain firm knowledge and recall of the most important German structures.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyze the structures of written German to a degree sufficient to allow for translation into English with the help of specialist and non-specialist dictionaries.
- Use print and online resources in aid of comprehension and translation of German academic texts.

Online Test 1

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 30%

In Online Test 1, students apply the skills they have acquired and revised to demonstrate their knowledge of vocabulary and grammatical structures of German. They demonstrate their understanding of German by some translation from German into English.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- By the end of this unit you should be able to ... Identify basic and more complex structures of German as they appear in academic writing.
- Analyze the structures of written German to a degree sufficient to allow for translation into English with the help of specialist and non-specialist dictionaries.
- Use print and online resources in aid of comprehension and translation of German academic texts.

Online Test 2

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 30%

In Online Test 2, students apply the skills they have acquired to demonstrate their knowledge of vocabulary and grammatical structures of German. They demonstrate their understanding of German by some translation from German into English.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- By the end of this unit you should be able to ... Identify basic and more complex structures of German as they appear in academic writing.
- Analyze the structures of written German to a degree sufficient to allow for translation into English with the help of specialist and non-specialist dictionaries.
- Use print and online resources in aid of comprehension and translation of German academic texts.
- Have a reading strategy to de-code and assess the core statements made in German academic writing.

Delivery and Resources

Delivery: Day (on campus) and online, also External (fully online)

This unit is for students on campus (class: day 4-6 pm) or for external students online. It has an accompanying iLearn website. Both the on-campus and external students have access and work with the materials on this same iLearn site.

Times and Locations for Lectures and Tutorials: for current updates, lecture times and classrooms please consult the the MQ Timetables website www.timetables.mq.edu.au

If campus students are unable to attend, appropriate apologies will have to be received. Students will need to contact the relevant staff member or the Department Administrator, phone: +61 2 9850 7005.

External students are required to have a regular presence on the unit website as per the weeks of the semester.

Required and recommended resources:

- required: a good size (!) German-English / English-German Dictionary such as Harper / Collins (PONS) Unabridged Dictionary: German - English, English - German or Oxford-Duden Unabridged Dictionary: German - English, English - German
- required: unit materials available on the GMN295 iLearn site and built week by week into a complete textbook by Week 12.
- recommended: Durrell / Kohl / Loftus, Essential German Grammar, London: Arnold, 2002, ISBN 978-0-340-74189-4

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

Online Unit

Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Is my unit in iLearn?: <http://help.ilearn.mq.edu.au/unitsonline/> to check when your online unit will become available.

Technology

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

For students attending classes on campus we strongly encourage that you bring along your own laptop computer, ready to work with activities in your online unit. The preferred operating system is Windows 10.

Students are required to access the online unit in iLearn by the end of Week 1 and follow any relevant instructions and links for downloads that may be required. If applicable, students are required to download the relevant language package prior to Week 2.

Please contact your course convenor before the end of Week 1 if you do not have a suitable laptop (or tablet) for in-class use.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Have a reading strategy to de-code and assess the core statements made in German academic writing.

Learning and teaching activities

- Revising the new topics and apply to new texts

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

- Online Test 2

Learning and teaching activity

- Exploring, applying and consolidating knowledge of German
- Revising the new topics and apply to new texts
- Applying knowledge of vocabulary and grammar; using de-coding skills to understanding German texts

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment task

- Online Test 2

Learning and teaching activity

- Exploring, applying and consolidating knowledge of German

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:
