Unit description

This unit is designed to provide students with the information and skills necessary to guide their instruction of students in the areas of comprehension and writing. It focuses on current research-based theoretical, conceptual and pedagogical components of comprehension and writing.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing. Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing. Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs. Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options. Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

General Assessment Information

Grading Procedures

Results for assessments will be reported as grades (i.e., HD, D, Cr, P, F). Where grades are used to report results for assessment components with significant weighting, convenors may also optionally add the suffixes of + (plus) or - (minus) to the generic descriptor in order to provide additional detail. For example:

Pass +

Pass

Pass -

In this case, a “Pass +” would indicate performance in the upper end of the pass range, a grade of “Pass” would indicate a mid-range pass and a “Pass -” would indicate performance at the lower end of the pass range. This principle is applied to all grade descriptors (i.e., HD, D, CR, P, F)

Raw scores for all assessments will be moderated according to the University guidelines so that work judged to be of a given standard is awarded a moderated score within the following distribution: High Distinction 85-100; Distinction 75-84, Credit 65-74; Pass 50-64; Fail 0-49.

For example, if it is judged that the HD standard for a particular assessment is met by work scoring 90-100, raw scores will be adjusted so that students received moderated scores between 85 and 100. This moderation takes into account both the stated performance standards for the assessment component and the degree of difficulty of the specific task.

Assessment Weighting

All assessment tasks must be attempted for students to be eligible for an overall passing grade in the unit.

Students are required to gain an overall pass on the unit, but do not have to pass all assessment components. If you perform poorly on one component, you may compensate for this with a better performance in the other components.

Consistent with the University Assessment Policy, moderated scores will be used in the calculation of final grades. The final unit score will be the weighted average of the moderated scores for the unit.

Resubmission

Students are required to gain an overall pass on the unit, but do not have to pass all assessment components. If you perform poorly on one component, you may compensate for this with an improved performance in the other component. Resubmission is not permitted.

Appeals against grades for individual assessment components

If any student has concern about the marking of an assessment, they must:

- Consult the member of staff who marked the work.
- If there is no satisfactory resolution, an appeal should be made in writing to the unit convenor within one week of the marked assessment being returned or of results being made available. The student should explicitly state the basis of the appeal.

The Unit convenor will review the marking and may, at their discretion, ask for a re-marking by a second marker. If re-marking by a second marker is judged appropriate, the final mark will normally be the average of the two marks awarded for the assessment task. Students should note that the revised mark for the task may be higher, the same, or lower than the original mark.

Please note that it is policy to double mark all failing assessments. The decision of the unit convenor is final.

Appeals against final unit grades

See the Policies and Procedures section for details on appeals against Unit Grades.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

You must read the Academic Honesty Policy in the the Policies and Procedures section of this guide

Important points:

- Close paraphrasing of another persons' writing is considered to be plagiarism. You must express ideas using your own words.
- Claim of ignorance of the University policy on plagiarism is NOT a defence. If you do not understand the Academic Honesty Policy, please seek advice from a member of the academic staff.

Information Regarding the Assignment

What is required for the assignment?

In general, good presentation, correct grammar, spelling and appropriate word choice will be expected. Express your ideas concisely and clearly, and observe any stated word limits.

Strict APA referencing procedures should be used.

How do I submit my assignment?

You will submit your assignment through the iLearn website via the link in the Assessment section.

How do I know my assignment submission was successful?

Staff will NOT respond to requests to confirm that assignments have been correctly submitted. You will receive an email receipt on successful submission of your assignment in your student email account. Make sure that this has been received and retain this receipt. No claims will be considered regarding missing assignments without this receipt. You can also re-download your assignment to double-check it was submitted (see above).

Assignment extensions and late penalties

Applications for extensions must be made via AskMQ at <https://ask.mq.edu.au> as a "Special Consideration" request before the submission date. Students who experience a disruption to their studies through ill-health or misadventure are able to apply for this request. Extensions can only be granted if they meet the Special Consideration policy and are submitted via ask.mq.edu.au. This will ensure consistency in the consideration of such requests is maintained.

In general, there should be no need for extensions except through illness or misadventure that would be categorised as unavoidable disruption according to the University definition of same, and currently available at: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>

Assignments received after the due date will be accepted provided they are received no later than 10 calendar days late. Note that this is a period of grace, not a new deadline, and extension requests for events after the original due date will not be considered. No assignment will be accepted after 10 days, except when an extension has been approved. Note that the 10 day period of grace applies only to the original due date. No period of grace applies when an extension has been granted. When an extension has been granted, the work must be submitted by the revised due date or a mark of zero will be awarded.

Late submissions without extension will receive a penalty of 5% reduction of the total possible mark for each day late (including weekends and public holidays). You are reminded that submitting even just 1 day late could be the difference between passing and failing a unit. Late penalties are applied by unit convenors or their delegates after tasks are assessed.

No assessable work will be accepted after the return/release of marked work on the same topic. If a student is still permitted to submit on the basis of special consideration, an alternative topic may be set.

Students should keep an electronic file of all assessments. Claims regarding "lost" assessments cannot be made if the file cannot be produced. It is also advisable to keep an electronic file of all drafts and the final submission on a USB untouched/unopened after submission. This can be used to demonstrate easily that the assessment has not been amended after the submission date.

Please note that if you submit a late assignment or submit after the due date, you may only submit once.

What if my hard drive crashed, my pet hippopotamus ate my computer, etc?

Computer problems will not be accepted as reasons for extensions. You are responsible for making sure your work is adequately backed up. Make sure your work is regularly backed up on a USB drive or to a cloud-based backup and don't leave your submission to the last minute. Always keep your hippopotamus and computer in separate rooms.

When is the deadline for submission?

The deadline is 11:55 pm on the due date. Note that this means you must submit BEFORE 11:55 pm. Note that it takes time to upload your assignment to Turnitin. This is normally quite quick but will depend on the speed of your internet connection at the time. The submission time is the time that assignment is recorded as received by Turnitin as we can not verify the time you started uploading. You need to allow time for the upload. Do not leave submission of your assignment to the last hours (or minutes).

What if my assignment is only 11 seconds late?

Late is late. Any submission after the deadline will be considered late. Do not leave submission of your assignment to the last hours (or minutes).

What if I accidentally submit a blank assignment, the wrong document, etc?

We can only mark what you submit. Make sure you re-download your assignment from the location that it was submitted and verify the correct document has been submitted. No consideration will be offered if you submit the incorrect document. You may submit your assignment as many times as you wish before the due date and only the last submitted version will be marked.

When preparing your assignments, it is essential that:

- Students regularly save a copy of all assignments before submission.
- Unless there are exceptional circumstances, no assessment will be accepted after the date that the assessment has been returned to other students.

Final Submissions

- Students are responsible for checking that their submission has been successful and has been submitted by the due date and time.
- Late submissions due to last minute technical difficulties will incur a lateness penalty.

How will I get feedback for my assignment?

Individual feedback will be provided electronically where you submitted your assignment.

Assignment rubric

The assignment rubric and performance criteria will be available on the iLearn site in the Assessment section.

Assignment

Due: 2nd October 2018 by 11:55pm

Weighting: 35%

Assignment

The assignment (1,800 - 2,300 words) will present tasks related to effective instruction in reading comprehension. It will typically involve extended responses to between 3 and 5 questions. This assignment will typically include some scenario-based questions with a focus on integrating relevant content from the unit. These questions may involve analysis of assessment results, curriculum analysis, short critical review of research, scenario-based development of intervention strategies, addressing specific conceptual and theoretical issues in curriculum adaptation, etc.

The assignment will be available on the unit website in Week 4 of the semester.

See the General Assessment Information section for information on submission procedures, extensions, etc.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing.
- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Online participation

Due: 28th October 2018 by 11:55pm

Weighting: 5%

What does online participation involve?

Online participation involves making posts on the Topic Discussion Forums of the unit website. Once a post is made in a Topic Discussion Forum, anybody in the unit can read or respond to it. Discussion questions for each topic will be included in the Topic Study Guide for the topic available on the iLearn site. Alternatively, you may ask your own questions, give answers or offer comment. Only posts to Topic Forums will be counted.

Online participation allows you to give feedback and receive feedback from other students and staff, to explore issues in discussion with other students and staff and to practice required skill competencies.

When can I contribute?

Topic discussion forums will close progressively through the semester. All forums will close at 11.55pm.

The content of each forum will remain accessible, but posts made after the closing date will not count towards your assessment.

Closing Dates for Discussion Forums

Topic	Closing Date
Topic 1- Approaches to Reading Comprehension & Writing	5th August
Topic 2- Language Comprehension	12th August
Topic 3- Introduction to Reading Comprehension	19th August
Topic 4- Reading Comprehension Instruction	26th August
Topic 5- Reading Comprehension Assessment	2nd September
Topic 6- Vocabulary	16th September
Topic 7- Introduction to Writing	7th October
Topic 8- Writing Instruction	14th October
Topic 9- Writing Assessment	21st October
Topic 10- Response to Intervention	28th October

How much do I have to contribute?

Each student is expected to make a minimum of ten (10) contributions to the topic discussions over the course of the semester. Each post should be a minimum of 50 words in length.

You should post in at least eight (8) of the ten topics.

Do discussion posts count towards assessment?

Yes. Discussion contributions are weighted at 5% of your final grade. Only contributions to Topic Forums are counted, social posts and general questions and comments do not count towards your assessment. If you make fewer than ten posts to topic forums, your maximum possible mark will correspond to the number of posts made.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Final Examination

Due: Examination period

Weighting: 60%

THIS UNIT INCLUDES A FINAL EXAMINATION THAT MUST BE COMPLETED IN AUSTRALIA IN THE NOMINATED EXAMINATION PERIOD.

Distance students will be required to attend a nominated external examination centre in Australia. If you are not able to meet these requirements, ensure you withdraw from the unit before the HECS cut-off date.

A three-hour examination will be held during the University examination period. It will be comprised typically of questions that require short answer and will include questions addressing conceptual understanding and practical application of unit content. All unit content is examinable.

Student will be allowed to bring one A4 sheet of notes (single-sided) into the final examination. These notes may be typed or hand written and your name must be placed in the top right-hand corner. These notes must be submitted with your examination.

A sample examination paper will be provided at the end of the unit.

Please note that exams are scheduled Monday to Saturday. University rules specify that students must ensure that they are available for the full duration of the final examination period. Distance students will be required to attend a nominated external examination centre.

Final Examination Rubric

In general, markers will be looking for the following qualities in your responses in the examination:

In general, markers will be looking for the following qualities in your responses in the final examination:

- Depth and breadth of knowledge of concepts and principles addressed in the unit
- Integration of concepts and principles from relevant content across the unit
- Evidence of generalisation of the concepts and principles addressed in the unit to new examples
- Synthesis of relevant content to address practical problems.
- Quality of critical analysis, insight, and originality.
- Ability to apply conceptual understanding to novel examples

Examinations will be graded according to the University grade descriptors.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing.
- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Delivery and Resources

General organisation of the unit

The unit is organised in external mode only, and in a flexible delivery format.

Delivery is designed such that students may seek as much or as little assistance as required in completing the unit. In flexible delivery units, it is critical that students are organised and disciplined. It is suggested that you allocate a total of 8-12 hours per week to study for this unit. If you get significantly behind in your topic coverage, it may be impossible to catch up. Please start your study as soon as possible.

Unit delivery: Teaching and learning activities

- Study guides provide an overview of topics and guide learning.

- Readings are designed to prepare students for the seminars as well as broaden their understanding of topics.
- Online presentations provide information and highlight key concepts.
- Review quizzes enable you to monitor your own learning. The review quizzes will remain open throughout the semester.
- Forums provide students with the opportunity to ask question and discuss issues relevant to the unit. Contributions to the online discussion forum can be a beneficial way of exchanging ideas and discussing unit content with other students. Although unit convenors typically check the Discussion Forums daily (on weekdays), they will not respond to all posts, as discussion between students may be more appropriate. Forums should be checked every 48 hours for important announcements.
- Dialogue allows students to communicate privately with the unit staff. Dialogue should be checked every 48 hours for important information.
- Zoom Meetings allow students to meet online with unit staff to seek clarification or discuss relevant issues.
- Assessments allow students to refine and demonstrate achievement of unit learning outcomes.

Technologies used and required

The unit uses an iLearn web site. You may access the site from:

<https://ilearn.mq.edu.au>

Zoom Meetings will be used for consultation. You can sign up to use the service for free (<https://www.zoom.us>) and download clients for computers and mobile devices here:

https://www.zoom.us/download#client_4meeting Details regarding how to join the each meeting will be posted on the iLearn site.

Unit Schedule

The following table gives an overview of topics covered in the unit and the suggested completion date.

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Capable of Professional and Personal Judgment and Initiative

Our postgraduates will demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgment. They will have the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing.
- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Assessment tasks

- Assignment
- Online participation
- Final Examination

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing.
- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Assessment tasks

- Assignment
- Online participation
- Final Examination

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing.
- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Assessment tasks

- Assignment
- Online participation
- Final Examination

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing.
- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Assessment tasks

- Assignment
- Final Examination

PG - Effective Communication

Our postgraduates will be able to communicate effectively and convey their views to different social, cultural, and professional audiences. They will be able to use a variety of technologically supported media to communicate with empathy using a range of written, spoken or visual formats.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply knowledge of instructional sequences to the design and adjustment of assessment tasks, instructional strategies and monitoring in the areas of comprehension and writing.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

Assessment tasks

- Assignment
- Online participation
- Final Examination

PG - Engaged and Responsible, Active and Ethical Citizens

Our postgraduates will be ethically aware and capable of confident transformative action in relation to their professional responsibilities and the wider community. They will have a sense of connectedness with others and country and have a sense of mutual obligation. They will be able to appreciate the impact of their professional roles for social justice and inclusion related to national and global issues

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically evaluate a range of approaches to instruction in comprehension and writing.
- Analyse strengths and weaknesses in current strategies and approaches to teaching comprehension and writing to students with special education needs.
- Review, analyse and synthesise appropriate strategies to meet the needs of particular students with considerations of the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
- Draw on unit content, professional experience and the evidence-based practice literature to evaluate and critically reflect on instruction in comprehension and writing for students with special education needs.

- Assignment
- Online participation
- Final Examination

Changes from Previous Offering

Changes made since the last offering of the unit

- The assessment tasks have been changed

- New readings have been added

Response to student feedback

Student feedback to our units is generally very positive, and we retain practices that students appreciate. We have made some changes to our units as a result of feedback:

- Assessment quizzes have been removed
- Discussion forum participation is now assessed

Other Important Information

Withdrawing from this Unit

If you are considering withdrawing from this unit, please seek academic advice by writing to <https://ask.mq.edu.au> before doing so as this unit may be a co-requisite or prerequisite for units in the following semesters and may impact on your progression through the degree.

Required Unit Materials and Readings

Texts

The required text for this unit is:

Carnine, D.W., Silbert, J., Kame'enui, E.J., Tarver, S., & Jungjohann, K. (2006). Teaching struggling and at-risk readers: A direct instruction approach. Upper Saddle River, NJ: Pearson.

The textbook may be obtained from the Co-Op Bookshop.

Other Required Reading

Required readings for each topic are listed in the Study Guides for each topic, available from the iLearn site. Compulsory readings may be downloaded from the MultiSearch section of the library web site at: <http://www.mq.edu.au/about/campus-services-and-facilities/library> or from sites as advised in the study guides.

Required readings should be completed prior to viewing the relevant presentation or seminar and in conjunction with the study guide.
