Unit description

This unit is basically theory-oriented. It deals with the most important aspects of simultaneous interpreting (SI), including SI as a purposeful, communicative activity, models of SI process, skills acquired and their development, and strategies employed to cope with constraints in SI. Students are required to read articles on SI from various perspectives and disciplines and to make presentations based upon their understanding of the theories. Its major aims are to enhance the students' awareness of the common problems in the process, understand how to achieve stage-like qualitative progress in skill development, strengthen their analytical and problem-solving abilities, and acquire relevant strategies.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;
- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.

General Assessment Information

Assessment submission

Assessments are submitted to Turnitin as a matter of course, and if required, to a second platform to suit the medium. Instructions for submitting assessments via Turnitin are available here: <https://students.mq.edu.au/support/study/tools-and-resources/ilearn/ilearn-quick-guides-for-students>

How to apply for a late submission of an assignment

All requests for special consideration, including extensions, must be submitted via <https://ask.mq.edu.au/> and provide suitable supporting documentation. Contact your unit convenor first for advice, especially in the case of an emergency or if you are unsure about the extension policy.

Late Assignment Submission

- Late submissions without an extension will receive a penalty of 5% of the total mark available for the assignment per day
- Late submission of an assignment without an extension will not be permitted after marks have been released to the rest of the class.
- Extensions will only be given in special circumstances, and can be requested by completing the Special Consideration request at ask.mq.edu.au and providing the requisite supporting documentation. For more information on Special Consideration, see the university website <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration>
- Assignments submitted after the deadline, regardless of the reason, will be marked and returned at a date determined by the unit convenor.
- Extensions cannot continue beyond the start of the following semester except under exceptional circumstances, and students should be aware that long extensions may impact graduation dates.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Reflective journal writings	60%	No	Week 5, 9 and 11
Presentation	30%	No	On a weekly basis
Group discussion	10%	No	On a weekly basis

Reflective journal writings

Due: Week 5, 9 and 11

Weighting: 60%

Students are required to write three reflective journals, each in 500 words.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;

- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.

Presentation

Due: On a weekly basis

Weighting: 30%

Each student will participate in several presentations either individually or by group on a scholarly article or book chapter that is relevant to SI skill development.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;
- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.

Group discussion

Due: On a weekly basis

Weighting: 10%

Students are required to participate in group discussions, and air their views on approaches and strategies introduced by the articles in their reading list. Further, they are expected to discuss the issues presented in each of the oral presentations.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;

- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.

Delivery and Resources

Materials used for this unit are largely selected from the Internet in general and YouTube and EU Speech Repository in particular. The learning and teaching strategies used are mainly through face to face interaction between lecturers and students. Additionally, students will be also encouraged to leverage iLearn for communication and participate in group discussion, peer evaluation and group research project for interpreting assignments.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central (<https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policy-central>). Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

Graduate Capabilities

PG - Capable of Professional and Personal Judgment and Initiative

Our postgraduates will demonstrate a high standard of discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgment. They will have the ability to make informed choices and decisions that reflect both the nature of their professional work and their personal perspectives.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;
- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective journal writings
- Group discussion

PG - Discipline Knowledge and Skills

Our postgraduates will be able to demonstrate a significantly enhanced depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content knowledge in their chosen fields.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and

Assessment tasks

- Reflective journal writings
- Presentation
- Group discussion

PG - Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

Our postgraduates will be capable of utilising and reflecting on prior knowledge and experience, of applying higher level critical thinking skills, and of integrating and synthesising learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments. A characteristic of this form of thinking is the generation of new, professionally oriented knowledge through personal or group-based critique of practice and theory.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;
- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective journal writings
- Presentation
- Group discussion

PG - Research and Problem Solving Capability

Our postgraduates will be capable of systematic enquiry; able to use research skills to create new knowledge that can be applied to real world issues, or contribute to a field of study or practice to enhance society. They will be capable of creative questioning, problem finding and problem solving.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;
- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;

Assessment tasks

- Reflective journal writings
- Presentation

- Group discussion

PG - Effective Communication

Our postgraduates will be able to communicate effectively and convey their views to different social, cultural, and professional audiences. They will be able to use a variety of technologically supported media to communicate with empathy using a range of written, spoken or visual formats.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate a good understanding of theoretical knowledge of SI and SI-related coping strategies;
- Critically analyze, interpret and evaluate SI-related research outcomes;
- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;
- Analytically examine, evaluate and reflect on their own SI performance for improvement;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.

Assessment tasks

- Presentation
- Group discussion

PG - Engaged and Responsible, Active and Ethical Citizens

Our postgraduates will be ethically aware and capable of confident transformative action in relation to their professional responsibilities and the wider community. They will have a sense of connectedness with others and country and have a sense of mutual obligation. They will be able to appreciate the impact of their professional roles for social justice and inclusion related to national and global issues

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply individual, peer and group analysis to identify problems in SI-related skill development;
- Display analytical skills in problem-solving;
- Build on their research skills through reflective journal writing; and
- Demonstrate their understanding of interpreting and translation ethics and of all the requirements for being a professional conference interpreter.
