Class Assessment

Due: OCS

Weighting: 20%

Students are required to be prepared for the OCS. Students' preparation and participation will be assessed at these sessions. Attendance is not sufficient and participation in class discussions through set questions and hypotheticals will provide the opportunity for participation. Further information will be provided on iLearn

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.
- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.
- Identify and reflect on the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.
- Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law.
- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.

Quiz (Mid Semester)

Due: Week 7

Weighting: 20%

All students are required to complete an online quiz, which will be available in Week 7.

The marking rubric and administrative requirements for this assessment will be available on iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.
- Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law.
- Apply relevant corporate and commercial law principles to resolve legal problems.

Final Exam

Due: Examination period

Weighting: 60%

There will be a two hour formal examination held at the end of the semester. It will contain a combination of short answer questions and hypothetical problems.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and articulate (orally and in writing) the substantive corporate law rules in legislation and case law.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.
- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.
- Identify and reflect on the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law.

Assessment task

- Class Assessment

Learning and teaching activity

- OCS will provide the opportunity to interrogate set questions and hypothetical problems. These questions and problems will be posted on iLearn and details about the schedule for the OCS will contain the manner in which they will be discussed

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Reflect on the interaction between corporate law, history and social context.

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Evaluate the effectiveness of corporate legislation and its impact on corporate stakeholders.
- Identify and reflect on the contextual and doctrinal features of directors' duties.

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop critical thought and engage with various perspectives on corporate law.

Learning and teaching activities

- Please check the announcements alerting you to current events that are relevant to issues/topics being studied

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:
