Unit description

This unit addresses recruitment and selection in organisations. It examines measurement and decision making in HR selection, job analysis techniques, performance prediction, interviewing and psychometric assessment. Students will be able to explain the role of HR measurement and evaluate selection programs in a variety of organisational settings. The unit takes a technical approach and both the scholarly literature and applied practices of specialist topics are examined. Students will develop graduate capabilities in a range of areas including critical analytical thinking, research capability and problem solving.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Analyse the role of HR measurement, reliability and validity of selection data in selection decision making.

Demonstrate critical and integrative thinking about processes and decision making in the design of a recruitment and selection program.

Describe and evaluate appropriate, best practice, sustainable recruitment and selection processes and decision making.

Demonstrate effective communication regarding recruitment and selection issues and processes.

Final Examination	30%	No	University Examination Period

Individual Essay: Lit. Review

Due: Week 7

Weighting: 20%

Individual Essay: Literature Review Assessment Summary Task Description This assessment aims to enable students to examine and critically analyze one aspect of recruitment and selection in depth, to understand some of the activities that make up scholarly research and to see how knowledge is built gradually. Students are required to write a literature review based on the scholarly peer-review literature. Type of Collaboration Individual Submission Please Submit Via Turnitin Link on iLearn Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length Up to 1,200 words plus references Inherent Task Requirements None Late Submission Late tasks must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% made from the total available marks for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20% deduction). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate critical and integrative thinking about processes and decision making in the design of a recruitment and selection program.
- Demonstrate effective communication regarding recruitment and selection issues and processes.

Academic Honesty

The nature of scholarly endeavour, dependent as it is on the work of others, binds all members of the University community to abide by the principles of academic honesty. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- all academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim
- all academic collaborations are acknowledged
- academic work is not falsified in any way
- when the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

Further information on the academic honesty can be found in the Macquarie University Academic Honesty Policy at http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyse the role of HR measurement, reliability and validity of selection data in selection decision making.
- Demonstrate critical and integrative thinking about processes and decision making in the design of a recruitment and selection program.
- Describe and evaluate appropriate, best practice, sustainable recruitment and selection processes and decision making.
- Demonstrate effective communication regarding recruitment and selection issues and processes.

Assessment tasks

- Recruitment & Selection Report
- Final Examination

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyse the role of HR measurement, reliability and validity of selection data in selection decision making.
- Demonstrate critical and integrative thinking about processes and decision making in the design of a recruitment and selection program.
- Demonstrate effective communication regarding recruitment and selection issues and processes.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Essay: Lit. Review
- Recruitment & Selection Report
- Final Examination

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyse the role of HR measurement, reliability and validity of selection data in selection decision making.
- Demonstrate critical and integrative thinking about processes and decision making in the design of a recruitment and selection program.
- Demonstrate effective communication regarding recruitment and selection issues and processes.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Essay: Lit. Review
- Recruitment & Selection Report
- Final Examination

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Describe and evaluate appropriate, best practice, sustainable recruitment and selection processes and decision making.
- Demonstrate effective communication regarding recruitment and selection issues and processes.

Assessment tasks

- Recruitment & Selection Report
- Final Examination

Changes from Previous Offering
