Unit description

In 1348 a horrific pandemic struck the Eurasian landmass. The Black Death killed between one-third and one-half of the European population and threatened the collapse of Western Europe's glittering medieval civilization. This unit explores what happened next. Over the next four-and-one-half centuries, Europe experienced a period of dramatic and enduring change, out of which many features of the modern, western world emerged. Beginning with the horrors of the Black Death, this era witnessed the splendour of the Renaissance, violent religious disputes and changes, the challenge of the new world of the Americas, the Scientific Revolution, the Enlightenment, and closed with the bloodshed and upheaval of the French Revolution. Students will analyse the multiple and contradictory impulses that shaped Europe and its engagement with the wider world between 1350 and 1800.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Understand and explain the extent to which European life altered between the Middle Ages and the French Revolution.

Analyze and assess the impact that various events, movements, and ideas had on European societies and cultures during the early modern period.

Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.

Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Assignment Submission

Written work must be submitted online via Turnitin. For instructions and information see the iLearn Student Guide to Turnitin http://www.mq.edu.au/iLearn/student\_info/assignments.htm

Return of Marked Work

All written work will be returned online.

Extensions

Students who encounter difficulties in meeting the deadlines for written assessment tasks should apply for an extension via ask.mq.edu in advance of the due date. Students should familiarize themselves with the University's Special Consideration policy before submitting such a request.

Late Submissions

Turnitin will not accept late submissions for this unit - you must contact Dr. Baker directly in order to submit any assessment task after the due date and offer an explanation the late submission.

Special Consideration

Students should familiarize themselves with the University's Special Consideration policy before submitting such a request.

Students can submit Special Consideration requests online via ask.mq.edu.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Reflective Journal Blog	20%	No	Weekly
Document Analysis	20%	No	26/08/19 (Week 5)
Short Paper	20%	No	07/10/19 (Week 9)
Final Synoptic Essay	40%	No	08/11/19 (Week 13)

Reflective Journal Blog

Due: Weekly

Weighting: 20%

Each week from Week 2 onwards external students will post a short reflection on the readings and lectures for that week to the External Students' Blog creating a semester-long individual Reflective Journal. You can find the blog in the Activities Block on the right-hand side of the page or/and immediately below the Unit Guide link. Each post should be around 200 words in length and should address the connections between the lectures, the readings, and the weekly theme.

Ten posts will count toward the final grade, so students may miss one week without penalty. Students will receive brief feedback in the form of comments each week and posts will be graded weekly. The final post must be made by Monday 4 November. The blog will close at 11.59 pm on 4 November.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and explain the extent to which European life altered between the Middle Ages and the French Revolution.
- Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.
- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Document Analysis

Due: 26/08/19 (Week 5)

Weighting: 20%

A 1,000-word analysis of a primary source as an historical document: to assess and evaluate its usefulness, reliability and limitations for historians in understanding early modern European society and culture. This task requires applying the skills in analysing historical documents that will be practiced in tutorials to a previously unseen document.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyze and assess the impact that various events, movements, and ideas had on European societies and cultures during the early modern period.
- Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.
- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Short Paper

Due: 07/10/19 (Week 9)

Weighting: 20%

A 1,000-word paper that answers a historical question identified in the Document Analysis.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyze and assess the impact that various events, movements, and ideas had on European societies and cultures during the early modern period.
- Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.
- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Final Synoptic Essay

Due: 08/11/19 (Week 13)

Weighting: 40%

A 2,000-word synoptic, reflective paper that synthesizes the material covered in the unit into a coherent, big-picture argument in an innovative or creative manner, in answer to one of three assigned topics. Students need to listen to all lectures and complete all the assigned weekly readings to complete the essay successfully.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand and explain the extent to which European life altered between the Middle Ages and the French Revolution.
- Analyze and assess the impact that various events, movements, and ideas had on European societies and cultures during the early modern period.
- Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.

- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Assessment tasks

- Short Paper
- Final Synoptic Essay

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment tasks

- Short Paper
- Final Synoptic Essay

Commitment to Continuous Learning

Our graduates will have enquiring minds and a literate curiosity which will lead them to pursue knowledge for its own sake. They will continue to pursue learning in their careers and as they participate in the world. They will be capable of reflecting on their experiences and relationships with others and the environment, learning from them, and growing - personally, professionally and socially.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand and explain the extent to which European life altered between the Middle Ages and the French Revolution.
- Analyze and assess the impact that various events, movements, and ideas had on European societies and cultures during the early modern period.
- Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective Journal Blog
- Document Analysis

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand and explain the extent to which European life altered between the Middle Ages and the French Revolution.
- Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective Journal Blog
- Document Analysis
- Short Paper
- Final Synoptic Essay

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Analyze and assess the impact that various events, movements, and ideas had on European societies and cultures during the early modern period.
- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective Journal Blog
- Document Analysis
- Short Paper
- Final Synoptic Essay

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Read, evaluate, and ask questions of a variety of primary source documents.
- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective Journal Blog
- Document Analysis
- Short Paper
- Final Synoptic Essay

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Synthesize their understanding and analysis into clear, specific, evidence-based, historical arguments presented in grammatically correct writing with appropriate references.

Assessment tasks

- Reflective Journal Blog
- Document Analysis
- Short Paper
- Final Synoptic Essay

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Analyze and assess the impact that various events, movements, and ideas had on European societies and cultures during the early modern period.

Assessment tasks

- Document Analysis
- Short Paper
- Final Synoptic Essay
