Unit description

This unit examines contemporary change management and sustainability theories with a focus on how they are applied in practice. Topics covered include leadership, power/ politics and strategy as they pertain to organisational change initiatives, in addition to measuring change initiatives and innovation. The case study method is extensively used in this unit to allow students to appreciate the interconnectedness of an organisation's systems and develop their problem-solving skills by proposing solutions to complex problems. Change managers are invited to give guest lectures to reinforce the nexus between theory and practice.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Discuss and demonstrate an understanding of the prominent theories, models, and empirical research regarding organisational change.

Critically analyse the pressures organisations face to explore new areas for growth while maintaining existing ones.

Apply organisational change concepts to case studies so as to examine the nexus between theory and practice.

Undertake and deliver an analysis of case studies in collaboration with other students as a member of a team.

Group Presentation	20%	No	Weeks 8-12
Individual Case Study Analysis	40%	No	Week 13

Individual Essay

Due: Week 7

Weighting: 40%

Individual Essay Assessment Summary Task Description The purpose of this assessment is to respond to a specific question regarding change management by developing an argument which is based on evidence and critical reasoning. This assessment gives you the opportunity to develop and apply critical thinking regarding change in organisations using concepts, theory and research evidence. Type of Collaboration Individual Submission Please Submit Via Turnitin Link on iLearn Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length 1,800 words excluding the reference list. Inherent Task Requirements Late Submission

Late tasks must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20% penalty). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Discuss and demonstrate an understanding of the prominent theories, models, and empirical research regarding organisational change.
- Critically analyse the pressures organisations face to explore new areas for growth while maintaining existing ones.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Discuss and demonstrate an understanding of the prominent theories, models, and empirical research regarding organisational change.
- Critically analyse the pressures organisations face to explore new areas for growth while maintaining existing ones.
- Apply organisational change concepts to case studies so as to examine the nexus between theory and practice.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Essay
- Group Presentation
- Individual Case Study Analysis

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Discuss and demonstrate an understanding of the prominent theories, models, and empirical research regarding organisational change.
- Critically analyse the pressures organisations face to explore new areas for growth while maintaining existing ones.
- Apply organisational change concepts to case studies so as to examine the nexus between theory and practice.

- Undertake and deliver an analysis of case studies in collaboration with other students as a member of a team.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Essay
- Group Presentation
- Individual Case Study Analysis

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically analyse the pressures organisations face to explore new areas for growth while maintaining existing ones.
- Apply organisational change concepts to case studies so as to examine the nexus between theory and practice.
- Undertake and deliver an analysis of case studies in collaboration with other students as a member of a team.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Essay
- Group Presentation
- Individual Case Study Analysis

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Apply organisational change concepts to case studies so as to examine the nexus

between theory and practice.

Assessment task

- Group Presentation

Changes from Previous Offering

No changes from previous offering.

Research and Practice; Global and Sustainability

This unit draws on extensive research from sources outside the textbooks. Such readings are for example:

1. Beer, M., Eisenstat, R.A. & Spector, B. (1990) Why change programs don't produce change. Harvard Business Review, 68 (6), 158-166
2. By RT (2005) Organisational change management: a critical review. Journal of Change Management, 5(4), 369-380
3. Battilana, J., Gilmartin, M., Sengul, M., Pache, A-C., & Alexander, J.A. (2010) Leadership competencies for implementing planned organizational change. The Leadership Quarterly 21(3), 422-438

Conducting research independently is strongly encouraged for this unit and is rewarded.

In addition, a guest lecture has been organised for week 12, that will present a concrete example of how change is dealt with in the "real world".
