Unit description

This unit provides extended formal academic support for full-time students concurrently enrolled in the Advanced Taxation segment of the CPA program. This unit examines advanced tax issues including income tax law for a variety of business structures and investment entities; goods and services tax; international tax; and anti-avoidance regimes. It also considers the tax implications of complex business structures and corporate financing arrangements.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

An ability to explain how tax theory and tax policies impact on business decisions.

An ability to advise on the tax implications arising from various complex business structures, superannuation and associated investment decisions.

An ability to use your advanced tax knowledge to recommend an appropriate business or investment structure to achieve commercial and personal goals.

An ability to explain the tax consequences of various corporate financing arrangements.

An ability to apply advanced tax knowledge in complex business areas at local and international levels, such as transactions involving complex goods and services tax law, cross-border tax issues, and tax avoidance.

General Assessment Information

In grading the assessment tasks completed in this unit the Macquarie University Grading Policy will be applied. Please refer to the policy at <http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/grading/policy.html>.

Feedback

To assist in your learning, feedback will be provided about each class test during the class held in the class following the test. It is your responsibility to ensure that you turn up to class to receive this feedback.

Turnitin

All written assessments must be submitted through Turnitin as per instructions provided. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that work is submitted correctly prior to the due date. The Turnitin version will be taken as the record of submission.

It is the responsibility of the student to retain a copy of any work submitted. Students must produce these documents upon request. Copies should be retained until the end of the grade appeal period each term. In the event that a student is asked to produce another copy of work submitted and is unable to do so, they may be awarded zero (0) for that particular assessment task.

Satisfactory completion of this course

To satisfactorily complete ACCG 909, students must:

1. receive an overall pass grade (or higher) for the internal assessment component of the course; and
2. receive a pass grade (or higher) for the CPA external examination.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Class participation	15%	No	Each class
Class Test 1	20%	No	20 August 2019
Class Test 2	35%	No	24 September 2019
Final Exam	30%	Yes	CPA exam period

Class participation

Due: Each class

Weighting: 15%

Class participation is designed to encourage your active participation in the unit and help you achieve the learning outcomes.

Obviously, if you are absent from classes, then this will affect your class participation mark. However, class participation is more than attendance.

Class participation will be based on the following activities:

1. Discussant (expert) task

Students will be allocated as discussants (experts) for a particular class. All students will be allocated at least 1 class during the semester for this purpose.

In the class you are assigned to be a discussant (expert), you are expected to be able to answer questions put to you by the lecturer for both the tutorial questions relating to that class, and the discussion of the Module content. This will require you to read and synthesise, in advance, the Module content set down for study in the class(es) you are allocated and the related tutorial questions.

As evidence of your preparation for the class in which you are a discussant (expert), you are also required to submit a typed summary of 4 pages (font size 11, single-spacing) of the main issues in the the topic for that class. The typed summary must be handed to the lecturer at the beginning of the class in which it is due, as well as well as uploaded to iLearn using Turnitin before that class; late submissions are not accepted.

This component is worth 7.5%.

2. General participation

Your contributions to all in-class discussions will further inform your class participation mark. This will be evidenced by your preparation for each class and the quality of your contributions across the semester.

The lecturer may require all students to submit an answer to a problem question, from time-to-time, to further evidence preparation for class. The quality and accuracy of your written response to such problem questions will also inform your class participation mark. Your written answer(s) must be typed and handed to the lecturer at the beginning of the class in which it is due, as well as well as uploaded to iLearn using Turnitin before that class; late submissions are not accepted.

This component is worth 7.5%.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- An ability to explain how tax theory and tax policies impact on business decisions.
- An ability to advise on the tax implications arising from various complex business structures, superannuation and associated investment decisions.
- An ability to use your advanced tax knowledge to recommend an appropriate business or investment structure to achieve commercial and personal goals.
- An ability to explain the tax consequences of various corporate financing arrangements.
- An ability to apply advanced tax knowledge in complex business areas at local and international levels, such as transactions involving complex goods and services tax law, cross-border tax issues, and tax avoidance.

Class Test 1

Due: 20 August 2019

Weighting: 20%

1 hour and 15 minutes duration

Submission: Held in seminar on 20 August 2019.

Extensions: No extensions will be granted. Students who do not attend the class test on the allocated date will be awarded a mark of zero, except for cases where an application for special consideration is made and approved.

Penalties: Zero marks for non-attempt.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- An ability to explain how tax theory and tax policies impact on business decisions.
- An ability to advise on the tax implications arising from various complex business structures, superannuation and associated investment decisions.

Class Test 2

Due: 24 September 2019

Weighting: 35%

2 hours and 20 minutes duration

Submission date: Held in seminar on 24 September 2019.

Extensions: No extensions will be granted. Students who do not attend the class test on the allocated date will be awarded a mark of zero, except for cases where an application for special consideration is made and approved.

Penalties: Zero marks for non-attempt

On successful completion you will be able to:

- An ability to explain how tax theory and tax policies impact on business decisions.
- An ability to advise on the tax implications arising from various complex business structures, superannuation and associated investment decisions.
- An ability to use your advanced tax knowledge to recommend an appropriate business or investment structure to achieve commercial and personal goals.
- An ability to explain the tax consequences of various corporate financing arrangements.
- An ability to apply advanced tax knowledge in complex business areas at local and international levels, such as transactions involving complex goods and services tax law, cross-border tax issues, and tax avoidance.

Final Exam

Due: CPA exam period

Weighting: 30%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

The CPA exam period is between 28 September 2019 and 13 October 2019.

The exam is 3 hours and 15 minutes long under open-book conditions.

Conditions/Submission/Extension/Penalties: The examination will be held under the rules and conditions of CPA Australia. Please refer to details provided by CPA Australia.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- An ability to explain how tax theory and tax policies impact on business decisions.
- An ability to advise on the tax implications arising from various complex business structures, superannuation and associated investment decisions.
- An ability to use your advanced tax knowledge to recommend an appropriate business or investment structure to achieve commercial and personal goals.

Delivery and Resources

Classes

There are 3 hours of face-to-face teaching per week consisting of a 3-hour seminar. Please refer to the following webpage for the specific seminar day and time <http://timetables.mq.edu.au>, as well as the unit schedule below.

Students are required to attend all classes.

Required and Recommended texts and/or Materials

Required texts

CPA Program: Advanced Taxation, Study Materials, Deakin University (provided to you by CPA Australia)

Recommended texts

Students will need to refer to legislation throughout the course. No legislation reference is prescribed as compulsory, but students would find useful:

OUP Core Tax Legislation and Study Guide (2019 edition), or

Thomson Reuters Fundamental Tax Legislation (2019 edition).

Alternatively, students can access tax legislation at www.comlaw.gov.au.

Additional references

The following books are not required to be purchased, but students would benefit from reference to any of the following as additional reading:

OUP Australian Taxation Law, Woellner, Barkoczy, Murphy, Evans and Pinto (2019 edition)

CCH Australian Master Tax Guide (2019 edition), or

Thomson Reuters Australian Tax Handbook (2019 edition).

Students would also benefit from referring to the 29th edition of the OUP Australian Taxation Study Manual (Nethercott, Devos and Gonzaga) which provides questions and suggested solutions to tax problems for the 2018/19 tax year.

Many of the recommended texts and additional references are available in the Library and for purchase from the Macquarie University Co-op Bookshop.

Unit Web Page

Course material is available on iLearn.

Teaching and Learning Activities

The unit is broken up into seminars in which students and the lecturer discuss readings, case studies and assigned questions on specified taxation topics that correlate with the 10 modules. Each seminar will be held on the scheduled date for 3 hours.

In between these seminars, students are required to work through and complete nominated modules in the CPA program, as well as work on assessment tasks.

Each seminar will consist of a mixture of activities based around the CPA program modules. These will include:

- discussion of case studies, examples and questions relating to the previous class's assigned module, and
- review of the main concepts and content, and their practical application, arising from the current class's assigned module.

The workload in completing this unit is 150 hours.

Technology Used and Required

Students are expected to have:

- proficiency in Word, Excel and Powerpoint
- knowledge of Macquarie University's online learning management system (iLearn) for downloading materials, and
- knowledge of the library resource database for accessing additional research material.
