Unit description

This unit will further develop students' skills in leadership, policy development and advocacy to enhance health outcomes, redress inequalities in health care and promote access to preventative health and health care. Policy and advocacy skill development will be contextualised and relevant to contemporary professional issues in physiotherapy and health care nationally and internationally.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the ability to apply effective leadership skills to key physiotherapy management roles
2. Analyse the impact of contemporary political, social and professional issues on the physiotherapy profession and its future

3. Articulate the importance and mechanisms of advocacy for the physiotherapy profession
4. Demonstrate the ability to effectively engage others and debate contemporary topics related to physiotherapy and/or healthcare
5. Demonstrate skills in professional health care policy development relevant to physiotherapy practice
6. Develop and discuss culturally respectful strategies to address health inequalities prevalent in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and other disadvantaged populations

General Assessment Information

Information concerning Macquarie University's assessment policy is available at http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/assessment/policy_2016.html. Grade descriptors and other information concerning grading requirements are contained in Schedule 1 of the Macquarie University Assessment Policy.

To pass this unit, students must demonstrate sufficient evidence of achievement of the learning outcomes and have attempted all assessment tasks.

Further details for each assessment task will be available on iLearn, including marking rubrics.

All final grades in the Department of Health Professions are determined by a grading committee and are not the sole responsibility of the Unit Convenor.

Students will be awarded one of these grades plus a Standardised Numerical Grade (SNG). The SNG is not necessarily a summation of the individual assessment components. The final grade and SNG that are awarded reflect the corresponding grade descriptor in Schedule 1 of the Assessment Policy.

Extensions for Assessment Tasks

Applications for assessment task extensions must be submitted via www.ask.mq.edu.au. For further details please refer to the Disruption to Studies Policy available at http://mq.edu.au/policy/docs/disruption_studies/policy.html

Late Submission of Work

All assignments which are officially received after the due date, and where no extension has been granted by the Unit Convenor, will incur a deduction of 5% for the first day, and 5% for each subsequent day including the actual day on which the work is received up to a maximum of 50%. Weekends and public holidays are included. For example:

Due Date	Received	Days Late	Deduction	Raw Mark	Final Mark

Delivery and Resources

Unit Organisation

This is a 4 credit point unit run over a 13 week session. The unit comprises lectures (online and face-to-face), tutorials, and workshops. Further information on the timetable is available on iLearn.

Assumed knowledge

This unit builds on your learning in the previous four semesters and assumes you have knowledge and skills in all key areas of physiotherapy

Teaching and Learning Strategy

The teaching strategy will comprise a combination of face-to-face contact and online activities. Further details will be available on iLearn.

Attendance

In the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences professionalism is a key capability embedded in all our programs. As part of developing professionalism, Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences students are expected to attend all interactive sessions including tutorials, workshops, seminars and practical sessions. In most cases lectures are recorded; however, lecture recordings cannot be guaranteed and some discussion or content may not be available for viewing via the recording system. Specifically, not all content will be recorded for this unit, due to the interactive nature of the activities and personal insights being delivered by leaders and business owners. Therefore, attendance is expected at all learning and teaching activities.

All lectures, tutorials and workshops are scheduled in your individual timetable. The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>. You may make a request to your tutor to attend a different tutorial on a one-off basis for extenuating circumstances.

Failure to attend any learning and teaching activities, including lectures and tutorials, may impact your final results. It is the responsibility of the student to contact the unit convenor by email to inform them if they are going to be absent. The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>.

Textbooks

There is no prescribed textbook, however the following book is recommended. Copies will be held in library reserve.

Fuda, P. (2013). Leadership Transformed: How Ordinary Managers become Extraordinary Leaders London: Profile Books LTD

Readings

Readings for each learning and teaching activity will be listed in the tutorial worksheets available on iLearn. For readings that are journal articles available electronically through the library it is your responsibility to find and download these. For readings that are chapters from a textbook and meet copyright restrictions they will be available on e-reserve as a PDF.

Technology and equipment

On-campus

Teaching rooms are equipped with state of art audio-visual and ICT equipment including iPads, internet connection, high quality video cameras and multiple LCD screens.

Off-campus

To study optimally when off campus you will need to have access to a reliable internet connection to retrieve unit information & at times to submit assessment tasks via iLearn.
