Unit description

Marketing research is a key activity of successful organizations, enabling them to learn about consumers and markets. This knowledge helps organizations to identify potential opportunities in the market and make strategic decisions that support and sustain their competitiveness.

This unit equips students with knowledge about the role and processes of marketing research.

The focus of the unit is on developing students' skills to identify appropriate marketing research techniques to design and implement marketing research projects that solve marketing problems. In the unit, students gain knowledge of statistical software to analyze data. Students also learn how to interpret statistical output to make marketing decisions and communicate their findings through oral and written communication.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Explain and evaluate marketing research theories and concepts to identify marketing problems.

Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration.

Use statistical software to analyse and interpret marketing information and communicate findings orally and in writing.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Group Project	50%	No	Week 4, Week 7 and Week 13
Individual Reflection	10%	No	Week 12
Final Exam	40%	No	Exam Period

Group Project

Due: Week 4, Week 7 and Week 13

Weighting: 50%

Task Description: This assessment targets development of students' critical thinking and problem solving skills and encourages students to:

- Understand marketing research theories and concepts to identify marketing problems.
- Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems
- Design and implement the data collection process.
- Analyze data by using SPSS software, interpret results and communicate findings.

Type of Collaboration: Individual and Group Submission:

Submit three progress reports via Turnitin link on iLearn:

- Progress Report A (individual task): 10%. Summary of qualitative research/exploratory study
- Progress Report B (group task): 15% (7.5% group component + 7.5% individual component). Research proposal for quantitative study
- Final Report (group task): 25% (12.5% group component + 12.5% individual component). Integrated complete marketing research report including data analysis results by using SPSS software

Format: Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length:

Progress Report A: 400 words

Progress Report B: 1,500 words

Final Report: 3,000 words

Inherent Task Requirements: None Late Submissions:

- No extensions will be granted for the Progress Report A (individual task) and Progress Report B (group task). Students who have not submitted the tasks prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Application for Special Consideration by an individual student cannot apply for a group submission.

- No extensions will be granted to the Final Report (group task). There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission - 4 marks penalty on a 20% assignment). Penalties do not apply when an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Application for Special Consideration by an individual student cannot apply for a group submission.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain and evaluate marketing research theories and concepts to identify marketing problems.
- Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration.
- Use statistical software to analyse and interpret marketing information and communicate findings orally and in writing.

Individual Reflection

Due: Week 12

Weighting: 10%

Task Description: Each student must produce a reflection piece that aims to evaluate their team and their own role in the teamwork process. Type of Collaboration: Individual Submission: Submit via Turnitin link on iLearn Format: Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length: Please refer to the iLearn Unit page

Inherent Task Requirements: No Late Submissions:

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission - 4 marks penalty on a 20% assignment). Penalties do not apply when an application for Special Consideration is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration.

Final Exam

Due: Exam Period

Weighting: 40%

Task Descriptions: A final examination is included as an assessment task for this unit to provide assurance that: (i) the product belongs to the student and ii) the student has attained the knowledge and skills tested in the exam. Type of Collaboration: Individual Submission: Students are expected to present for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable Format: Details given in the Week 13 lecture Length: 2 hours Inherent Task Requirements: None Late Submissions: Please see Assessment Policy Schedule 4

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain and evaluate marketing research theories and concepts to identify marketing problems.
- Use statistical software to analyse and interpret marketing information and communicate findings orally and in writing.

Delivery and Resources

Classes

- 3 hours face-to-face teaching per week consisting of: 1 x 1.5 hours lecture and 1 x 1.5 hours tutorial/lab exercises. Tutorials commence in Week 2
- The timetable for classes can be found on the University website at:
<http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

Prescribed text:

- D'Alessandro, Lowe, Winzar, Zikmund, Babin (2017) Marketing Research: 4th Asia-Pacific Edition with Student Resource Access. Cengage: ISBN 9780170369824

Recommended texts:

- Kirkpatrick & Feeney (2016) A Simple Guide to IBM SPSS Statistics - version 23.0. Cengage: ISBN 9781305877719
- Allen, Bennett, and Heritage. (2014), SPSS Statistics Version 22- A Practical Guide, 3ed. Cengage: ISBN-10: 0-17-034897-0

These texts can be purchased from the Macquarie University Co-op Bookshop.

They are also available in the Macquarie Library.

Technology Used and Required

- Students will need to have access to a personal computer, with access to the Internet and word processor software.
- In laboratories, we will use MS-Word, MS-Excel, and SPSS statistical software.

Unit Web Page

- The web page for this unit can be found at: iLearn <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>
- All announcements and resources will be available on the web site. Resource materials include lecture slides, practice questions, case studies and practice exam questions for both the within-semester and final exams. There is also a forum for student interaction and contact with faculty. You should consult the course Website several times per week for messages and updates.

Learning and Teaching Activities

This unit is taught using lectures and tutorials.

- Lectures serve to highlight key topics and elaborate on important or difficult topics. They are not a summary of, or a substitute for, the textbook or other resources.
- Tutorials serve to give students practice in applying concepts and developing skills in critical and logical thinking, information gathering and analysis.

Students are expected to read in advance of lectures, and participate in all lecture presentations. There is also an applied marketing research project assisting students to apply concepts introduced in course to the marketing environment. This will be introduced within the lecture presentations.

Satisfactory Completion of Unit

- It is normally expected that students attempt all assessment tasks for this unit. Students are required to accumulate at least 50% of the total marks possible in order to satisfactorily pass this unit.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain and evaluate marketing research theories and concepts to identify marketing problems.
- Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration.
- Use statistical software to analyse and interpret marketing information and communicate findings orally and in writing.

Assessment tasks

- Group Project
- Individual Reflection
- Final Exam

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration.
- Use statistical software to analyse and interpret marketing information and communicate findings orally and in writing.

Assessment tasks

- Group Project
- Final Exam

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain and evaluate marketing research theories and concepts to identify marketing problems.
- Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration.

Assessment task

- Group Project

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Apply marketing research concepts and techniques to solve marketing problems in collaboration.
- Use statistical software to analyse and interpret marketing information and communicate findings orally and in writing.

Assessment tasks

- Group Project
- Individual Reflection
- Final Exam

Changes from Previous Offering

The assessment task 'Class Test' has been replaced by 'Individual Reflection'.

Research & Practice, Global contexts & Sustainability

Research & Practice

- This unit uses research by Macquarie University researchers (Zikmund et al., 2017 and other resources on iLearn).

- This unit uses research from external sources (Zikmund et al., 2017 and other resources on iLearn).
- This unit gives you opportunities to conduct your own research and to refine your interest in consumer research or other contemporary marketing practices in different contexts.

Global contexts & Sustainability

- This unit enables students to understand the new generation consumers and their patterns, preferences, and behaviours in global marketing context in Internet era through the research project.
- Students are expected to attain higher level of awareness of sustainability by investigating into the characteristics, market size, profitability, potential, variation of market and lifelong value of consumer groups and understanding business's commitment to the protect consumer wellbeing, environmental and social benefits.
