Unit description

This unit develops knowledge and understanding of the international business environment and business operations in foreign markets through first-hand observation of businesses in India. It is designed for students with a background knowledge of, and interest in, business processes in an international context. The unit includes a series of seminars and a two week study tour to India in the mid-session break, and enables students to develop an appreciation of the ways in which business operations and business systems differ across national boundaries. Students are required to prepare a written assignment based on the seminar series, and prepare a report at the end of the study tour based on their observations of the businesses and of the country. This unit requires students to attend a supervised study tour for which additional costs are involved. Contact the Department of Marketing and Management for full details.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Project Report & Presentation

Due: Week 5, 10, 12

Weighting: 50%

Project Report and Presentation Assessment Summary Task Description

This is a combination of individual report and group presentation. Up to four students are to be formed as one group. Each group member is required to develop a different yet connected topic for his/her individual report, based on the learning throughout the lectures, readings and field trip in India. These topics developed individually will then be combined into a coherent and well-structured group presentation.

This task is composed of 3 stages of work: pre-trip report (individual, 10% in Week 4), post-trip report (individual, 20% in Week 10) and presentation (group, 20% in Week 12). Briefs on each of these stages will be provided in separate documents available on iLearn.

This project requires students to read, observe and identify an interested and important phenomenon in relation to India, and develop analytical and critical thinking to propose solutions/suggestions for future development of India, as inspired by the phenomenon observed. You may identify a business, cultural, social, economic, political related research topic within the context of the Indian business environment that further to be explored during the study tour. For this purpose, it is recommended that you maintain a reflective journal during your tour for your benefit.

Type of Collaboration Individual & Group Submission Submission 1 on Pre-trip report is due in Week 5. Submission 2 on Post-trip report is due in Week 10, and Submission 3 on Group Presentation is due in Week 12. Please Submit via Turnitin Link on iLearn. Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page for details. Length Please refer to the iLearn Unit page for details. Inherent Task Requirements Attendance is required to complete the Group Presentation task. Late Submission

No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20%). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise and understand key concepts and theories on political, economic, social, legal, technological and cultural environments discussed in the literature on conducting business in the Indian context.
- Gain practical knowledge and experience on managing a business in India and conducting research to analyse real-world cases in the global business environment.
- Develop, and understand the characteristics of Indian Society to identify and analyse market trends and specific issues related to emerging markets while working in cross cultural teams and motivate team building including communication styles.
- Apply the above knowledge and skills and develop global leadership strategies and solutions for conducting business in an unknown foreign environment

Learning and Teaching Activities

Resources

This unit will be taught via the participant-centred and experiential learning method of teaching. “Experiential learning takes place when a person is involved in an activity, then looks back and evaluates it, determines what was useful or important to remember and uses this information to perform another activity” (John Dewey, 1938). Face-to-Face lectures would comprise of seminars of two hours' duration. Students will partake in lectures, discussions, cases, video cases and experiential exercises in class. Students are advised to attend all lectures and participate in case discussions, missing classes and not participating in case discussions will affect grades. Case studies will be extensively used. Case analyses are intended to be analytical critiques on some central issues of the case being discussed. As this is a discussion-oriented class, students will read all of the readings and case studies indicated on the course schedule and come prepared to discuss and defend themselves in the class. Students need to complete and submit all assignments before the due date.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise and understand key concepts and theories on political, economic, social, legal, technological and cultural environments discussed in the literature on conducting business in the Indian context.
- Gain practical knowledge and experience on managing a business in India and conducting research to analyse real-world cases in the global business environment.
- Develop, and understand the characteristics of Indian Society to identify and analyse market trends and specific issues related to emerging markets while working in cross cultural teams and motivate team building including communication styles.

Assessment tasks

- Class Participation
- Field Trip Participation
- Project Report & Presentation

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Recognise and understand key concepts and theories on political, economic, social, legal, technological and cultural environments discussed in the literature on conducting business in the Indian context.
- Gain practical knowledge and experience on managing a business in India and conducting research to analyse real-world cases in the global business environment.
- Develop, and understand the characteristics of Indian Society to identify and analyse market trends and specific issues related to emerging markets while working in cross cultural teams and motivate team building including communication styles.

Assessment tasks

- Field Trip Participation
- Project Report & Presentation

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Develop, and understand the characteristics of Indian Society to identify and analyse market trends and specific issues related to emerging markets while working in cross cultural teams and motivate team building including communication styles.

- Project Report & Presentation

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Gain practical knowledge and experience on managing a business in India and conducting research to analyse real-world cases in the global business environment.
- Apply the above knowledge and skills and develop global leadership strategies and solutions for conducting business in an unknown foreign environment

Assessment tasks

- Class Participation
- Project Report & Presentation

Engaged and Ethical Local and Global citizens

As local citizens our graduates will be aware of indigenous perspectives and of the nation's historical context. They will be engaged with the challenges of contemporary society and with knowledge and ideas. We want our graduates to have respect for diversity, to be open-minded, sensitive to others and inclusive, and to be open to other cultures and perspectives: they should have a level of cultural literacy. Our graduates should be aware of disadvantage and social justice, and be willing to participate to help create a wiser and better society.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcome

- Recognise and understand key concepts and theories on political, economic, social, legal, technological and cultural environments discussed in the literature on conducting business in the Indian context.
