Unit description

A study of the law of contract is fundamental for any law student. In this unit students will study the foundational elements of contract law such as the formation of contract, the characterisation and interpretation of contractual terms, factors which vitiate the formation of a valid contract, the requirement for consideration, privity of contract and the discharge of contractual liabilities. Greater depth of understanding of significant issues in the historical and contemporary development of contract law is achieved through the examination and critique of competing philosophies of contract and international comparisons. Problem solving skills are also developed and tested.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Demonstrate a detailed and thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to contract law

Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences

Analyse complex factual situations involving contract law and apply relevant legal principles to solving legal problems

Formulate, present and evaluate oral and written arguments on complex contract law problems and principles, drawing upon relevant legal authority and policy considerations.

Apply advanced research skills

Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time.

General Assessment Information

Detailed marking rubrics will be made available in iLearn.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Assignment No 1	25%	No	27 Sep 2019
Assignment No 2	25%	No	25 Oct 2019
Exam	50%	No	Wed 20 Nov 2019

Assignment No 1

Due: 27 Sep 2019

Weighting: 25%

Assignment No 1 in this unit will require students to answer a hypothetical problem question or questions, and will be available on iLearn by the end of Week 2 of the semester. Assignment No 1 must be a properly referenced formal response with appropriate analysis and argument supported by relevant authoritative cases and commentary. It must be typed and must be kept to a maximum 2,500 words (excluding footnotes and the bibliography). In completing Assignment No 1, students must comply with the Australian Guide to Legal Citation 4th ed. The Guide will be available in iLearn. Assignment No 1 must be uploaded to Turnitin through the relevant iLearn link.

Late Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply: two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date, and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline without an approved special consideration application. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments, e.g. quizzes, online tests, without an approved special consideration application.

Students who have delayed the submission of their assignments will not be able to do so beyond 11 October at the latest, and will be allocated new assignments. This is because marked assignments have to be released to the cohort.

Turnitin will accept only ONE assignment, so it is imperative that the final iteration of the assignment is submitted. It is the student's responsibility to submit the correct assignment in ALL units. If a student submits the wrong assignment, they must advise the unit convenor. The late penalty described above will apply to any assignment lodged in these circumstances. It will not be possible to change the assignment after seven days, and a zero mark will be recorded.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a detailed and thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to contract law
- Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Analyse complex factual situations involving contract law and apply relevant legal principles to solving legal problems
- Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time.

Assignment No 2

Due: 25 Oct 2019

Weighting: 25%

Assignment No 2 in this unit will require students to answer a research question, and will be available on iLearn by the end of Week 5 of the semester. Assignment No 2 must be a properly referenced formal response with appropriate analysis and argument supported by relevant authoritative cases and commentary. It must be typed and must be kept to a maximum 2,500 words (excluding footnotes and the bibliography). In completing Assignment No 2, students must comply with the Australian Guide to Legal Citation 4th ed. The Guide will be available in iLearn. Assignment No 2 must be uploaded to Turnitin through the relevant iLearn link.

No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments, e.g. quizzes, online tests, without an approved special consideration application.

Students who have delayed the submission of their assignments will not be able to do so beyond 8 Nov at the latest, and will be allocated new assignments. This is because marked assignments have to be released to the cohort.

Turnitin will accept only ONE assignment, so it is imperative that the final iteration of the assignment is submitted. It is the student's responsibility to submit the correct assignment in ALL units. If a student submits the wrong assignment, they must advise the unit convenor. Exam

Due: Wed 20 Nov 2019

Weighting: 50%

The final examination in this unit will be a take home examination. The final examination will be based on material covered in the unit. Further details about the examinable topics will be provided in advance. The final examination will be in the form of a number of problem style questions. Students will be able to access the final examination paper on iLearn from 1pm on Wed 20 Nov and must submit their answers to the final examination paper by 5pm on the same day. Detailed information about the date, submission details and format of the exam will be provided to students well before the due date.

A student's answers to the final examination questions must not exceed a total of 3,000 words (exclusive of footnotes). This is an upper word limit and a student need not write 3,000 words if he or she can answer the questions adequately in fewer words. A bibliography is not required. If, for justifiable reasons, a student is unable to attempt the take home examination at the above time, the student should not make any attempt whatsoever. If the student submits a written response, he or she will be marked on that response. The student should instead submit nothing at the required time, but instead contact the unit convenor by email and also apply for special consideration in accordance with the University's Special Consideration Policy, which, if granted, will enable the student to complete an alternative comparable assessment at a time determined by the unit convenor.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate a detailed and thorough knowledge of legal principles relating to contract law

- Interpret and transmit knowledge, skills and concepts to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Analyse complex factual situations involving contract law and apply relevant legal principles to solving legal problems
- Assume responsibility for one's own learning by managing one's time effectively so as to complete and submit assessment items on time.

Delivery and Resources

This unit will use: iLearn webpage and Echo recorded lectures

Weekly Lectures (Internal and Distance Students): Weekly lectures in this unit will be pre-recorded and available to students on iLearn. Weekly lectures will commence in Week 1 and go through to Week 13.

Weekly Tutorials (Internal Students): For internal students, weekly one-hour tutorials will commence in Week 1 and go through to week 13. Tutorials will consist of questions for discussion. The questions to be discussed each week are available in the Unit Outline. Tutorials will take place on Thursdays from 3pm to 4pm in 12 2nd Way 232.

On Campus Sessions (Distance Students): For distance students, there are two consecutive days of on campus sessions. Distance students must attend the on campus sessions (Thu-Fri 19-20 Sep). On campus sessions will run from 9-am to 12 noon and 1 pm to 4 pm on each of the three days. Further information about the on campus sessions will be made available in due course.
