Unit description

This unit provides an introduction to human resource management (HRM) in Australia, key policies and practices and contemporary environmental influences on HR strategy formation. Major topic areas include: human resource planning and staffing; employee training and development; performance appraisal; managing a workforce; and workplace health and safety. On completion of this unit students will be able to demonstrate the links between the different areas of HRM and the contribution of HRM in businesses. Students will develop graduate capabilities in a range of areas including critical thinking, creativity and innovation and communication skills.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.

Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.

Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.

Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Individual Report	35%	No	Week 7
In-Tutorial Group Presentation	15%	No	Weeks 4, 5, 6, 8, 9 & 11
Final Exam Assessment Summary	50%	No	University Examination Period

Individual Report

Due: Week 7

Weighting: 35%

Individual Report Assessment Summary Task Description Examining the role of HRM in organizations, with emphasis on sustainable thinking, research and report writing skills. See Assessment Guide on iLearn for details. Type of Collaboration Individual Submission Please Submit Via Turnitin Link on iLearn Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length 1200 Inherent Task Requirements None Late Submission

Late tasks must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 20% made from the total available marks for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 40% deduction). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time..

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

In-Tutorial Group Presentation

Due: Weeks 4, 5, 6, 8, 9 & 11

Weighting: 15%

In-Tutorial Group Presentation Assessment Summary Task Description Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal presentation. This task requires knowledge of key HR principles, and emphasises strong communication skills, critical thinking and substantiating a point of view. Students present as a team, but are assessed individually. See Assessment Guide on iLearn for more details. Type of Collaboration Group Work but Assessed Individually Submission In tutorials in Weeks 4, 5, 6, 8, 9 and 11. Please submit via Turnitin Link on iLearn Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length Students will speak for 3 minutes each Inherent Task Requirements Students must be in attendance at the tutorial in which they are allocated to present. Late Submission Students who are absent from class on the day they are allocated to present will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved.

Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Final Exam Assessment Summary

Due: University Examination Period

Weighting: 50%

Final Exam Assessment Summary Task Description A final examination is included as an assessment task for this unit to provide assurance that: (i) the product belongs to the student and ii) the student has attained the knowledge and skills tested in the exam. Type of Collaboration Individual Submission You are expected to present yourself for examination at the time and place designated in the University Examination Timetable Format Closed Book. Details given in the Week 13 lecture. Length 2 hours plus 10 minutes reading time Inherent Task Requirements None Late Submissions

Please see Assessment Policy Schedule 4.

The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time in the University Examination Timetable is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for special consideration. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Report
- In-Tutorial Group Presentation
- Final Exam Assessment Summary

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Assessment tasks

- Individual Report
- In-Tutorial Group Presentation
- Final Exam Assessment Summary

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Assessment tasks

- Individual Report
- In-Tutorial Group Presentation
- Final Exam Assessment Summary

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Apply knowledge of HR principles in a verbal debate using persuasive communication skills.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Socially and Environmentally Active and Responsible

We want our graduates to be aware of and have respect for self and others; to be able to work with others as a leader and a team player; to have a sense of connectedness with others and country; and to have a sense of mutual obligation. Our graduates should be informed and active participants in moving society towards sustainability.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Identify and investigate key concepts and theories in Human Resource Management.
- Explain and analyse the connection between Human Resource Management and organisational processes, plans and policies which deliver sustainable organisations.
- Develop and apply effective critical thinking and argument-making skills.

Assessment task
