Class participation

Due: Week 2 - 13

Weighting: 20%

Class Participation Assessment Summary Task Description

Assessment task 1 will reward participation in your tutorial groups. This is a mark for active participation in the tutorial, and not simply attendance, though attendance is obviously a necessary precondition for participation.

This will start in tutorial 2 and finish in tutorial 13. Students must actively participate in at least 9 of these tutorials to maximise their marks. Students will be assessed on both the quality and quantity of their participation, including demonstration of preparation. This unit has been designed to develop learning incrementally, on a week by week basis. Tutors will be responsible for awarding these marks. Attendance will be recorded, but is not a sufficient condition for achievement of participation marks.

Type of Collaboration Individual Submission In tutorial participation. Participation will be recorded in tutorial weeks 2-13. There is no written component. Students must actively participate in class discussion. Format Students will be assessed on both the quality and quantity of their participation, including demonstration of preparation. This includes verbal responses to questions and asking relevant, informed questions. Please refer to the iLearn Unit page. Length Participation from tutorial 2 to 13. Inherent Task Requirement Attendance is a necessary but not sufficient condition for participation. Students should not miss more than 2 tutorials to maximise their marks. Late Submissions

No extensions will be granted. Students who have missed or anticipate missing more than 2 tutorials should apply for Special consideration.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- To understand the political, social and cultural landscape in which organizations operate.
- To critically explore the ways organizations behave.

- To analyse the ways in which organizations influence people, and the ways in which people shape organizational behaviour.
- To develop critical thinking and writing skills in organization behaviour.

Submission 1 will include summaries for the articles discussed in tutorials 2, 3, and 4, and is due in week 5.

Submission 2 will include summaries for the articles discussed in tutorials 5, 6, and 7, and is due in week 8.

Each submission is worth 20%, for a total of 40% for the two submissions together.

Type of Collaboration Individual Submission Please Submit Via Turnitin Link on iLearn. As above, Submission 1 will include summaries for the articles discussed in tutorial weeks 2, 3, and 4, and is due in week 5. Submission 2 will include summaries for the articles discussed in tutorial weeks 5, 6, and 7, and is due in week 8. Please check iLearn for exact due dates. Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page for details. Length 3x350 words critical summaries for each submission. Inherent Task Requirements N/A Late Submission

There will be a deduction of 10% made from the total available marks for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20% penalty). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

Research and Practice, Global Contexts and Sustainability

This unit draws on contemporary research conducted in business and management, including Professor Pullen's own research in the subject of organization studies, on the key themes and issues covered in this course. Contemporary journal articles, media resources and organizational materials will be used to work through the issues facing organizations. Of central importance is the ways in which students draw parallels between theory from the journal articles and organizational practices. This will be a key feature of the lectures. This unit studies organizations in different global contexts and draws on international research articles to do so. It is vital that students appreciate that the ways in which we study and understand organization behaviour is different in diverse global contexts. Running through this unit is a core focus on issues of in/equality and in/justice and how they relate to developing sustainable organizations.
