Unit description

This unit will engage the use of creativity as a business tool for leaders and entrepreneurs. Students will learn about the value of creativity in business, how it relates to innovation and why it plays an important role in organisations today. The unit will present strategies for spurring, managing and enhancing creativity and innovation. Students will learn to explore and design their own creative stimulations and place these within a business context. This unit will also explore how best to engage others in both innovative and creative thinking, that would contribute positively to the organisation.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Group Innovation Project

Due: Weeks 8,11 and 13

Weighting: 60%

Group Innovation Project Assessment Summary Task Description

In groups of 4-5, students will undertake an agreed innovative group project. The project will centre on a range of issues which will be entrepreneurial, business and/or leadership focused.

Each group will decide what the issue will be and undertake the various assessment tasks outlined below. These issues will be discussed in the tutorial workshops. In developing the idea/s, existing issues can be utilised but the solution/s must be expanded on significantly to warrant being innovative and creative in nature and how the changes will be implemented.

The group will submit the following assessment tasks:

1. Creative mind map or similar depiction of the Group Project Value: 10%
2. Creative Video Presentation of the Group Project Value 20%
3. Individual Participation of the Group Project (Peer Assessed) Value: 10%
4. Individual Action Report reflecting on the Group Project Value: 20%

The Group Project entails the following:

1. Each group will present a mind map or some other similar tool showing the components of the project that they have reached consensus on and this will be presented in a creative fashion.
2. Each group will produce a creative film/ video presentation of 10 minutes duration outlining their issue/challenge and solution, and how they are preparing to "Lead the Change".
3. Each student will undertake a Peer Assessment of themselves and their group members.
4. Each student will individually write a 1000 word Action Report reflecting on the Group Project, which will involve academic research, background reading and self reflection.

Type of Collaboration Group & Individual Submission

1. Creative Mind map or similar - Please upload via iLearn in Week 8
2. Creative Film/ video Presentation - Presented in class to the lecturer in Week 11

Graduate Capabilities

Creative and Innovative

Our graduates will also be capable of creative thinking and of creating knowledge. They will be imaginative and open to experience and capable of innovation at work and in the community. We want them to be engaged in applying their critical, creative thinking.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Demonstrate commitment to achieving a teamwork task
- Demonstrate the application of innovation within a business context
- Develop creative solutions to business challenges

Assessment tasks

- Individual Creative Project
- Group Innovation Project

Research & Practice, Global Contexts & Sustainability

1. This unit draws on extensive research from sources outside the textbook. Students will be provided with additional mandatory research articles for every week that will allow them to considerably expand their knowledge of creativity and Innovation. In addition, a list of suggested articles will be posted on iLearn for students who wish to stretch themselves.
2. Conducting research independently is strongly encouraged for this unit and is rewarded
3. Innovation practices between countries will be extensively discussed and students will be asked to elaborate on these work practices.
4. Creativity and Innovation theories and applications from non-Western perspectives will be integrated in the course.
5. Issues of sustainability in relation to creativity and innovation will be discussed throughout the course.
