Unit description
This unit further develops the concepts and techniques covered in ACCG200 and ACCG301. This unit provides a systematic and critical analysis of the issues related to the integration of management accounting and control systems with strategy implementation. Strategy is initially discussed as a topic in its own right, followed by an examination of how various strategic choices affect management accounting techniques such as activity-based accounting, variance analysis, and performance evaluation. By the end of this unit students will be able to analyse complex situations and develop approaches that are logical, consistent and defensible from a strategic perspective. The unit uses case studies extensively to develop graduate capabilities centred upon higher order critical analysis skills and the ability of students to generate a range of effective alternative options and innovative solutions to case-based scenarios.

Learning Outcomes

1. Critically evaluate different organisational strategies and develop approaches that are logical, consistent and defensible from a strategic perspective.
2. Explain the influence of strategy on the design of management accounting systems.
3. Develop skills in analysing and interpreting case based scenarios with a view to making appropriate recommendations.
4. Demonstrate effective oral and written communication. Express and justify viewpoints, and articulate them in a group setting.
5. Understand the principles of management accounting research and develop a research proposal.

Assessed Coursework

Due: TBA
Weighting: 25%

Coursework will be collected and assessed by tutors. Details regarding these assignments is provided on the subject iLearn site. Students are required to complete the following assignments:

Students are required to complete the weekly case based assignments. Four of these will be collected by your tutor.

1) The Week 8 assignment is compulsory and is worth 10% of the total assessment.

2) An additional three assignments will be collected. Your tutor will randomly determine which weeks that the assignments will be collected. Each of these three assignments will be awarded a mark out of 5 (i.e. 15%).

Each of the assignments will be marked based on the content and accuracy of your answers with feedback to be provided in respect to each assignment.

NB While 4 weekly assignments will be marked students are also expected to prepare answers to the other weekly assignments. Your tutor will randomly check whether you have prepared answers to these other assignments and this will affect your participation assessment mark.

Type of Collaboration: Individual
Submission: Assignments will be collected at the end of seminars.

Format: See unit assessment guide for details.

Length: See unit assessment guide for details.

Inherent Task Requirements: Case based weekly assignments.

Late Submission:

Extensions - assignments are due in seminars and will not be accepted after the seminar. If illness or unavoidable circumstances prevents submission students must apply for Special Consideration.

Penalties - No extensions will be granted. Students who have not submitted the task prior to the deadline will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which an application for special consideration is made and approved.

This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Critically evaluate different organisational strategies and develop approaches that are logical, consistent and defensible from a strategic perspective.
- Explain the influence of strategy on the design of management accounting systems.
- Develop skills in analysing and interpreting case based scenarios with a view to making appropriate recommendations.
- Demonstrate effective oral and written communication. Express and justify viewpoints, and articulate them in a group setting.

Class Tests

Due: 18th March / 27th May
Weighting: 35%

Task Description: Two class tests will be held. The first class test will be held on Monday 18th March and will be worth 10% of the assessment. This test will be held during your normal seminar.

The second class test is worth 25% of the assessment and will be held on Monday 27th May (between 6-9pm). The exact time of the test will be determined later and students will be advised in a unit website announcement. Additional information will be provided prior to the tests.

Type of Collaboration: Individual

Submission: The class tests will be held during the Week 4 and Week 12 seminars.

Format: To be advised via ilearn announcements.

Length: To be advised via ilearn announcements.

Inherent Task Requirements: Formal invigilated tests.

Late Submission: Extensions and penalties - If students do not attend the scheduled class tests then a mark of zero will be awarded. If illness or unavoidable circumstances prevents attendance then students can apply for Special Consideration.
This Assessment Task relates to the following Learning Outcomes:

• Critically evaluate different organisational strategies and develop approaches that are logical, consistent and defensible from a strategic perspective.

• Explain the influence of strategy on the design of management accounting systems.

• Develop skills in analysing and interpreting case based scenarios with a view to making appropriate recommendations.

• Demonstrate effective oral and written communication. Express and justify viewpoints, and articulate them in a group setting.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
There is no technology required other than the use of the unit website.

Students should attend three hours of face-to-face teaching per week consisting of a three hour seminar. Please note that any changes to seminar classes must be made online through e-student. Students wishing to change their seminar time should log on to e-student and enrol in a class where there is a vacancy. Staff members WILL NOT deal with seminar changes unless there are exceptional circumstances. It is each student’s responsibility to know which seminar group they have been allocated to. Students will not be awarded any class marks unless they attend the class in which they are formally enrolled.

If on a rare occasion students are unable to attend the class in which they are enrolled they may attend an alternative class during the week. If this occurs they should get the tutor to sign and date their assignment at the end of the class and then pass the assignment on to their regular teacher. This should not occur frequently as the failure to attend the seminar in which you are formally enrolled will impact on the participation mark awarded. The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/

Changes made to previous ACCG330 offering
The topics have been adjusted and the assessments rearranged to enhance the focus on the fifth learning outcome - understanding the principles of management accounting research and developing a research proposal.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central (https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policy-central). Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

- Academic Appeals Policy
- Academic Integrity Policy
- Academic Progression Policy
- Assessment Policy
- Fitness to Practice Procedure
- Grade Appeal Policy
- Complaint Management Procedure for Students and Members of the Public
- Special Consideration Policy (Note: The Special Consideration Policy is effective from 4 December 2017 and replaces the Disruption to Studies Policy.)

Undergraduate students seeking more policy resources can visit the Student Policy Gateway (https://students.mq.edu.au/support/study/student-policy-gateway). It is your one-stop-shop for the key policies you need to know about throughout your undergraduate student journey.

If you would like to see all the policies relevant to Learning and Teaching visit Policy Central (https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policy-central).

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically evaluate different organisational strategies and develop approaches that are logical, consistent and defensible from a strategic perspective.
- Explain the influence of strategy on the design of management accounting systems.
- Develop skills in analysing and interpreting case based scenarios with a view to making appropriate recommendations.
- Understand the principles of management accounting research and develop a research proposal.
Assessment tasks

- Assessed Coursework
- Class Tests
- Class Participation

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systematically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically evaluate different organisational strategies and develop approaches that are logical, consistent and defensible from a strategic perspective.
- Develop skills in analysing and interpreting case based scenarios with a view to making appropriate recommendations.

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Critically evaluate different organisational strategies and develop approaches that are logical, consistent and defensible from a strategic perspective.
- Develop skills in analysing and interpreting case based scenarios with a view to making appropriate recommendations.
- Understand the principles of management accounting research and develop a research
Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Explain the influence of strategy on the design of management accounting systems.
- Develop skills in analysing and interpreting case based scenarios with a view to making appropriate recommendations.
- Demonstrate effective oral and written communication. Express and justify viewpoints, and articulate them in a group setting.
- Understand the principles of management accounting research and develop a research proposal.

Research and Practice and Global and Sustainability

This unit addresses global and sustainability issues as direct areas of study and as necessary implications arising from the materials, assessment and academic discussion and debate in classes/seminars. We promote sustainability by developing ability in students to research and locate information within the accounting discipline. We aim to provide students with an opportunity to obtain skills which will benefit them throughout their career.

The unit materials have a reference list at the end of each chapter/module/text containing all references cited by the author. These provide some guidance to references that could be used to research particular issues.
